

TOWN TO PLACES

GOOD FRIEND TO MAN, W.S. COUNT ARTHUR WILSON, WHO IS DEAD

CITY MUST DREDGE MORRISON CHANNEL

CHINATOWN AWAKES WITH A HEADACHE

WILD ANIMALS TO "HIT THE TRAIL"

TODAY'S AMUSEMENTS
Marquand Grand
The Silver Slipper
Grand to good
The Boy of the Green

R. B. Dunlavy, an attorney, last evening filed a petition in the circuit court to have the reassessment of Albina avenue from Page to River street reviewed.

County Clerk Fields shows in his January report that the receipts of his office for that month were $2,731.27, and that the expenses were $2,400.23, leaving a net profit of $331.04.

The Commercial club of St. Johns has appointed A. B. Douglas, L. B. Chipman, Henry Blekner, J. F. Baller and C. M. Harr a committee to determine the legal status of the James Johns estate.

With completion of repairs to an old bridge across Sullivan's gulch on Union avenue the Portland Consolidated Railway company will be enabled to operate a double track there, considerably improving the street car service.

M. M. Bloch, guardian of Lorentz Herman Heiner, the 35-year-old miner, has filed a statement with the county court showing that he has in his possession $1,000, the credit of the guardianship account.

The Canadian society will have its first big meeting next Tuesday evening in the parlors of the Glendora hotel.

Detective Hawley yesterday located Louise Wagner, a 16-year-old girl, who he said to have been kidnapped by Mrs. Ideman and the woman's daughter.

E. H. Moorhouse has entered suit against John T. Stonerod to enjoin him from conducting a printing business.

Edwin Stone, late manager of the Corvallis & Eastern railroad, who was murdered by an unknown party in his room, will be buried tomorrow at Albany.

Chester Wood of Sunnyside was badly cut and bruised about the head as the result of a runaway accident at East Eighth and Hawthorne avenues yesterday.

Electrolysis caused the water main on Third between Everett and Flinders streets to rust away, and yesterday morning it broke, flooding several blocks.

At the First Presbyterian church tomorrow Rev. E. F. Allen will preach morning and evening. Dr. Hill left this afternoon for Monmouth to deliver the baccalaureate sermon before the graduating class.

Suit was begun by Edward Bradbury against Samuel Masurovsky, No. 3 North Third street, on January 26, 1925, in the hearing of others, so the complaint alleges, Masurovsky accused Bradbury of being a thief, and the latter now asks the court to award him $3,500 damages.

The Oliphant sisters will again have charge of the vespers service at the Y. W. C. A. today, Sunday, February 5, at 8:15 p. m. All women are invited to come and enjoy a helpful hour of song, praise and prayer.

A large church will be used to illustrate Rev. E. S. Muckley's sermon on "The Use and Abuse of the Bible," at the First Christian church, corner Park and Columbia streets, tomorrow evening.

Count Arthur Wilson, one of the best known Swedish citizens of the Pacific northwest died last night in this city, after a few days' illness.

Count Arthur Wilson, one of the best known Swedish citizens of the Pacific northwest died last night in this city, after a few days' illness. He spent Thursday at his insurance office in the Sherlock building, attending to business.

Count Arthur Wilson, one of the best known Swedish citizens of the Pacific northwest died last night in this city, after a few days' illness. He spent Thursday at his insurance office in the Sherlock building, attending to business.

Count Arthur Wilson, one of the best known Swedish citizens of the Pacific northwest died last night in this city, after a few days' illness. He spent Thursday at his insurance office in the Sherlock building, attending to business.

Count Arthur Wilson, one of the best known Swedish citizens of the Pacific northwest died last night in this city, after a few days' illness. He spent Thursday at his insurance office in the Sherlock building, attending to business.

Count Arthur Wilson, one of the best known Swedish citizens of the Pacific northwest died last night in this city, after a few days' illness. He spent Thursday at his insurance office in the Sherlock building, attending to business.

Count Arthur Wilson, one of the best known Swedish citizens of the Pacific northwest died last night in this city, after a few days' illness. He spent Thursday at his insurance office in the Sherlock building, attending to business.

