WANTS DECISION ON BOX ORDINANCE

City Attorney McNary Will Urge Supreme Court to Take Up Matter at Once.

MANY CASES AHEAD OF IT ON THE CALENDAR

In Meantime Saloons and Restaurants Continue Openly to Violate the Law.

City Attorney McNary will go to Saomorrow to urge the supreme court ivance on the calendar the city one and restaurants. If the case comes in its regular order it may be two onths or more before it is heard. Beval weeks have elapsed since the appeal on the decision of the circuit court as taken, and those interested are anxies to have the matter settled. If the Mary's motion is granted the case ay be taken up within a few days. The ordinance prohibiting the placing private boxes in saloons and in resurants where liquors are sold was seed last summer. A suit was ought in the circuit court by about 20 staurant men to enjoin the city from forcing the law, and last October dige George upheld the validity of cordinance. and restaurants. #### PLEASANT AT HOMES OF SCOTTISH RITE MASONS

A new interest in the at homes given by the Scottlah Rite Masons at their cathedral on Morrison and Lownsdale streets has been added the past week through the admission of several members at the annual reunion held on the 19th and 20th inst. It is therefore confidently expected that a large attendance will be held on Thursday.

No effort or expense has been spared by the committee in charge to make these entertainments a pronounced success, and they have been such in every way is the testimony of all attending heretofore. Season tickets may be obtained from E. S. Jackson, 246 Stark street, while visiting members attending only for the evening may procure admission at the door. Dancing will begin promptly at 8:30 and close at 11:45, giving all an opportunity of reaching home on the last car.

CAR FOR ELECTRIC LINE FROM PORTLAND TO FOREST GROVE

Type of Cars to Be Used By the Oregon Traction Co.

The Oregon Traction company is considering the purchase of equipment for the electric standard guage line to be built between Portland. Forest Grove and Hillsboro. The road will have a capacity for hauling all heavy rolling stock, and modern passenger and combination cars will be used. Great progress has been made in the last few years in construction of comfortable and even luxurious—cars for passenger.

SALVATION ARMY WORKERS TO GO EAST

ferred to Higher Post in Kansas City.

Major and Mrs. Dubbin of the Salva Army have received orders from York to go to Kansas City, Mo of the southwestern province, which includes part of Missouri and the entire states of Kansas, Texas, Indjan Territory, Oklahoma and Louisiana. This is looked upon by their fellow workers as a decided promotion, though the Portland barracks are sorry to lose them.

Major and Mrs. Dubbin have for three years been in charge of the Oregon and Washington territory with their headquarters in Portland and have become very popular among the army workers. They expect to leave next Tuesday, and before that farewell meetings and a reception will probably be given them.

is delightful. The lecture given by this photo-historian at the White Temple last night was one of the most delightful entertainments ever given in Portland. A large crowd was present, and every one of the 200 pictures shown the audience was a masterplece. After showing a few scenes of Indian life along the shores of Puget sound and on the northwest plains, Mr. Curtis carried his audience to the aund deserts and rocky buttes of the southwest.

Mr. Curtis has spent six years in studying the life of the western redmen. He has photographed them in their home life, during their feast dances and in their lonely wanderings. While he is on his photograph tours, Mr. Curtis studies the history, the habits and the folkiore of the tribes visited; these he explains during the entertainment but he allows his retainment. is delightful. #### DECISION WILL SETTLE POOLROOM QUESTION

Judge Frazer has signed the certificate of probable cause for appeal in the case against M. G. Nease, who was convicted of violating the public nuisance statute by conducting a poolroom where bets were accepted on horse races. John M. Gearin and B. B. Beekman are named as attorneys for Nease. On the undertaking of ball on appeal, Peter Grant and Pat Powers appear as bondsmen, each justifying for $290, the amount of the fine imposed by Judge Frazer. The intention is to hurry the case to the supreme coust and secure final adjudication so soon as possible. The case goes up on its merits for a decision as to whether or not the conduct of a poolroom constitutes an offense against the public peace and morals and offends wood citizens. Upon the decision depends the question of open or closed poolrooms being in Portland.

MANNING'S DEPUTY IS BERT E. HANEY

District Attorney John Manning will name his new deputy and says he has had no dispute with the Multnomah county delegation over the matter. He said:

"There was at no time a dispute. The delegation was solid for granting me the additional deputy. It will be Bert Haney, whom I now employ at my own expense. His salary will be $1,500 a year. The action of the delegation, therefore, will make no change in the office force, Mr. Haney merely being paid by the state instead of by me."

Mr. Manning's other deputies are H. B. Adams and G. C. Moser,

What It Costs to Buy from the Monopoly, and What the Profits Are.

"It would be a great thing to have a refinery in Portland to handle the oil that will begin coming out of Alaska next season," declared D. M. Dunne, of the local firm of David M. Dunne & Co. "Such a concern, with its own tank steamers and its oil land in Alaska, would be invincible, and would give relief from absolute domination by the Standard Oil company in the Pacific northwest."

