Deputy Syveton (the hatless man), of the French chamber, whose sensational attack on Minister Andre November 4 was followed by Andre's resignation and by several duels. A few days after the attack Syveton was found dead in his room, asphyxiated by gas. His family now admits that he killed himself to avoid exposure of his relations with his married step-daughter, Mme. Menard.

WORLD LEAGUE TO FIGHT CIGARETTES

International Corporation Has Been Formed, with Headquarters in This City.

TO PROMOTE LAWS FOR THE DEFENSE OF YOUTH

History of an Organization that Has Spread Tremendously from Small Beginnings.

The International Anti-Cigarette League was incorporated according to the laws of Oregon yesterday. Its object is declared to be unification of the widespread efforts against cigarettes now being made by many organizations and many persons in different parts of the world.

The real work of the anti-cigarette movement was begun in Chicago nearly five years ago by Miss Lucy Page Gaston, who is everywhere recognized as the foremost worker in this reform. Miss Gaston called to her support Dr. Wallace R. Struble, now in the city and at that time leader of the great Willard hall noon meetings, Chicago, who began the delivery of lectures in churches and schools of Chicago, resulting in immediate quickening of the local interest. Through the efforts of Miss Gaston some of the principal business men of Chicago were enlisted as members of an incorporated board, and yet others were enlisted as substantial financial supporters of the work. So great was the interest aroused by these efforts that demands for the work came from all parts of the nation, and in April, 1900, Miss Gaston and Dr. Struble conducted a campaign in Topeka, Kan., during the publication of the Topeka Capital by Dr. Charles M. Sheldon. Widespread notice was given this campaign by Dr. Sheldon and from that effort the work of the league became in a sense international. The articles of incorporation state that: 1.—The name of this corporation shall be the "International Anti-Cigarette League," and its duration shall be perpetual.

2.—The objects of this corporation shall be the agitation and promotion of anti-cigarette sentiment in the United States, Great Britain, Canada, and other civilized nations, and to co-operate with other organizations having similar purposes in view. The business and pursuit of this corporation shall be to organize local, county, state and national auxiliaries to the corporate body; to publish and distribute membership cards, distinctive badges, tracts, circulars and other literature; to acquire, own and dispose of money, real estate and other securities in furtherance of its objects.

3.—The estimated value of property and money of this corporation at the time of execution of this instrument is $100. The sources of revenue and income of this corporation shall be by solicitation of moneys and donations from the general public, the sale of badges, literature and periodicals and the giving of lectures and entertainments in illustration of its objects.

4.—The title of the officers making this instrument shall be board of directors of the International Anti-Cigarette League; they shall have power to adopt by-laws governing their acts and to elect or appoint such officers as may be necessary to carry out the full objects of this corporation. Said board of directors shall hold office for the term of one year from the date of the first annual meeting, herein provided for, or until their successors are legally elected and qualified. Said board of directors shall hold their regular annual meeting on the third Monday of December of each year, at the hour of 10 a. m. in the principal office of the corporation, in the city of Portland, Or., at which time reports of officers for the year shall be given and a board of directors selected by ballot to succeed the makers hereof or their successors.

5.—The location of this corporation and its principal office for the transaction of official business shall be Portland, Or.; its international headquarters for the promotion of its general organization and the publishing and distribution of its literature and supplies shall be Chicago, Ill. It may establish and maintain branch international offices in such cities of the world as its board of directors may determine.

6.—The purpose of this corporation shall not be pecuniary profit, and it shall have no power to issue stock or sell the same.

7.—The names of the incorporators of this corporation are Cullen Ewing Cline, chairman; Elmer Ellsworth Miller, secretary-treasurer, of Portland, and Wallace Randolph Struble, vice-chairman-general superintendent, of Chicago, Ill., and these shall constitute the board of directors of this corporation for its first year, with power to adopt by-laws governing the same.

DELIGHTFUL BALL IN HONOR OF MR. WERLEIN

The Scottish Rite cathedral, on Morrison and Lowndale streets, was a picture of gaiety and color last night when Parsons' orchestra swung temptingly into its most bewitching waltzes and two-steps, and the guests answered the summons. The occasion was the second of the series of balls given by the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite Masons, and handsomely dressed crowds came to enjoy and add enjoyment to it. Rustling silks and satins, soft, girlish frocks, fluttering fans and sweet scented flowers, all added to the beauty of the scene. Every dancer in the hall went into the two-step, newly christened the "Werlein," with vim and spirit that reflected their esteem for the honored guest, City Treasurer Werlein.

Adjoining rooms vied with the ball room in popularity. Delicious fruit punch and lemonade were served in the refreshment room. The cardrooms were open for those who did not dance, and the library for story combinations and smoke. Everywhere the members of the reception committee were in evidence, attending to the wants of every one; introducing strangers, inviting guests to punch, showing them the various rooms, and arranging card parties. On this committee were E. S. Jackson, W. C. Francis, W. C. Knighton, C. E. Rumelin, E. B. Colwell, City Treasurer Werlein and F. C. Wasserman. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. C.