Count Arthur Wilson, one of the best known Swedish citizens of the Pacific northwest died last night in this city, after a few days' illness. He spent Thursday at his insurance office in the Sherlock building, attending to business.

Count Arthur Wilson, one of the best known Swedish citizens of the Pacific northwest died last night in this city, after a few days' illness. He spent Thursday at his insurance office in the Sherlock building, attending to business.

Count Arthur Wilson, one of the best known Swedish citizens of the Pacific northwest died last night in this city, after a few days' illness. He spent Thursday at his insurance office in the Sherlock building, attending to business.

Count Arthur Wilson, one of the best known Swedish citizens of the Pacific northwest died last night in this city, after a few days' illness. He spent Thursday at his insurance office in the Sherlock building, attending to business.

Count Arthur Wilson, one of the best known Swedish citizens of the Pacific northwest died last night in this city, after a few days' illness. He spent Thursday at his insurance office in the Sherlock building, attending to business.

Count Arthur Wilson, one of the best known Swedish citizens of the Pacific northwest died last night in this city, after a few days' illness. He spent Thursday at his insurance office in the Sherlock building, attending to business.

Count Arthur Wilson, one of the best known Swedish citizens of the Pacific northwest died last night in this city, after a few days' illness. He spent Thursday at his insurance office in the Sherlock building, attending to business.

Count Arthur Wilson, one of the best known Swedish citizens of the Pacific northwest died last night in this city, after a few days' illness. He spent Thursday at his insurance office in the Sherlock building, attending to business.

Government Notices Council That Willamette at Morrison Street is Too Shallow.

NOT ENOUGH MONEY TO PAY BRIDGE BUILDERS Car Rails to Be Torn Up and Savier Street Made Fine Driveway.

The United States government, through United States District Attorney Francis J. Heney, has notified the executive board that the government desires the city to dredge a 25-foot channel through the Morrison street bridge.

When the correspondence between Mr. Heney and City Attorney L. A. McNary was read at the executive board meeting yesterday afternoon, the board members expressed their disapproval.

The Pacific Construction company, contractors for the Morrison street bridge, asked for $15,000 of the $55,000 city fund for the bridge.

The Albin ferryboat, Lionel R. Webster, was reported ready to be turned over to the city.

The Portland Consolidated Railway company will be allowed to replace the track after the exposition closes.

TWO IDAHO MEN DIE OF GAS ASPHYXIA TION Walter W. Riggs and Albert Overman of Weiser, Found Dead in Bed.

Walter W. Riggs and Albert Overman of Weiser, Idaho, were found dead yesterday afternoon in a room at the Elk-ton hotel, Sixth and Davis streets.

Reduced Rates to California. The Southern Pacific company has placed on sale round trip tickets to Los Angeles at the rate of $65, limit 30 days.

BREEZY NOTES CONCERNING WANT ADS. The Dexter's furnished rooms seem to please, and can be testified by the opening of the Dexter Annex at 124 1/2 West street, which is now ready for occupancy.

WILL ORGANIZE STATE ACADEMY OF SCIENCE. Agitation among scientific men of Oregon for a state academy of science will culminate this evening in the forming of an organization, at a meeting to be held in the rooms of the John Burroughs club.

HARRIS' SONS TAKE HIM FROM POORHOUSE. William and H. C. Harris, sons of Irvin Harris, the aged resident of Oregon, who recently spent a few days in the county poor farm before he was found by his children, have prepared a statement explaining that they did not know their father had applied for the county poor farm.

JAILER EJECTS LAWYER FROM COUNTY JAIL. John E. Watts, an attorney, was ejected from the county jail yesterday afternoon, where he had gone to interview some prisoners who are his clients.

Dr. Amos, surgeon, Dekum building. Ask your grocer for Golden Cheddar. News Blinded Trouble. From the Chicago Journal.

Only Alternative. From the Chicago News. "I can't take this," said the street car conductor, as he looked at the plugged dime.

Dr. Amos, surgeon, Dekum building. Ask your grocer for Golden Cheddar. News Blinded Trouble. From the Chicago Journal.

