

PRIVATE CARS FOR DENVER PEOPLE

Big Crowd Coming From Colorado's Capital to Attend the Exposition.

LETTER CARRIERS' BAND WILL MAKE THE JOURNEY

From Frozen Iowa a Large Party is Coming to Coast Next Month.

As the glamour of the St. Louis exposition fades, unprecedented interest in the Lewis and Clark fair is manifested by newspapers and railroads throughout the country.

A. S. Thompson of Waterloo, Iowa, whose letterhead says he is "commissioner of immigration for Oregon," by appointment of Governor Chamberlain, writes:

"With thermometer registering 11 degrees below zero, as we have had it this winter, no song was ever sweeter to me than 'Know ye the land of the cedar and pine, where the flowers ever bloom, the beams ever shine?'

"There is no question that the exposition will be a success as far as the attendance from this eastern country is concerned. Even though the exposition has not been widely exploited in this section, there is a surprisingly large number of inquiries about it.

TEN ACRE REPUBLIC SNUBS UNCLE SAM

Rome, Feb. 12.—The smallest republic in the world, whose territory in the world covers an area about the size of Central Park, New York, has just snubbed the United States.

I Offer All Stomach Sufferers a Full Dollar's Worth of my Remedy Free to Try

I can afford to offer a full dollar's worth free because mine is no ordinary remedy. Ordinary remedies treat symptoms. My remedy treats the cause that produces symptoms.

Stomach trouble is not really a sickness, but a condition. It is a warning that the system is being worn out and the nerves are being killed.

More than a million homes my remedy is known. It has cured stomach troubles not once, but repeatedly—over and over again.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative

HUME TROTS OUT HIS VOCABULARY

Liar, Gila Monster, Rascal, His Names for Herrmann and Burns.

ISSUES PAMPHLET IN ATTACK ON FISH BILL

Seeks to Defend His Rogue River Monopoly, But Makes Votes for Burns' Measure.

(From a Journal Staff Correspondent.) Salem, Or., Feb. 12.—"Foolish liar," "Gila monster," "rascal," are a few of the epithets applied to Representatives Herrmann and Burns of Coos by R. D. Hume, the "king of Rogue river," in a printed communication to the members of the legislature which he caused to be distributed this morning.

Burns introduced a bill to do away with the fishing monopoly on Rogue river for the last six years. The bill passed the house despite Hume's vigorous lobbying to defeat it. In the senate Hume was more successful and secured an adverse committee report. The bill was then indefinitely postponed last Friday.

Hume's circular denounced Burns and Herrmann as his "enemies," and says the "reason for the enmity of Mr. Schiller B. Herrmann can be understood when it is known that I dared to allow my name to go before the convention as a candidate for joint senator, which place Mr. Schiller B. Herrmann wanted and was fully convinced that anything the Herrmann family wanted must be theirs.

Hume said these "rascals" engaged in a conspiracy to blackmail him, and concludes: "Had I the floor of the house, I would quickly squelch such mental and physical pigmies."

MAINTENANCE BILL PASSED

House Criticizes Sharply Heavy Allowance for State Printer.

(From a Journal Staff Correspondent.) Salem, Or., Feb. 12.—In the committee of the whole, Kay in the chair, the house considered the ways and means committee report on the bill for the salaries of state officials and the maintenance of departments. Several items called forth strong criticism from Smith of Josephine, who declared that the expenditures were extravagant. Kay endeavored to secure an additional appropriation of $8,000 to make needed alterations to the floor of the capitol, but could not get a single vote, besides his own. Considerable objection was made to the appropriation of $45,000 for the state printer, but it was finally allowed. The bill passed. The main appropriation bill is yet to come.

STEIWER GIVES BONDS FOR HIS APPEARANCE

President W. W. Steiwer, of the Butte Creek Land, Lumber & Livestock company, gave bonds this morning in the office of the clerk of the United States district court, for $5,000, which is also arranging for bonds for other officers of the company, and several of them will probably be filed in the next two or three days.

The indictments returned against Earl Beuson, Mealey brothers, Hans and Fred Wadill, and other Sweet Home men, who were charged with throwing a government witness, was considered briefly by the court this morning.

District Attorney Heney asked that the indictments against Hans and Fred Wadill be dismissed, and that the remainder of the defendants be permitted to go on their own recognizances, which was done. Before they departed, Mr. Heney gave the Sweet Home men a severe lecture, informing them that if he heard of their threatening Andrew Nichols again, or being involved in any manner interfering with the government witness, he would have the entire list prosecuted vigorously.

The bond of Frank J. Van Winkle was reduced from $4,000, the usual amount given by accused in the government cases, to $1,500, in a showing made by the defendant before Judge Bellingr. No doubt was felt of the wanted to answer the charge.

