PARKHURST BEGINS ANTI-VICE CRUSADE

Says New York City Is Wide Open and Demands That It Be Closed Up.

SEVERE SOCIAL SHOCKS PROMISED METROPOLIS

Governor Will Be Asked to Remove Mayor if Latter Refuses to Do as Asked.

(Journal Special Service.)

New York, Jan. 4.—Dr. Parkhurst, who once before startled the New York police and tenderloin, is about to do the same thing again. Parkhurst has written a letter to Police Commissioner McAdoo, calling attention to the wide-open condition of the city, demanding that the police take proper action.

Parkhurst's letter is only a forecast of the prosecution Parkhurst and his society intends. It is understood that the whole tenderloin will be shaken worse than by the Luxow investigation. A member of Parkhurst's society said that surprising results are expected, and that if a commission was appointed the city would suffer one of its most severe social shocks.

The Parkhurst society will carry the matter to the mayor, and charges may be made against high officials. It is not improbable that the mayor will be asked to remove McAdoo. If McClellan refuses, it is proposed to ask Governor Higgins to remove McClellan.
