

ANARCHISTS, LED BY HERR MOST, ASSEMBLE IN ST. LOUIS AND PRESIDENT'S LIFE IS GUARDED WITH GREAT CARE

REDS DISREGARD ORDER TO LEAVE THE CITY

Secret Service Men of the Government Assume All Responsibility for Chief Executive's Protection.

Roosevelt's Progress Through the Fair Grounds a Constant Ovation—Tremendous Crush at Manufactures and Fine Arts Buildings.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 24.—One of the most tremendous ovations ever extended the chief executive of any nation was given President Roosevelt today at the Louisiana Purchase exposition...

That no attempt was made was unquestionably due to the vigilance shown and the espionage on every suspect. Two days ago it became known that there was quietly gathering here the worst band of "reds" that has ever been brought together in America...

With most came others of his ilk, and almost simultaneously some 30 United States secret service men. The anarchist headquarters were found in a house near Second and Market streets, and not a man, woman or child could enter or depart from it...

Yesterday morning the police decided to force the issue by visiting the anarchists at once. The party, with the exception of Most, agreed to leave by 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but late last night were still in the city.

Most refused, but made no threats which could be used for his detention, although he was in a particularly violent frame of mind, as he has been almost constantly since his last incarceration in New England...

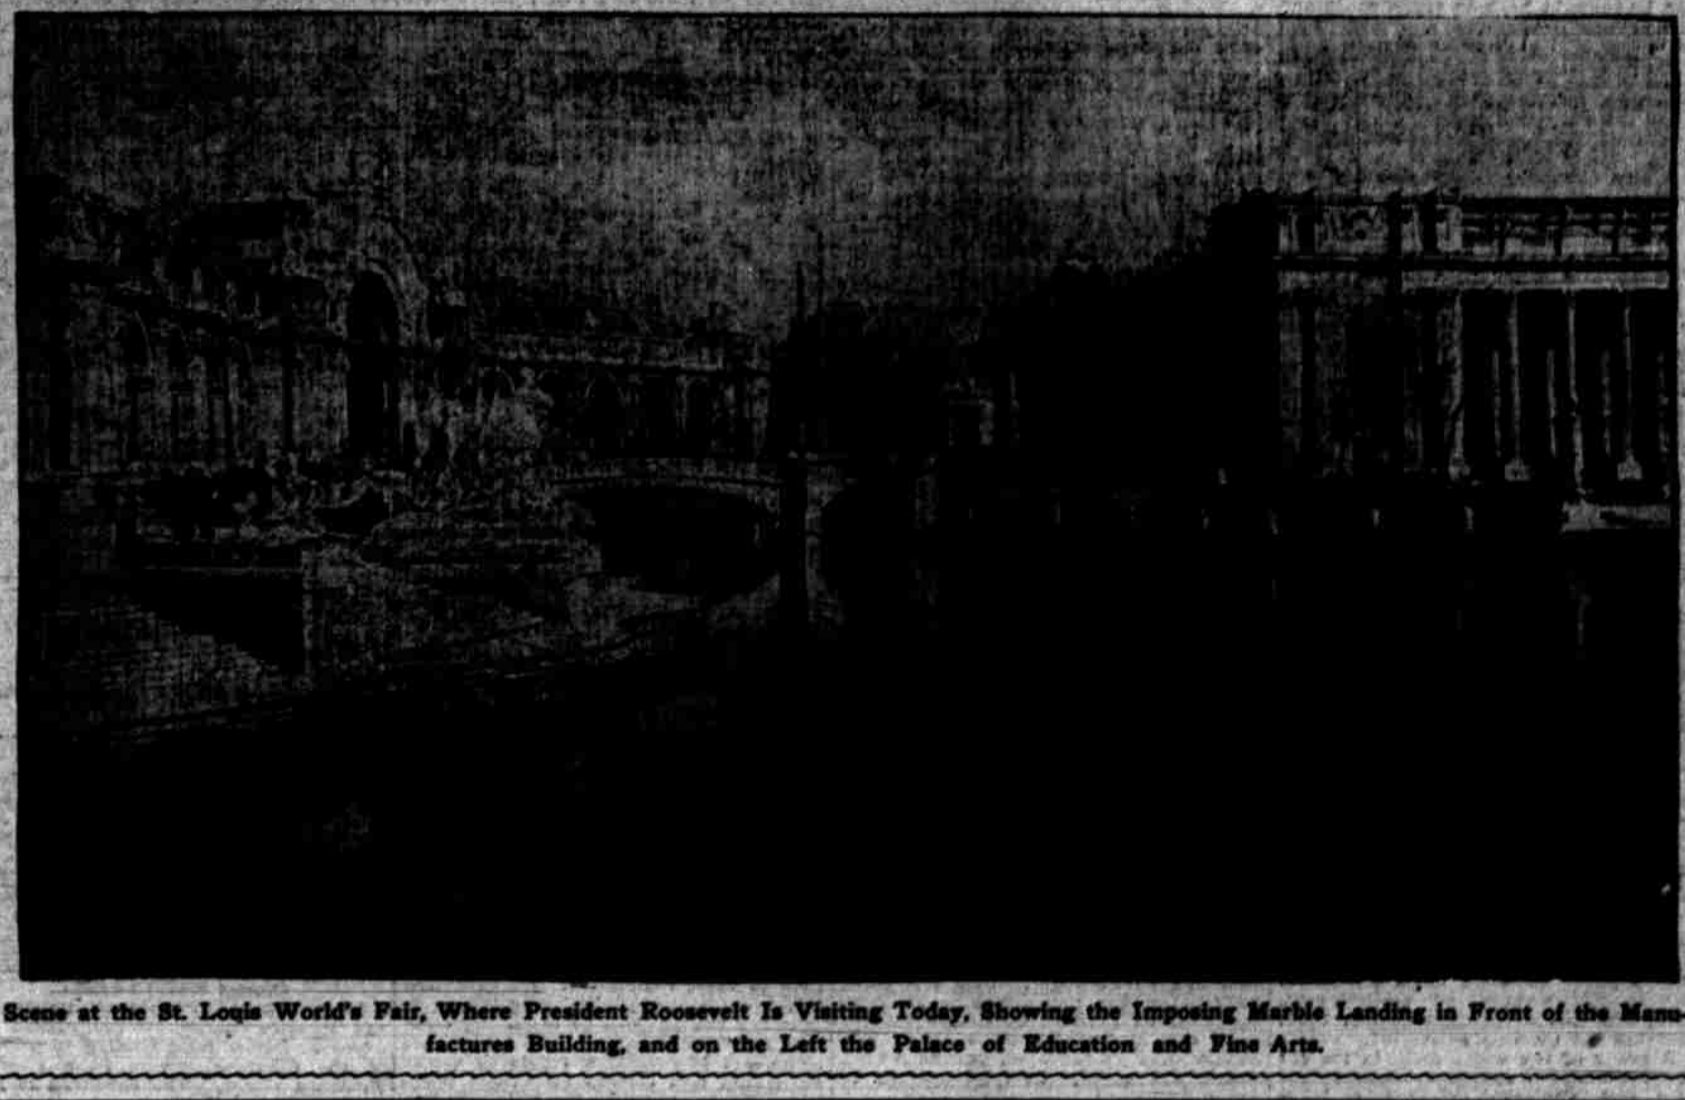

The president's special arrived at the Union station at 4:30 o'clock this morning. It was immediately transferred to the Washburn, where it was parked inside the Transportation building. Details of the Sixteenth United States Infantry formed a cordon about the entire structure...

RIOT WHILE RUSHING FOR MARRIAGE PERMITS

(Journal Special Service.) Greenwood, O., Nov. 24.—A scramble for marriage licenses in the office of the city clerk here yesterday resulted in a riot in which five men and two women were seriously injured...

STARVATION THREATENS THE SASSUNS IN TURKEY

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, D. C., Nov. 24.—American Consul Norton, at Harport, reports to the state department that 10,000 Sassuns in the Bush district, survivors of the recent massacres, are in danger of starvation...

TO SHOW CONSPIRACY

Evidence That Puter and Mrs. Watson Traveled as Mr. and Mrs. Puter

FREDERICK CRIBBS IS BROUGHT INTO CASE

Deed by Mrs. Watson Transferring Land to Rich Wisconsin Lumberman Admitted at Land Fraud Trial.