Only Alternative. From the Chicago News. "I can't take this," said the street car conductor, as he looked at the plugged dime.

But Yung-She, Joy, and Long Bamboo Are Unconvinced, and Festivities Proceed.

NEW YEAR PLEASURES OVERWHELM BUSINESS Second Street Denizens Pay Debts and Each Shakes Hands With Himself.

Chinatown awoke with a headache this morning. It was almost noon before Second street showed signs of life, and then "kow-towing" Celestials appeared smilingly and exchanging joyous New Year greetings.

They emerged from the gin-shops smiling, happy, elated, wishing joy and content to a spirit of the ancestors of friend and enemy. They shook hands with themselves, murmuring "Gung-nei-fay," which, being interpreted, means "Happy New Year to you, may the bones of your ancestors rest content."

After his visit to the gin-shop and a walk at the long bamboo Chinatown was soon ready for another day of celebration. Business houses are closed, and will remain so until five days pass.

Every denizen of the oriental quarter is attired in new-made finery in honor of the new year. All debts have been paid, calls of honor are being made.

Every one who celebrates individually on the New Year's festivities. Feasting and merriment will hold sway until the wooden gods have been appeased.

Reduced Rates to California. The Southern Pacific company has placed on sale round trip tickets to Los Angeles at the rate of $65, limit 30 days.

BREEZY NOTES CONCERNING WANT ADS. The Dexter's furnished rooms seem to please, and can be testified by the opening of the Dexter Annex at 124 1/2 West street, which is now ready for occupancy.

WILL ORGANIZE STATE ACADEMY OF SCIENCE. Agitation among scientific men of Oregon for a state academy of science will culminate this evening in the forming of an organization, at a meeting to be held in the rooms of the John Burroughs club.

HARRIS' SONS TAKE HIM FROM POORHOUSE. William and H. C. Harris, sons of Irvin Harris, the aged resident of Oregon, who recently spent a few days in the county poor farm before he was found by his children, have prepared a statement explaining that they did not know their father had applied for the county poor farm.

JAILER EJECTS LAWYER FROM COUNTY JAIL. John E. Watts, an attorney, was ejected from the county jail yesterday afternoon, where he had gone to interview some prisoners who are his clients.

Dr. Amos, surgeon, Dekum building. Ask your grocer for Golden Cheddar. News Blinded Trouble. From the Chicago Journal.

Only Alternative. From the Chicago News. "I can't take this," said the street car conductor, as he looked at the plugged dime.

Dr. Amos, surgeon, Dekum building. Ask your grocer for Golden Cheddar. News Blinded Trouble. From the Chicago Journal.

Only Alternative. From the Chicago News. "I can't take this," said the street car conductor, as he looked at the plugged dime.

Dr. Amos, surgeon, Dekum building. Ask your grocer for Golden Cheddar. News Blinded Trouble. From the Chicago Journal.

Only Alternative. From the Chicago News. "I can't take this," said the street car conductor, as he looked at the plugged dime.

George Jabour, Portland's Showman, Secures Three Concessions for the Lewis and Clark Fair.

The Animal King, George Jabour, Concessionaire. Now that the Lewis and Clark centennial exposition at Portland is an assured success from every viewpoint, it is interesting to know something about the amusement features that visitors will see when they "hit the trail."

Every denizen of the oriental quarter is attired in new-made finery in honor of the new year. All debts have been paid, calls of honor are being made.

Every one who celebrates individually on the New Year's festivities. Feasting and merriment will hold sway until the wooden gods have been appeased.

Reduced Rates to California. The Southern Pacific company has placed on sale round trip tickets to Los Angeles at the rate of $65, limit 30 days.

BREEZY NOTES CONCERNING WANT ADS. The Dexter's furnished rooms seem to please, and can be testified by the opening of the Dexter Annex at 124 1/2 West street, which is now ready for occupancy.

WILL ORGANIZE STATE ACADEMY OF SCIENCE. Agitation among scientific men of Oregon for a state academy of science will culminate this evening in the forming of an organization, at a meeting to be held in the rooms of the John Burroughs club.

