

Just Arrived

The First Shipment of the New 1905

Spring Styles

of

Topcoats and Raincoats

Advance Spring Styles

of the

Warburton Hat

Large selection of the leading brands of Union Suits now on display in our show windows.

Buffum & Pendleton

311 MORRISON STREET

HIGH SCHOOL WORK IS OVER FOR THEM

ROSSI'S LONG SEARCH FOR ELOPING WIFE

Chicago Italian Comes to Portland to Find Family and False Friend.

Searching for a wife and three children, Vincenzo Rossi reached Portland Sunday night and was at once to police headquarters. He is from Chicago, and brought with him a letter from a superintendent of police of that city asking that the police of Portland assist the Italian in locating his family. He is accompanied by Francisco Aria.

Rossi declares that four years ago he offered a home to Giuseppe Giovannoli, who had just reached this country, and was young. He was good looking, too, and Rossi wanted to wed him. He lived in the home for a year and Rossi did all he could to help him in the new country.

Three years ago his wife disappeared with their three children. Giovannoli was also missing. A search for the eloping pair was begun, and they were tracked from city to city. The search continued for months, and lengthened into years. Notices in various cities were posted and promised assistance to the husband. Finally the man and woman were located in this city, and Rossi and his friend immediately started for the west.

Rossi declares that four years ago he offered a home to Giuseppe Giovannoli, who had just reached this country, and was young. He was good looking, too, and Rossi wanted to wed him. He lived in the home for a year and Rossi did all he could to help him in the new country.

"Look at the Green Front theatre, for instance," returned Councilman Albee. "Chief Hunt said he had cleaned that place out, and three days afterward Councilman Fiegel and I were there and it was filled with women."

"If you revoke the licenses recommended in Councilman Albee's resolution you will have to revoke these also," remarked Councilman Zimmerman, adding, "There is an additional list of 21 saloons fronting on the street." These places are just as bad. I don't see what we can do. If we revoke these licenses the city will be about $18,000 this year, and we need the money."

"I am sure the saloons named in this resolution are violating the city laws," remarked Councilman Fiegel. "Women are employed in every one of these places. If we could get some assistance from the police department we would not have to do this; but we can't. The police will not do their duty. If they were working under the orders of the council it would be all right, but they are not."

"Look at the Green Front theatre, for instance," returned Councilman Albee. "Chief Hunt said he had cleaned that place out, and three days afterward Councilman Fiegel and I were there and it was filled with women."

"But one thing to do. Since we have had this positive evidence placed before us that these places are running in violation of the city laws, Councilman Albee, there is nothing for us to do but revoke the licenses. If we do not, we are guilty of criminal negligence."

Councilman Whiting remarked that he was in favor of taking their licenses from them.

"It is the only way to get at them," continued he. "We can revoke their licenses, and if they desire to run a legitimate saloon let them apply for another license."

"But they won't do it," replied Zimmerman. "They will not take out another license, and the city will lose the money."

"You are wrong," answered Albee. "These men find out we will not tolerate combination houses they will all take out licenses and run respectable houses, and the city will lose nothing."

When the matter came to a vote the committee was unanimous in favor of carrying through the resolution he passed by the council. Councilman Zimmerman was chairman, and he had no vote, but said that he would oppose the measure in the council.

ONE POLICE COURT JOKE, TWENTY DOLLARS

John Growce, a Swede, chose Albina as his home when he left the land of fjords and Yonsons and came to America. Since choosing Albina as his home he has learned the use of John Barleycorn.

Saturday he reached police headquarters in the custody of an officer. He was wildly hilarious. The officer had dark rings under his eyes; there were marks of fierce warfare on his face. The arrest was exciting, although Growce is 54 years of age.

In municipal court the old man languished as if the matter were a great "yoke." He said he lived with his son-in-law.

"What's the name of your son-in-law?" asked City Attorney Fitzgerald.

"Erick Rudolph Yon, Frederick and Andrew," said the old man.

"That's five names," said Mr. Fitzgerald. "He hasn't all those names, has he?"

"No, I live with der five sons-in-laws," he said laughing outrageously. "It was a yoke, yaw, yaw, yaw."

"Twenty dollars," said the court.

JED HART'S FINE PAID BY BREWING FIRM

Two hundred dollars were paid into the city coffers yesterday by the Star Brewery company. This sum was the amount of fines imposed by Municipal Judge Hogue upon "Jed" Hart, a notorious north end divekeeper, for selling liquor to minors. He was taken on a $50 bond, given by the brewing company, and disappeared, four weeks of the sums having it is said, accompanied him. Rather than forfeit the bond the brewing company paid the fine. Two other complaints of selling liquor to minors are pending against Hart.