Standard Oil company in the Pacific northwest."

Men who are interested in Alaska gli properties coincide in this view. They say that, while the Standard Oil company may dictate its own terms to the railways, it cannot control the sea, and there would be uninterrupted competition in all kinds of oil, perafine and other by-products throughout the Portland trade territory if a refinery were in operation in this city. All natural conditions favor such an enterprise, from a business standpoint. The distance between Portland and the Kyak oil district is no further than that between Kyak and Seattle. There is no competition to be feared from the Standard's California wells, as the oil in that district is unfit for anything but the crudest uses, such as fuel and street sprinkling. The nearest oil is that obtained in the Kansas fields, and it is not brought direct to Portland, but is piped to refineries in the east and then reshipped by rail clear across the country to the Pacific coast.

Competition Crushed.

"Wanter p'liceman, quick," said a diminutive creature wrapped in 4 shawl, as she hurried into police station and looked up at Captain Gritsmacher.

She appeared eager and excited. The shawl covered her whole form, including her head, and trailed on the ground ing her head, and trailed on the ground ing her head, and trailed on the ground were speaking, so little of the child was to be seen. Captain Gritsmacher removed his glasses and peered over the desk inquiringly to see whence came the voice.

"Your papa's beating your mother, is her" replied the captain. "We'll send an officer over there and have his head beat up so he'll never want to hit his wife again. You run home, the officer' be there directly."

Painters Condemn Chief Hunt for Ordering Officers to Paint and Repair Jail.

Wednesday night expressions of condem-nation were adopted with reference to the actions of Chief Hunt in having Police-actions of Chief Huat in having Policeofficer Carlson do the painting and Jailer Ben Branch do the carpenter work at police headquarters. The attention of the Federated Trades council will be called to the chief's actions.

It is claimed that union men are never employed when work is to be done at the city jail. Carlson was a painter before he became a policeman, and is assigned to do whatever work is needed in that line. Jailer Ben Branch is ordered to pyrform the carpentering that is to be done. The work is usually performed with the assistance of the "trusties," who are supposed to work during their terms of confinement. Frequent protests have been made by union men, but the chief has ignored whatever objections have been made.

The painters declare that they will present the matter to the Federated Trades council, and will also lay their grievances before the city council.

CHILDREN MAY NOT PERFORM IN THEATRES

County Judge Webster Decides Important Point in Wiley Ferris Case.

County Judge Webster and the county commissioners hereafter will prevent performances by children under 14 years of age in Portland theatres. Judge Webster has decided in the case of Wiley Ferris, Jr., the 11-year-old boy who was taken from his parents, that the boy shall be returned to his parents but that they shall not permit him to appear in any exhibitions in theatres.

Taking this as a basis for their action, the announcement is made that hereafter all performances by children will be prevented, and, if parents attempt to bring their children on the stage they will be taken by the Boys' and Girls' Aid society. The child labor statute is believed to be defective, but the law empowers the taking of children by the Boys' and Girls' Aid society for sufficient reason, and wide discretion is given the authorities in these matters of jurisdiction of children.

It is intimated that a determined war will be made on the employment of children in amusement halls and theatres.

PUTTING IT STRONG.

But Doom's It Look Beasonable? This may read as though we were put-ting it a little strong, because it is gen-erally thought by the majority of people that Dyspepsia in its chronic form is in-curable or practically so. But we have long since shown that Dyspepsia is cura-ble, nor is it such a difficult matter as curable or practically so. But we have long since shown that Dyspepsia is curable, nor is it such a difficult matter as at first appears.

The trouble with Dyspeptics is that they are continually disting, starving themselves or going to the opposite extreme or else deluging the already over burdened stomach with "bitters," "after dinner pilis," etc., which invariably increase the difficulty even if in some cases they do give a slight temporary relief. Such treatment of the stomach simply makes matters worse. What the stomach wents is a rest. Now, how can the stomach become rested recuperated and at the same time the body nourished and sustained?

This is a great secret and this is also the secret of the uniform success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. This is a comparatively new remedy but its success and popularity leave no doubt as to its merit.

The Tablets will digest the food any way, regardless of condition of stomach. The sufferer from Dyspepsia, according to directions, is to eat an abundance of good, wholesome food and use the tablets before and after each meal and the result will be that the food will be digested no matter how bad your Dyspepsia may be, because, as before stated, the tablets will digest the food even it the stomach is wholly inactive. To illustrate our meaning plainly, if you take 1.840 grains of meat eggs or ordinary food and place it in a temperature of 98 degrees, and put with it one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets it will digest the meat or eggs almost as perfectly as if the meat was enclosed within the stomach.

The stomach may be ever so weak yet these tablets will perform the work of digestion and the body and brain will be properly nourished and at the same time a radical, lasting cure of Dyspepsia will be meat or eggs almost as perfectly as if the meat was enclosed within the stomach.
