Charming "Charity Ball." Many people are saying that "The Charity Ball," running this week at the Columbia is the most beautiful production of the Columbia season thus far...

Picture of Bethlehem. A splendid picture of life in Bethlehem in the days of the nativity, a picturesque grouping of the Magi, Herod, shepherds, Joseph, Mary and the Angel Gabriel...

The Grand's New Features. Not even the downpour of rain could keep the crowds away from the Grand theatre last night. The attraction, as usual, was the Arabs, who added to their act and gave it a finish as new as it was beautiful and picturesque...

Coupons for the Star. This afternoon there is published in The Journal a coupon which entitles the bearer to half price admission to the Star theatre matinee tomorrow afternoon...

"The Last Word." John Drew and Ada Rehan made one of the biggest hits of the day's sensational comedy, "The Last Word." This is the play now in preparation for the Columbia theatre, opening with the Sunday matinee, January 1...

The Arcade's Capital Program. If we may judge the value of the Arcade's program by the crowded attendance, it is one of the best that has ever been presented at this fashionable, cozy family theatre...

No Dullness at Bijou. Right in the middle of the week is the time to see a good variety show. The Bijou is the place to go to. "The two red ravens," Welch and Maitland; May and Miles, with their odd dances and new songs; Burdick, with his mysteries of the eye and hand, and the excruciating thorough pictures will brighten up a dull day...

Automobile Given Away. Tonight at the Lyric Dr. Wright's automobile will be given away. The recipient must be in the house. A big bill has been arranged for the occasion. Friday night money will be given away.

Mirth at the Baker. A good place to spend a part of your