HARRIS' SONS TAKE HIM FROM POORHOUSE. William and H. C. Harris, sons of Irvin Harris, the aged resident of Oregon, who recently spent a few days in the county poor farm before he was found by his children, have prepared a statement explaining that they did not know their father had applied for the county poor farm.

JAILER EJECTS LAWYER FROM COUNTY JAIL. John E. Watts, an attorney, was ejected from the county jail yesterday afternoon, where he had gone to interview some prisoners who are his clients.

Dr. Amos, surgeon, Dekum building. Ask your grocer for Golden Cheddar. News Blinded Trouble. From the Chicago Journal.

Only Alternative. From the Chicago News. "I can't take this," said the street car conductor, as he looked at the plugged dime.

Dr. Amos, surgeon, Dekum building. Ask your grocer for Golden Cheddar. News Blinded Trouble. From the Chicago Journal.

Only Alternative. From the Chicago News. "I can't take this," said the street car conductor, as he looked at the plugged dime.

Dr. Amos, surgeon, Dekum building. Ask your grocer for Golden Cheddar. News Blinded Trouble. From the Chicago Journal.

Only Alternative. From the Chicago News. "I can't take this," said the street car conductor, as he looked at the plugged dime.

Dr. Amos, surgeon, Dekum building. Ask your grocer for Golden Cheddar. News Blinded Trouble. From the Chicago Journal.

Only Alternative. From the Chicago News. "I can't take this," said the street car conductor, as he looked at the plugged dime.

Dr. Amos, surgeon, Dekum building. Ask your grocer for Golden Cheddar. News Blinded Trouble. From the Chicago Journal.

Only Alternative. From the Chicago News. "I can't take this," said the street car conductor, as he looked at the plugged dime.

COLUMBIA THEATRE
A. H. Ballard, Lessee and Manager.
Tonight at 8:15 o'clock, last performance of Ouida's famous drama.

MOTHS OF SOCIETY
One of the season's choicest offerings. Don't miss it. Matinee Tomorrow.
Prices that never change. Evening, 50c, 35c, 25c. Matinee, 25c, 15c.

MARQUAN GRAND
W. T. Fangle, Les. Mgr.
Tonight at 8:15 o'clock, last performance of the big Musical Comedy Success "THE SILVER SLIPPER"

STAR THEATRE
A GREAT NEW BILL
"THE LITTLE TRAIL"
DAILY VERMONT PROJECTOR. NAT CAR. EDISON'S PROJECTOR.

BAKER THEATRE
Third and Yamhill sts. Keating & Food, Mgrs.
Largest Vaudeville, Burlesque & Musical.

THE LYRIC THEATRE
Seventh and Alder Streets.
Tonight and Tomorrow, last performance of "THE PICNICERS"

BIJOU THEATRE
Sixth and Alder sts.
HOME OF COMEDY AND DRAMA.
Tonight and Tomorrow, last performance of "THE PICNICERS"

EMPIRE THEATRE
Phone Main 111 for Seats.
Prices—All matinees, 10c, 15c, 25c.
Night, 15c, 25c, 35c, 50c.

"CARMEN"
ONE SOLID WEEK, STARTING SUNDAY MATINEE.
ROWLAND & CLIFFORD'S Greatest Sensation.

OVER NIAGARA FALLS
Astounding electrical effects. All special scenery. Large select company.

GRAND
Vaudeville, Sunday, Feb. 5th
CONTINUOUS 2 TO 11 P. M.
Unequaled Attractions

STAR THEATRE
A GREAT NEW BILL
"THE LITTLE TRAIL"
DAILY VERMONT PROJECTOR. NAT CAR. EDISON'S PROJECTOR.

BAKER THEATRE
Third and Yamhill sts. Keating & Food, Mgrs.
Largest Vaudeville, Burlesque & Musical.

THE LYRIC THEATRE
Seventh and Alder Streets.
Tonight and Tomorrow, last performance of "THE PICNICERS"

BIJOU THEATRE
Sixth and Alder sts.
HOME OF COMEDY AND DRAMA.
Tonight and Tomorrow, last performance of "THE PICNICERS"