Silks and Silk Houses

A LITTLE TALK BY OUR SILK MAN. The Silk Store—South Annex—First Floor. Following our usual custom, we inaugurate today—the Monday preceding March 1—A Monster Semi-Annual Sale of Dependable Black Taffeta.

Right here we want to impress upon the gray-matter storage-cells of Portland's silk-buyers the fact that THIS HOUSE buys only the "middlemen" they buy from. No "jobbers" silks here. However, like the immortal Washington of cherry (or apple) tree fame, we cannot tell a lie and say that "we have yet to have one complaint about the silks we sell." We read a statement of that sort the other day, emanating from the fiery pencil of another store's "ad-man." But, like other things from the same source, such statements must be taken with a large box of salt. That "ad-man" has probably about as much knowledge in a full way of silks as we would have of putting steel shoes on Croesus. He was using "advertising license" instead of silk truth. There is not a reputable silk house in the world but has SOME trouble with their silks, and newest the world produces. New French, German and English Suiting, in the popular checks and mannish effects. New Rainproof Cloths, the best of the world's makes, in plain and fancy weaves.
