WEATHER REPORT.

A cold wave occupies the territory between the Rocky mountains and the Mississippi river. Zero weather extends as far south as the Texas Panhandle, and a freezing temperature is reported at San Antonio, Tex.

A light fall of snow occurred yesterday afternoon and last night in the Willamette valley and the sound country, but none of consequence fell in the inter-mountain sections. It is raining this morning in northern California and snowing in the sound country.

The indications are for rain or snow tonight and Saturday in western Oregon and western Washington, and for snow in eastern Oregon, eastern Washington and Idaho, with colder weather east of the Cascade mountains Saturday.

TODAY'S MARKETS

Hop Market Is Weaker and Some Sales Were Made Yesterday at Lower Prices — Poultry Receipts Continue Too Small.

HOPS SOLD BUT AT LOWER PRICE

A Number of Deals Reported Late Yesterday Afternoon in This City.

TWENTY-EIGHT THREE QUARTERS FOR CHOICE

Chicken Market Firmer—Eggs Suffer—Barley Finds a Better Demand.

Front Street, Jan. 13.—The principal market features today:

Commission row is snowbound.
Eggs being held very firm.
Turkey supplies are scarce.
Chicken market is firmer.
Heavy demand for dressed meats.
Hops sold at lower figures.
Many offers for flour from orient.
Barley market is quoted firmer.

Eggs Sold at Lower Prices.

As was told in The Journal yesterday the hop market is weaker and some sales are being made at lower prices. Dealers here have telegraphed to the east offering supplies at present figures, but takers are very few. The following sales were reported yesterday: J. A. Jones of Newberg to Charles Livesley of Salem, 130 bales of prime to choice at 28½c; Edmonstron to Catlin & Linn, 32 bales of primes at 28½c; Julius Wolf from Kirkpatrick, 106 bales of choice at 29c; Lochmann & Co. from Herman Klaber & Co. of Tacoma, 66 bales of primes at 28½c. These sales are at a full ½ cent under the figures which formerly ruled.

Commission Row Is Snowbound.

Commission row was snowbound today and but little business resulted. Most of the houses kept their doors closed all day and few displays of any kind were made.

Eggs Being Held Very Firm.

Supplies of eggs are much under the demand and the prices are tightening. The receipts during the past few days have been nominal and the majority of the sales were of eastern stock.

Chickens Are Very Scarce.

There is much competition among the retail trade for chickens and present prices are being held very firm. Figures now ruling are very high and there is but little likelihood of an early advance.

Turkey Supplies Are Nominal.

Supplies of Turkeys are now nominal. The demand is very good, also the quotations. Wild birds are again arriving, but the supplies are under the demand.

Heavy Demand for Dressed Meats.

A heavy demand is ruling throughout the dressed meat market along Front street and arrivals are pushed up as soon as unloaded by the express companies. The call for hogs is very good also demand veal. Some beef is arriving and finds a sale at top figures.

Many Offers for Flour from Orient.

There are now many offers for flour being received from the orient, but outside of the regular business very little is being done. Most of the offers are for barley supplies, but the prices allowed range from 10c to 15c a barrel under the quotations at which the millers are willing to do business. Some better offers are, however, expected. There was nothing doing with the east today. The wheat market is dull with prices unchanged. The tone of the market, however, is good.

Barley Is Quoted Firmer.

The barley market is stronger on account of an improved demand from the south. Some few sales are reported being made for that account.

The wholesale selling prices, as revised today, are as follows:

CHICAGO GETS WALLA WALLA WHEAT EAST

(Furnished by Overbeck, Starr & Cooke Co.)

Chicago, Jan. 13.—The Record-Herald says: "The wheat market at present is in a peculiar condition," said a commission man yesterday. "The country is at present full of flour awaiting sales." There is almost no demand whatever for wheat from millers in this market except in the northwest, where there have been sharp advances. The manipulation in Chicago has driven most of the shorts in and out of the market. Shorts have been going out of the May for some time and the advance is mostly caused by the buying of longs. A cargo of 112,000 bushels of Walla Walla wheat was sold yesterday for New York account—the shipment to be made at 1 cent.

(Furnished by Overbeck, Starr & Cooke Co.)

New York, Jan. 13.—The sales on the stock exchange remain at low ebb and the market continues wholly a professional one.

There was a good upward movement in Union Pacific—both common and preferred—the former advancing $2.75 and the latter $2.37½.

The steel issues were very strong, common advancing 62½ cents and preferred $1.25. Tennessee Coal & Iron is also up the latter amount.

Amalgamated had a good gain today, the net rise over yesterday being $2.75. Most of the list was higher.
