ARCHITECTS PLAN MANY VERY ARTISTIC HOMES

Boom in Construction on in Earnest, and Will Continue Far Into Summer.

The spring building boom is fairly started, and will, it is believed, continue well into the summer. Architects are busy, and many notices inviting bids from contractors are being sent out. A number of residences costing from $5,000 to $20,000 are being planned, as are numerous smaller dwellings, business buildings, flats and tenements and three or four medium-sized hotels. Bids for the Silverfield hotel, on upper Washington street, will be opened by H. J. Hasty this week. The hotel to be built by B. M. Lombard, on north Twenty-sixth street, near the exposition grounds, will cost about $20,000.

Frank D. Gibbs is having plans drawn by Lewis & Allen for a $1,000 residence to be erected at the corner of Tillamook and Seventh streets, Irvington. The dwelling will be a two-story frame structure of modern design.

J. Jacobberger is completing plans for the Young Women's Christian association house of rest at the exposition grounds. It will be a two-story frame building, 86x54 feet, including porches, and will have a large reception-room, nursery, kitchen, dining-room and pantry on the first floor; on the second floor will be a large parlor, lavatory, sitting-hall and seven sleeping-rooms.

Emil Schacht is planning a handsome bungalow for Mrs. Jennie M. McCaskey at the corner of Elm and Twenty-first streets, Portland Heights. It will cost in the neighborhood of $4,000, and will be a two-story frame building, with stone columns and wide piazzas. One of the pleasant features will be a large Dutch reception hall with a stone fireplace.

Otto Kleemann has drawn plans for a two-story tenement-house for William Geiger at the corner of Sixth and Hall streets.

Two dwellings to cost $7,500 each will soon be built on King street. Workmen are removing surplus dirt from the block between Washington and Couch, at Fourteenth street, where new business buildings are soon to be erected. The Irwin-Hodson company will erect a four-story brick building to contain its printing and lithographing plant. Robert W. Wilson will put up a building of several stories, with storerooms on the first floor and apartments above.

C. E. Runyon is erecting three fine two-story flat buildings at Tenth and Clay streets.

CENTER ADDITION ROAD.

The Center addition board of trade last night drafted a petition to the county commissioners for a road running parallel with the Base Line road, following the car line. Montaville is co-operating with Center addition in securing this concession from the county board.

There were 200 visitors at the Portland open-air sanatorium for consumptives Sunday. Since the statement in The Journal that two sufferers from consumption would be discharged and cured within a few days, officials of the sanatorium have been besieged with letters and personal applications for admission. The capacity of the place will be taxed, it is believed.

The announcement was made Saturday that A. W. Williams and John Gilbert, who were well advanced in the first stage of consumption, were cured. They went to the open-air sanatorium as soon as it was opened, and Williams was superintendent for a time, but took the treatment prescribed for patients.

Early Sunday morning persons from the city and from neighboring places started on a trip to the sanatorium which is a mile or more from Island station, on the Oregon Water Power & Railway company's Oregon City line. The stream of visitors continued throughout the day.

There were accommodations for eight or ten additional patients before the announcement of the cure of Williams and Gilbert was made, but they have been applied for. Numerous applications have been made by sufferers who are in the second and third stages of consumption. Few of these will be admitted, though they will be permitted to follow the open-air methods of treatment, and every assistance will be given them.

"Since the announcement was made that Williams and Gilbert would be discharged as cured, we have had innumerable applications for admittance," said Dr. Woods Hutchinson. "The disease in many of those seeking to be admitted is too far advanced for us to hold out the hope that is offered other patients, but the sanatorium has agreed to do all within its power to assist them."

"We are gradually getting things in shape, and in the course of a short time will be better able to accommodate patients than we are now. The main building, which will be used as headquarters by the staff and the superintendent, will soon be completed and will be of great assistance to us. The building is now being roofed."

"A number of generous persons have assisted us materially recently. Some sent rugs, which have been placed on the floors of the tents, and which are of much service."

A benefactor of the institution recently died at Joseph, this state, of consumption. She provided that a certain sum of money should be left to the Portland open-air sanatorium for consumptives. The sum was not large, but will be of great assistance to those who are promoting the work.

the department with regard to the favoritism shown for some time past at police headquarters. During the day Acting Detective Hellyer, Desk Officer Wendorf and Janitor Branch have acted as fallers, with Lillis on duty at night. Lillis is the only regularly appointed faller, Branch being janitor. While Branch was officiating as acting faller "trusties" did his work as janitor.