"A Breath of Pine Balsam is Every Cake," try it. You'll be convinced. Large 25c. cases, Box 3 cakes, 65c. Druggists. Retail 25c. No soap is medicated like Hart's.

Manufactured by PHILIP H. HARTZELL CO., NEWARK, N. J. Take nothing off without this signature.

J. H. Hartzell Co. on outside dark blue wrapper.

WOODARD, CLARKE & CO., Fourth and Washington.

COUNCIL TO WIPE OUT MANY SALOONS

Will Revoke the Licenses of Dives in the Red Light District.

APATHY OF THE POLICE CAUSE OF THE ACTION

City Will Lose Large Revenue Through Chief Hunt and His Men.

If the recommendation of the liquor license committee is adopted by the city council tomorrow, 22 saloons which are connected with dives, in violation of the city laws, will have their licenses revoked. All of these houses are in the north end. They have been running for several months in open violation of the city ordinance, and the police department made but little or no effort to enforce the law.

These saloons are: Queen Annie, 276 Burnside street; Echo, Fourth between Burnside and Couch streets; A. H. C. saloon, Fourth and Couch streets; William White, 45 Fourth street; Cosmopolitan, Third street; Paris house, Third and Couch streets; W. A. Gelber, 28 North Third street; Brunswick, 28 North Third street; Green Front, 28 North Second street; M. L. Smith, 28 North Second street; Nonpareil, 28 Everett street; Keystone, 94 North Fourth street; Lion, 100 North Fourth street; Elegant, 280 Everett street; Thetis, 274 Everett street; Reception, 60 North Fourth street; Badger, Fourth and Davis streets; Paris cafe, 288 Davis street; Fashion saloon, 48 North Fourth street; Neptune, 79 North First street; Surprise, 275 Everett street; Cricket, 271 Couch street.

Himmerman Favors Saloons.

Councilman Albee urged yesterday by Councilman H. R. Albee, who presented a resolution to rescind the licenses, led the fight against the combination houses in the committee meeting yesterday. Councilman A. K. Bentley and Dr. Sanford Writing fell into line, and Councilman L. Zimmerman was the only one who was opposed to the action.

"If you revoke the licenses recommended in Councilman Albee's resolution you will have to revoke these also," remarked Councilman Zimmerman, adding, "There is an additional list of 21 saloons fronting on the street." These places are just as bad. I don't see what we can do. If we revoke these licenses the city will be about $18,000 this year, and we need the money."

"I am sure the saloons named in this resolution are violating the city laws," remarked Councilman Fiegel. "Women are employed in every one of these places. If we could get some assistance from the police department we would not have to do this; but we can't. The police will not do their duty. If they were working under the orders of the council it would be all right, but they are not."

"Look at the Green Front theatre, for instance," returned Councilman Albee. "Chief Hunt said he had cleaned that place out, and three days afterward Councilman Fiegel and I were there and it was filled with women."

"But one thing to do. Since we have had this positive evidence placed before us that these places are running in violation of the city laws, Councilman Albee, there is nothing for us to do but revoke the licenses. If we do not, we are guilty of criminal negligence."

Councilman Whiting remarked that he was in favor of taking their licenses from them.

"It is the only way to get at them," continued he. "We can revoke their licenses, and if they desire to run a legitimate saloon let them apply for another license."

"But they won't do it," replied Zimmerman. "They will not take out another license, and the city will lose the money."

"You are wrong," answered Albee. "These men find out we will not tolerate combination houses they will all take out licenses and run respectable houses, and the city will lose nothing."

When the matter came to a vote the committee was unanimous in favor of carrying through the resolution he passed by the council. Councilman Zimmerman was chairman, and he had no vote, but said that he would oppose the measure in the council.

BEATTY'S MENTAL CONDITION IN DOUBT

F. W. Beatty, arrested for passing a worthless check and securing goods under false pretenses, has been released on a $50 bond, and will be taken before the county court, where his mental condition will be inquired into.

About 10 days ago Beatty appeared at the house furnishing establishment of Gervits & Sons, and made purchases of goods to the value of $600. In all he spent about $40 worth of lace curtains and portieres, which he asked that he might take home with him, as his wife wished to hang them next day. He was permitted to take the goods, and tendered in payment a check on the bank of George W. Bates & Co. for $600, signed William Bates. The firm was unable to find the address given by Beatty and the check given by Beatty was reported worthless. The lace curtains and portieres have not been discovered.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the Ladd school, where two rooms are being fitted up by Superintendent Frank Riggs.

Graduating exercises will be held in most of the grammar schools of the city tomorrow. There will be 259 graduates from the grammar schools, the majority of whom will enter the high school. As the high school building is now full to overflowing, the new class will receive instruction in the