

POLISH REVOLUTIONISTS DYNAMITE PUBLIC BUILDINGS AND MANY ARE KILLED IN PITCHED BATTLE WITH TROOPS

REBELS WELL ARMED MAKE USE OF BOMBS

Revolution Growing Throughout Russia, Spreading to Interior—Quiet Today at St. Petersburg.

Strikers Have Forced Ammunition Factories and Seized Quantities of Explosives and Rifles—Sympathetic Strike of Lawyers.

(Journal Special Service.) St. Petersburg, Jan. 24.—It is officially reported that the workmen have secured a considerable supply of arms. They raided the government store at the end of the outer military position in the suburbs, seized 1,500 rifles and reached Sestroutsk, near the Finland frontier, before the commander advanced with troops and learned of the raid. The store also contained cartridges.

(Journal Special Service.) St. Petersburg, Jan. 24.—The fires of revolution are blazing throughout Russia. From many parts come details of strikes, uprisings and violence. Rebellion has broken out at Radom, Poland, 37 miles south of Warsaw. The rebels have destroyed the public buildings with dynamite. A pitched battle occurred in the streets between rebels, who are well armed, and troops. Three officers, many rebels and soldiers were killed.

Grand Duke Serge, Said to Be Directing Operations Against the Rioters.

To the Right is Shown the Inner Harbor of Sevastopol, Showing in the Foreground the Old Admiralty Buildings Destroyed by Rioters. To the Left is the Dardanelles, Through Which Warships, Said to Have Been Summoned to Guard the City, Will Have to Pass.

WHO CARES? CITY FOOTS THE BILL

Councilmen Calmly Go on Preparing for Outing in California for Themselves and Their Families at the Expense of Portland's Taxpayers—Who Cares?

A storm of protest from citizens has been raised against the proposed junketing trip of the city council to Los Angeles and San Diego to inspect the automatic telephone systems operated by the Empire Electric company, which has applied for a telephone franchise in this city. When the proposition is presented to the council at its next meeting it will meet with a determined remonstrance from property-owners, and it is understood that several councilmen will oppose it.

WELLMAN UNSEATED BY HOUSE IN MONTANA

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Helena, Mont., Jan. 24.—Governor Toole today appointed T. E. Collins of Great Falls state examiner, to succeed the late William Hudnall. The house today unseated Wellman (Democrat) giving the place to Richardson (Republican), holding that the latter had a majority of 19 votes on a recount.

LA FOLLETTE IN SENATOR. (Journal Special Service.) Madison, Wis., Jan. 24.—Both houses of the legislature today ratified the caucus choice of La Follette for the senate.

WOULD STEAL LAURELS FROM BROW OF STOESEL

(Journal Special Service.) Tokyo, Jan. 24.—According to a Russian admiral now in Japan the surrender of Port Arthur was a disgrace to Russia. He states that Stoessel was incapable, was not a hero at all and that Kandratenko was the life of the defense and the real hero of Port Arthur.

WYOMING RE-HEROES CLARK. (Journal Special Service.) Cheyenne, Jan. 24.—Clarence D. Clark was today elected United States senator to succeed himself.

SEVERE JOLTING GIVEN MACHINE

Alleged Attempt Made to Kill Malarkey's Bill Limiting Hours of Service of Railroad Employees—Motion to Refer to Committee on Railroads Is Lost on Roll Call.

(By Frank E. Perkins.) Salem, Or., Jan. 24.—The political machine of Multnomah county got a severe jolting on the floor of the senate this morning and was decisively defeated in an alleged attempt to kill Malarkey's bill limiting the hours of service of railroad employees. The debate was caustic and marked by charges and recriminations.

BILL REVISED.

Sichel's Measure Relating to Whipping Wife Beaters Changed. (From a Journal Staff Correspondent.) Salem, Or., Jan. 24.—Owing to the objection of Chairman Rand of the senate judiciary committee, City Attorney McNary of Portland this morning revised Sichel's bill providing for the whipping of wife beaters.

PASSES HOUSE.

Linthicum's Library Commission Bill Has Slight Margin. (From a Journal Staff Correspondent.) Salem, Or., Jan. 24.—Linthicum's bill for the creation of a state library commission passed the house this morning by a narrow margin. The bill provides that the board shall consist of the governor, superintendent of public instruction, president of the state university, librarian of the Portland library and three persons to be appointed by the governor. It is designed to systematize public libraries throughout the state and aid in establishing traveling libraries. It appropriates $2,000.

EJECTED FROM HOUSE, SLEEPS IN STREET

J. C. Baker, 37 years of age, was removed to a hospital this morning in a precarious condition as the result of sleeping out of doors for two nights. Fears are entertained that his experiences may result fatally. Baker had lived for months in a shack in Albina. Recently he was ordered by the court to vacate and evicted his belongings from the shack. Last Saturday he was in the street, but did not go to Vancouver. He declared that he had no place to go. Saturday night he laid himself down on the sidewalk to sleep. Neighbors found him yesterday morning and he was unable to move. He was taken to police headquarters, where he was admitted to remain until this morning. It was discovered that he was a pauper. Dr. Sloan, who was called to advise that he be taken to Vancouver, where it is said he will be treated.

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!

Strikers Issue Proclamation Calling Upon the People to Revolt.

CZAR AND GRAND DUKES ARE CALLED MURDERERS

Strikers Are Joined by Socialists and Autocracy Denounced—Government Property to Be Destroyed.

(Journal Special Service.) St. Petersburg, Jan. 24.—The authorities are confident that they have the situation well in hand. There is no confirmation of the report that the emperor, empress and their children are going to Copenhagen. Father Gopon's popularity is unimpaired, but the social democracy is fast assuming the leadership and urging the people to violence. It is learned that Gopon has sent the following letter to the Social Democrats: "They have fired upon and massacred us, but we are not vanquished, and the day of our triumph is near. Do not spoil our triumph by taking up arms and resorting to violence. Content yourself with destroying the portraits of him who is no longer our emperor."

To Arms! To Arms. The strikers today are circulating proclamations. People are eagerly accepting the documents which are signed "The Russian Social Democracy." One proclamation, issued yesterday, after describing the bloodshed of Sunday, says: "Who directed the soldiers to aim rifles and fire bullets at the breasts of laborers? It was the emperor, the grand dukes, the ministers, the generals, the nobles of the court. They are murderers! Slay them!"

Freedom the Battle-Cry. The proclamation issued by the strikers, dated January 23, reads: "Comrades! So long as the autocracy exists, no improvement in our condition is possible. Therefore we continue to inscribe on our banners the following demands: The immediate cessation of war; the summing up of a constitutional assembly of representatives of the people elected by universal and equal suffrage and direct secret ballot; the removal of class and race privileges and restrictions; the inviolability of person and domicile; freedom of conscience, speech, the press, meetings, strikes and political association."

Revolutionists are reported to be actively preparing bombs and infernal machines. The revolutionists talk wildly of issuing a manifesto declaring a provisional government. They seem to have broken completely with the zemstvos, which they treat with contempt on account of what they call its "trucking" to autocracy. Trubetzkoi Suspected. Even Prince Trubetzkoi, who led the reformers of Moscow, is regarded by them with suspicion, and even hatred, because in an article published by the Pravo he described the revolution as a "Port Arthur inside of Russia," which Russia would have to overthrow. M. Mossen, editor of the Pravo, whose advanced liberal views are well known, has been arrested.