HENDRICK HUDSON FAIR IS NEW YORK'S PLAN

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Feb. 12.—Plans for the celebration of the three hundredth anniversary of the discovery of the Hudson river to be held in the summer of 1909 are to be discussed at a meeting of a prominent citizens' committee of old New York societies at the residence of Robert B. Roosevelt in this city next Wednesday. The proposed exhibition is to be held at Verplanck park, facing the Hudson river, in Westchester county. Roosevelt, who is an uncle of the president, and other descendants of the old Dutch families, express the hope that the celebration will be an exposition that will rival that held at Chicago, Paris and St. Louis. Already a private company has secured options on 800 acres of land at Verplanck park. The proposed exhibition becomes a reality. It will be built and maintained by a private company with the indorsement of New York societies.

SHOPS KEPT IN A FEAR

Mrs. J. D. Thompson, 383 East Yamhill street, was arrested this afternoon upon complaint of E. R. Fortney. They live in the same flat and he alleges that Mrs. Thompson assaulted his 12-year-old daughter, Bee. It is also alleged by Fortney that Mrs. Thompson assaulted another woman with a hammer.

FUNERAL OF VICTIM

The funeral of Rudolph Janzen, who was killed in the street car wreck a week ago, will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at Hines' undertaking parlors. Interment will be at Lone Fir cemetery. Fellow employees of the dead man will act as pallbearers.

BIDS FOR NEW YORK STATE BUILDING

Nearly Fifteen Thousand Dollars Lowest Figure for Which Contractors Will Do Work.

CONNECTICUT READY TO DISPLAY HER WARES

From All Over East Come Expressions That Show Fair is Well Advertised.

Bids for the construction of the New York state building were opened at fair headquarters at noon today, with the following results:

Goldie Bros., $19,740; Bennett Construction company, $19,560; Stewart & Winslow, $18,225; P. E. Donovan & Co., $17,398; Burrell Construction company, $16,720; E. A. Lyons, $15,700; and Robert Wakefield, $14,824. The last named is the lowest bidder, and while no action will be taken until word is received from New York in answer to a list of the bids wired since this afternoon, it is reasonably certain that Wakefield will get the contract.

Connecticut will be represented on a large scale at the Lewis and Clark exposition. Director of Exhibits H. E. Doeh, after working for several months through influential residents of that state, received a letter from Hartford, the capital city, this morning, in which it is stated that a bill providing for a sum of money adequate to a surpassing exhibit has been introduced in the legislature and will doubtless meet with approval. It is not expected that Connecticut will have a state building, as the author of the bill requires the state can compete for awards in various fields, no matter in what building or buildings their exhibit may be made.

But that a large quantity of the machinery and other manufactures for which the state is famous, will be on display is a settled fact.

Colonel Doeh regards his information from the far eastern state as one of the best examples of the thorough manner in which the fair is advertised.

"It is my opinion that more people have heard of the Lewis and Clark exposition," said he, "than had heard of the St. Louis fair on the day of its opening. Every day something happens to confirm this opinion. Even Indians residing on reservations far removed from this territory are writing me inquiring as interpreters, etc., in case we should hold any Indian congresses."

Hawaii will not exhibit. Secretary Reed has received a letter from Gov. R. Carter of Honolulu acknowledging the invitation to participate, but pleading that Hawaii's financial condition is not such as to justify any expenditure for exhibition purposes at this time. The governor will, however, appoint a special commissioner to represent the islands at the fair.

The construction of the tower of the government's main building has about reached the point where it is ready for the installation of the big chime being made by the E. W. Van Dusen company of Cincinnati. The firm has written that the chime will be ready in a matter of a few days. The architect and Director of Works Huber has asked the government architect to instruct Contractor J. E. Bennett to strengthen the tower so as to insure the absolute safety of a weight of five tons; the expedition corporation will reimburse the contractor for the extra work.

Director Huber has placed two pieces of the statutory pair of burials on exhibition in the sunken garden, and they are attracting much attention from visitors at the grounds. The models are after Remington.

ROCKPILE IS BUT A MEANS TO FREEDOM

Men Sentenced for Iniquitous Crime Escape Without Hindrance Every Day.

Subpoenas were issued from the municipal court this morning for the appearance of Officers Hulme and Fred Mallett, who have charge of the prisoners on the city rockpile. They will be forced to state why even if they have been sentenced by Judge Hoque for living off the earnings of fallen women has escaped within one or two days after sentence.

The subpoenas were issued as the result of the escape of James Darwin, who was sentenced last week to six months' imprisonment in the city jail. He escaped on the second day of his term.

