

THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL. THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL. THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL.

St. Andrew's day was fittingly celebrated by the Scots of the city at Parsons' hall last night by a banquet and speeches. About 75 guests assembled, and with song and story made merry for several hours.

The Bailey Gatzert—yes, that's the boat you want to take for the Columbia river trip to the Dalles or any way you please. There's not another boat on the river that can compete with the Bailey Gatzert for magnificence.

Kenyon's Cough and Cold Cure, sold by Albert Berni, the druggist, Second and Washington, is again demonstrating its popularity by the great demand for it.

Members of the Brooklyn School Alumni association are planning for one of the merriest parties in its history tomorrow evening, December 2.

At a meeting of the Oregon State Association of Trained Nurses, held at the Good Samaritan hospital last night, the organization was completed and the following officers elected:

After falling in a epileptic fit on Washington street, E. W. Wendorf, 27, was taken to the hospital by a passerby.

A ride to the Dalles on the steamer Charles R. Spencer, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, returning on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, affords one of the most enjoyable trips in the world.

Two Oregon women will attend the national convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union, which convenes in Philadelphia next week.

Notice has been sent to all liquor dealers in this city to make application for licenses to the liquor license committee if they desire to continue in the saloon business next year.

The Women's Home and Foreign Missionary society will meet at the home of Mrs. W. H. Beharrel, 470 Park street, on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

All the women's organizations of the city will probably be asked to join with the W. C. T. U. in protesting against the Lewis and Clark fair.

OSTEOPATHY. Cures Many So-called Incurable Diseases. DR. ADIX & NORTHRUP. 618 Bohan Building. Phone, Main 59.

EXAMINATION FREE. W. W. Cotton, general counsel of the Harriman lines in Oregon, is to be away for a number of three weeks, to attend to legal business for the railroad companies with which he is connected.

Edmund Vance Cook, the well known author and writer, entertained a large and appreciative audience in the Y. M. C. A. hall last night. In his recitations called the most graphically portrayed.

There were three clear days in the month of November. As the others were designated as cloudy or partly cloudy by the weather office, the mean temperature for the month was 51 degrees.

Union avenue bridge over Sullivan's gulch will be repaired by the city and work will begin within a few days.

Arlita school is crowded. There are now 225 pupils, and the number is increasing. There is one room which is not used, but it is thought that a sixth teacher will have to be employed.

In the interest of organization work for the W. C. T. U., Mrs. A. W. Unruh, national organizer, has arranged a series of meetings in eastern Oregon counties.

For a week crowds have been flocking to the custom house building, in the belief that the land fraud cases are being tried there.

The Young Men's Democratic club will hold a special meeting at its hall in the chamber of commerce on Friday evening, at which all members are urged to be present.

Professor Eaton's dancing school, Classes Monday and Thursday evenings at Arion hall. Beginners taken at any time.

It is easier to cure a headache than it is to have one, by using Wright's Paragon Headache Cure. Tablets or wafer form, 25c, all druggists.

Woodward Dancing Academy, Burkhardt hall, Monday and Thursday. The three-step taught. Spectators invited.

Prizes for essays by school children. Prizes have been offered by the Oregon Society of the Sons of the American Revolution for the best essay written by any student under 21 years of age.

Essays will be limited in length to 2,500 words, and must be submitted not later than Feb. 1, 1905.

W. S. Ferguson of Pendleton is at the Imperial. Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Morris of Roseburg are at the Imperial.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Morris of Roseburg are at the Imperial. Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Morris of Roseburg are at the Imperial.

W. W. Cotton, general counsel of the Harriman lines in Oregon, is to be away for a number of three weeks, to attend to legal business for the railroad companies with which he is connected.

Follow the Crowd. Christmas Presents Gladly Laid Aside for Early Buyers. Our Watch Department. To overcrowded with pretty new designs in silver, nickel, gold filled and solid gold watches.

JAEGER BROS. 390 MORRISON STREET. JEWELERS—OPTICIANS. BIG WIND BURSTS OVER POLICEMEN. Chief Hunt, in Angry Mood, Storms Loudly for a Maintenance of Discipline.

Something rattled the stately calm of Chief of Police Hunt yesterday afternoon. A button may have fallen from his new uniform. Whatever it was, it must have perturbed the chief.

Dr. Stephen A. Wise, W. T. Gardner and Judge H. W. Hendon are working on the draft of the bill creating a juvenile court in Multnomah county.

THE IOWA JEWELER. "Peggy From Paree". One of the very newest things being shown in holiday goods is the "Peggy from Paree," a wrist or shopping bag.

A. N. WRIGHT. 293 MORRISON ST. Defective Drainage. Is responsible for many and various ills—typhoid fever one of the most serious.

FOUND! AT NOON YESTERDAY BY MRS. STELLA THEIS, 322 WASHINGTON ST. Reception Days. A wonderful art exhibit at Portland's Music Center.

RECEPTION DAYS. A wonderful art exhibit at Portland's Music Center. World's Most Famous Instruments in Holiday Styles Creating Widespread Interest Among Christmas Buyers.

Columbia Theatre. TONIGHT, ALL WEEK, MATINEE SATURDAY AND SUNDAY. "THE NEW DOMINION". A charming comedy-drama.

THE GRAND THEATRE. (Formerly Grand Opera.) To see the best in the land you must patronize the Grand.

JOURNAL COUPON. No. 24—COUPON—No. 24. Star Theatre. FRIDAY MATINEE, DECEMBER 2, 1904.

THE ARCADE THEATRE. The original family vaudeville house. La Mont's Cockatoo Circus.

BAKER THEATRE. Third and Yamhill streets, Keating & Flood, Mgrs. Large Vaudeville House in America. THE LYRIC THEATRE.

ELASTIC STOCKINGS AND TRUSSES. Headquarters for Elastic Stockings and Trusses. LAUE-DAVIS DRUG CO. Third and Yamhill Sts.

Poor Quality Paint Has Wings. And is too feeble to do what you want and expect it to do—protect wood and metal work.

Fisher, Thorsen & Co. Gov. Trout and Morrison Streets. EVERYTHING IS PERFECT HERE.

THE TROY. All work called for and delivered promptly. West Side Office, 129 Fifth Street.

1905. promises to be a year of unprecedented prosperity for the Oregon Country.

F. W. BALPES & COMPANY. Writers, Printers and Binders. First and Oak Streets (Main 168).

LAUE-DAVIS DRUG CO. Headquarters for Elastic Stockings and Trusses. Third and Yamhill Sts.