What Sulphur Does

For the Human Body in Health and Disease.

The mention of sulphur will recall to many of us the early days when our mothers and grandmothers gave us our daily dose of sulphur and molasses every spring and fall.

It was the universal spring and fall bood purifier, tonic and cure-all, and mind you, this old-fashloned remedy was not without merit.

The idea was good, but the remedy was crude and unpaistable, and a large quantity had to be taken to get any effect.

Nowadays we get all the beneficial effects of sulphur in a male was effects.

ulphur in a highly concentrated, effective form.

Few people are aware of the value of his form of sulphur in restoring and asintaining bodily vigor and health; ulphur acts directly on the liver, and xorstory organs and purifies and enchas the blood by the prompt elimination of waste material.

Our grandmothers knew this when they dosed us with sulphur and molasses very spring and fall, but the crudity not impurity of ordinary flowers of sulhur were often worse than the distance, and cannot compare with the modran concentrated preparations of sulhur, of which Stuart's Calcium Wafers undoubtedly the best and most widely sed.

R. M. Wilkins, while experimentwith sulphur remedies, soon found the sulphur from Calcium was auto any other form. He says:

A chief reason for posting the new rules in the increase in insane cases, which average about 30 every mouth. Judge Webster insists on going with the physician summoned for the examination to the homes of all women thought to be insane, in order to save them the embarrassment of being taken to the county jall, although the law permits it, and to take them there would save considerable labor on his part. Many partents are examined and declared not fit subjects for the asylum, and in the case of women the judge has saved them from having it said they had been brought to the jall.

The new schedule, as far as possible, will be accommodated to the time of the 40 or more physicians who are on the list as examiners of insane patients.

Mr. Montgomery brought suit in the district court, claiming a balance of $5,000, and secured a verdict for the amount, but the verdict was set aside on a technicality. The plaintiff filed another suit, and the case was again fought out in the district court for Multnomah county, before a jury, Judge Sears presiding. Cake & Cake and Coovert & Stapleton appeared for the plaintiff, and the defense was represented by W. L. Boise and John T. McKee. The jury returned a verdict for the fall amount claimed by plaintiff.

At noon yesterday members of one of the warring tongs ran breathlessly into police headquarters and announced that the two highbinders who were wanted and who are said to have escaped after the outbreak were walking along Second street. Detectives and officers burried out and the chase began. Through intricate hailways and innumerable rooms they followed the suspects and finally captured them. They were confined in the city jail and are held in the sum of $5,000 each.

It was during the chase for the fugitive Chinese that Officer Goltz discovered the arsenal. The weapons were carefully concealed under the bedolothing of a large apartment house where many Chinamen sleep. The revolvers and rifle were loaded. The knives had been whetled to resorkeenness.

Details of officers have been scattered throughout Chinatown in the hope of averting the impending hostilities.

RUSSIAN REPORTS OF VICTORY IN FAR EAST

MISSING WITNESS Kuropatkin Has Received Orders to Win a Battle or Resign Command.

(Copyright, Hearst News Bervice, by Leased Wire to The Journal.)

St. Petersburg, Feb. 18.—Reports have been current here today that there has been heavy fighting to the southwest of Mukden, and while the official reports are meagre the information has been given out here officially that successes/have been achieved by the Russian commander, several positions occupied by the Japanese lines thrown into confusion.

Similar reports have so often proved a prelude to serious Russian reverses, those now current are taken with reserve by all classes. I am informed that General Kuropatkin has received intimations that unless he is able within a comparatively short time to send news of a decisive victory over the Japanese that he will be superseded in the command of the forces. While an apparently well grounded rumor names General Sakharoff as the man selected to take General Kuropatkin's place, in certain quarters, the name of General Trepoff fidence of the powers remarked to me today: "The situation of Russia is very simi-

"The situation of Russia is very similar to that of the American civil war after the defeat of McCiellan by Lee. Kuropathin in many respects is like your General McCiellan. He is a great organizer and a fine defensive fighter; but what Russia needs at the present juncture is a Grant—a man who can achieve results, regardless of losses, and will go into and wear down the snemy so that he can no longer resist, even if he has to sacrifice double the number of his men in order to reap this result; in other words, Russia needs a fighter now instead of a tactician."

SHOOTS AT LANDLADY THEN KILLS HIMSELF

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal)
San Francisco, Feb. 18.—Edward Pratt, aged 40, formerly a switchman for the Santa Fe, shot and killed himself to-night in the hallway of a lodging house at 36 Jessie street. He had just made an attempt to kill the landlady of the house, Mrs. Alice Keig, with whom he was infatuated.

They had quarreled several days ago and Pratt left the house, after threatening to come back shortly and kill her. He went to the house tonight and when the woman opened the door he fired at her, the bullet penetrating the spinal chord of the neck making a wound that surgeons say will probably result fatally. Pratt then put the mussle of the pistol in his mouth and discharged it. When he struck the floor he was dead.

every age has been devoted to the investigation of down from age to age. He maintains that the means for overcoming the incessant warfare of manifestation of any diseased condition of the body or mind means simply a misadjustment of the complicated mechanism which God has placed within us to accomplish certain fixed results.

The obvious conclusion is, that if the machinery of these functions can be restored to harmonious action, the body will again take up the interrupted work and nature will restore it to strength and health. This is just what Dr. Harris teaches and what he DOES. He is able by his superior command of the functions of the body to restore them to complete harmony, to force them once more into properly directed activity. The result is that disease is dispelled and a cure is effected.

When the sun shines we feel its warmth. It is not a phenomenon. There is no miracle. So, too, when every bit of the God built mechanism of the body is performing its proper function, health is the natural result. It would take a miracle to produce disease.

The wonder of it all is the ability of this master mind to re-establish these relations among the members of so complex an organism as the human body. But he does it every day, as thousands are ready to testify. It does not matter what the disturbing cause may be, he enables nature to assert herself and avail of the energies within the body.

Imparts His Knowledge to Others.

To be able to exert so immense an influence for the betterment of the human race were sufficient to satisfy most men. It is the glory of this man's life that he is able to do it, but he has carried his investigations far beyond this point. He has so carefully systematized the immense fund of knowlfalse system is built up; but none of them were complete. Some have been moderately successful while others are now known as rank frauds.

It has remained for C. W. Harris, now of this city, to give to the world what scientists have been searching for through the ages. By his great discovery the possibilities of yesterday are the persearching for through the ages. By ms great discovery the possibilities of yesterday are the performances of today. He takes front rank among good of humanity, he would guard his knowledge as a veritable gold mine; but in his broad-minded liberality he desires to make its benefits available. Time has been when to advocate a new structure or to promulgate a new discovery was to invite or to promulgate a new discovery was to invite persecution. History is replete with instances teachers must take up the work—that other thinkers must help him to carry the subject forward to its ultimate conclusion—the banishment of dis-