"We might as well abolish the court," said Assistant City Attorney Fitzgerald in explaining to the court the escape. "Every one convicted for that offense escapes in a day or two. These officers must be brought into court and these frequent escapes must be explained. Some one is responsible, and we must find out who it is. It may not be the two officers in question—they may be acting according to orders—but some one is guilty, and it makes this court something of a joke."

Judge Hoque declared that a rigid investigation would at once be instituted.

CHINESE HAS SHORT SHRIFT IN COURT

Lee Sing was convicted this morning of having opium in his place of business in the shortest criminal trial that has been heard recently in the circuit court. The case was called before Judge Fraser at 10 o'clock and the jury went out in about half an hour. A few minutes later they returned a verdict of guilty.

Public is Aroused. The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary J. Walters, of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep and my stomach was so weak from useless doctors' drugs that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters I felt better. In a short time I was entirely cured. Guaranteed at Red Cross Pharmacy, Fifth and Oak streets, on the way to the postoffice. Price 50c."

CO-OPERATION IN PORTLAND

How the Eilers Piano Clubs Make Possible Large Saving in Price. Further Particulars

While the co-operative piano clubs are growing rapidly day by day, the people outside this city do not seem to comprehend the power of this co-operative plan, as scores of inquiries seem to attest. Now let us take this plan up thoroughly some more. First of all, it is new. It is not even new to the piano business. The Eilers Piano house itself, in several of its branches, has been a saving to the piano-buyers of thousands of dollars in the piano clubs of 1902 and 1903. But the saving was not undertaken on so large a scale, and with practically the entire Eilers line of pianos including the costliest of Chickering and Kimball, and also the Webers.

Co-operation is nothing more nor less than the strongest business principle in operation today, and as such it cannot be put into force too often. It would apply to the purchase of books just as well as to pianos. If you bought a hundred pairs of shoes or if a hundred of you gave an order for one pair of shoes each, through some purchasing agent, you would get them cheaper than you do when each of you buys separately.

That is all there is to our co-operative piano club sale. But in proportion as the price of a piano is greater than the price of a pair of shoes, so in just that proportion is the saving. It is a saving on a piano that much greater than would be the co-operative saving upon a pair of shoes.

The average piano is 90 times as costly as the average pair of shoes, and the co-operative saving is 90 times as great. We have figured that a saving of from $75 to $150 on the average piano can be made on a co-operative purchase of at least 100 on any piano you may choose. We give you a guarantee that we will make you the saving of at least $75 on any piano you choose. We give you 10 makes of famous pianos to choose from, and we offer the smallest of deposits and the easiest of terms on the purchase.

Think of buying one of the club "A" pianos at $1.25 a week at a saving, too, of at least $111 on your regular new and warranted $300 piano!

"Economy is the road to wealth," and music is the road to happiness and culture. So that if you desire both happiness and wealth you will not fail to give this plan a try before the case is concluded. He declares that he will have absolutely no difficulty in establishing the innocence of his client. Dodson has an excellent reputation and has many friends who claim that his arrest was either the result of mistaken identity or jobbery on the part of enemies of the sheriff's office.

Dodson was appointed last Friday to serve as a special deputy sheriff at the Columbia slough. Dodson had twice asked for an appointment, stating that many tough characters passed through the country near Warrenton, and that it was desirable to have someone there authorized to make arrests when outrages were committed. He owns a store in partnership with his mother at Dodson, a mile from Warrenton, and their property is said to be worth $50,000. Dodson has been a deputy sheriff for more than 15 years and served under Penumbra Kelly, George C. Sears, William French and W. A. Gray. He represented to Sheriff Word that his store had been broken open recently and made a strong plea for the appointment as deputy, which the sheriff granted.

Had Been Given Star and Authority By Sheriff Word Only Last Friday.

William Addison, who claims to have been waylaid and robbed Saturday night by Deputy Sheriff H. E. Dodson of Warrenton, is held in the city jail as the complaining witness. Dodson has been released. The case was continued this morning until tomorrow.

Attorney Roger B. Sinnott represents Dodson, and declares that there will be interesting developments before the case is concluded. He declares that he will have absolutely no difficulty in establishing the innocence of his client. Dodson has an excellent reputation and has many friends who claim that his arrest was either the result of mistaken identity or jobbery on the part of enemies of the sheriff's office.

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, Feb. 12.—Bacon of Georgia, who is a member of the committee on foreign relations, presented in the senate today a resolution directing that the committee investigate all the facts connected with the agreement entered into, June 4, 1903, between the United States and San Domingo permitting to arbitration the claims of the San Domingo Improvement company of New York, which is to determine whether, under such agreement, the United States had authority to take possession of the customs houses of the republic without submitting the matter to the senate. The resolution was referred to the committee on foreign commissions.