Even the studied composure of S. A. D. Puter and Mrs. Emma Watson was visibly shaken this morning when the government's attorneys in the land-trust case began the introduction of evidence that these defendants had passed themselves as man and wife...

"Have you ever before seen this woman?" asked the attorney. "This woman," he said, "is Mrs. Emma Watson, who is the wife of the defendant..."

The Court's View. "That might be true in the case of two counterfeiters," said Judge Bellinger, "but where a man and a woman are concerned there is a reason other than the alleged conspiracy for their intimacy..."

PRESIDENT KNOCKS OUT LIEUTENANT FORTESCUE

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, Nov. 24.—Broad and athletic, with a reputation of being one of the best boxers in the army, noted for a street combat at San Francisco in which he bested a cab driver, Lieut. Granville R. Fortescue, nephew of President Roosevelt, accepted an invitation to don the gloves with his uncle at the White House Wednesday...

ONE KILLED AND FOUR INJURED IN COLLISION

(Journal Special Service.) Dunkirk, N. Y., Nov. 24.—The Lake Shore Limited, east-bound, crashed into a fire department wagon today, killing Fireman Frank Miller and seriously injuring four other firemen. The wagon was on its way to a fire and the horses were traveling at no more than a fast trot when it was impossible to stop when the train was sighted.

ELLIOTT STILL HOLDS HIS OFFICE Mayor Williams' Inaction Regarded as a Defiance of the City Council.

ENGINEER SAYS HE IS VICTIM OF POLITICIANS It is Likely That Work of Re-building Sewer Will Be Started at Once.

Mayor Williams' refusal to proceed immediately with the removal of City Engineer Elliott, charged with negligence and incompetency, on recommendation of the city council as a result of the inquiry into the Tanner creek sewer scandal, is looked upon as an act of defiance of the wishes of the council.

City Engineer Elliott will have at least two weeks' longer lease of office, as the mayor states that he will not "make up his mind" to act on the recommendations of the council until he hears the results of the grand jury investigation and the inquiry by the special council committee into the state of the work on the Morrison street and other bridges.

BALLIET GETS A LIGHT SENTENCE Self-Styled Napoleon of Finance to Pay Small Fine and Serve Three Months in Jail—Federal District Judge McPherson at Des Moines Pronounces Penalty on Plea of Guilty.

(Journal Special Service.) Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 24.—Letson Balliet, the notorious mine promoter who operated largely in Oregon, was this morning sentenced by Federal District Judge McPherson to serve three months in prison and pay a fine of $500. This sentence was upon the plea of guilty which the accused entered recently, rather than stand another trial for which the government was preparing to hold November 29.

CREW MUTINIES WHILE HURRICANE IS RAGING San Francisco, Nov. 24.—The news of a mutiny on board the British ship Cathness-shire on her recent voyage from Antwerp to Manzanillo was brought to this city by Mrs. Hill, wife of the ship's captain, who arrived here from Mexico yesterday. The crew rebelled while the vessel was in the grasp of a hurricane and refused to do the officer's bidding.

MUSIC LESSONS FREE

That is one of the things The Sunday Journal offers its readers. In a way that any child can understand W. Scott Grove explains the principles of playing the piano. No other method so easy, yet so thorough, has ever been offered to the public. The only instructor needed is the page of The Journal on which the lesson is printed.

FOR THE CHILDREN.—In addition to the free music lesson, there are the double colored comic magazine sections printed on The Journal's big rainbow press and McDougall's fairy stories. FOR THE WOMEN.—Mrs. Osborn contributes hints on fashions and Mrs. S. A. Evans furnishes her always interesting page devoted to women's clubs. FOR THE MEN.—There's all the news of the world, by special leased wire (the only one in Oregon), the best summary Portland ever had, and a hundred other wondrously satisfying or amusing features. ANDREW CARNEGIE is one of tomorrow's features. CHINMIE FAQQEN has a fresh and amusingly satirical story. THINGS THEATRICAL.—The newest and the best are described in entertaining fashion in Goodman's New York letter. THESE ARE MERELY THE EXCLUSIVE FEATURES that no other newspaper has had the enterprise or ventured the money to obtain. You can get the biggest 5 cents worth to be had in the city by buying