General Beebe is expected back tomorrow, and a meeting of the police commission will be held tomorrow night or Friday morning, as the executive board meets Friday and the commission must make a report at that meeting on the results of the investigation of the escape of four inmates from the city prison.

Janitor Lillis' statement that "trusties" at the city prison have been accustomed to take whiskey and tobacco into the prison whenever they desired was borne out by a discovery made last night by Captain Moore. A "trusty" named Myers, whose 30-day term for vagrancy expired today, was detected last night by the captain carrying a pie, a flask of whiskey, tobacco and cigarette-papers into the jail. The articles were confiscated.

HOME TRAINING ASSOCIATION MEETING

Calvary Presbyterian church was filled last night by an appreciative audience that listened to the discussion of themes that have engaged the attention of members of the Home-Training association since the organization of that society last fall.

Mrs. C. M. Wood, president, and Mrs. Samuel Connell, vice-president, occupied seats on the platform. Mrs. Connell explained the objects of the association and spoke of the work done during the past winter, and set forth the plans for the future.

H. W. Stone, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., gave an address on "Boys." "During the past 10 years," said he, "a new science has developed—the science of boy life." The real formative period came when the boy was from 10 to 14.

Mrs. A. D. Soper read a paper on "Home," in which she gave suggestions for attaining a higher standard of living.

Dr. Woods Hutchinson, speaking of "Infantile Morals," advocated allowing nature to have her own way and removing many of the artificial obstacles erected by prejudice and ignorance.

"Parental Co-operation" was the subject treated by Rev. Stephen S. Wine, D. D. A striking feature of his address was a picture of an old-time Jewish home, wherein dwelt sympathy between father and mother. He declared that the purity and strength of the home has been the one force that has saved the Hebrew race from extinction.

Rev. W. S. Gilbert, D. D., pastor of Calvary church, in closing the program, spoke of the individual quantity as essential to the construction of a strong character.

Miss Ethel Schade, accompanied by Miss E. Protzman sang, and a sextet from the Men's Resort, under the leadership of Rev. A. D. Soper, rendered two selections.

CHANGES AT CITY JAIL AFFECT LILLIS

Stated Prison Was Not Properly Conducted, and is Assigned to New Duty.

Janitor Lillis has been removed from his position at the city prison under the first relief, Captain Moore, and assigned to duty under the second relief, Captain Bailey. Some time ago Lillis announced that he intended resigning March 1 to accept a position with a mercantile firm, but in view of the action taken by the chief he will remain in the department.

Patrolman Baky, who with Patrolman Burke has had the night patrol of the north end, has been assigned to the position of janitor. Patrolman Jones, formerly a partner of Patrolman Courtney, has been selected as Burke's mate. It is understood that this arrangement is temporary.

25 MANDOLINS, GUITARS, BANJOS, VIOLINS

Absolutely Free

To advertise the fact that we have the largest general music store in Portland, we have determined to give away, absolutely free, with course of 26 lessons, any of the above instruments. Already 125 have taken advantage of this remarkable offer. We have decided to leave the offer open for 25 more members. The course of 26 lessons is furnished by Mr. H. A. Webber at one half the regular price. The total cost of the course is as follows: $2.50 down on the mandolin or guitar course, or $2.00 down on the violin or banjo course, as a guarantee of good faith. This pays for the last four lessons of the course. Then 50 cents a week for the mandolin and guitar or 75 cents a week for the violin and banjo, which is paid when the lesson is taken.

THE TOTAL COST OF THE COURSE OF 26 LESSONS IS $13 for the mandolin or guitar or $12 for the violin or banjo, with a BEAUTIFUL INSTRUMENT and case ABSOLUTELY FREE OF CHARGE.

The lessons may be taken at any time within one year. We had eight applications yesterday. If you wish to be one of the lucky number DO NOT PROcrastinate, but call today.

NOTE: We handle a fine line of pianos—cash or easy payments.

HART WANTED TIME AND GOT FIVE YEARS

Nathan Hart, convicted of arson in attempting to burn a building owned by Joseph Simon, was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary by Judge Sears this morning.

Hart was convicted last week in Judge Sears' court. When he was brought into court today the judge asked him if he was ready for sentence.

"No, your honor, I am not," answered Hart.

"What are you doing here, then?" severely asked Judge Sears.

"I want more time before being tried," said Hart.

"Five years is all the time I can give you," said the judge.

It was shown that Hart had been convicted once before of arson, and the judge gave him the maximum sentence.

IN HONOR OF ST. DAVID.

Special services will be held this evening at St. David's church, East Twelfth and Belmont streets, in honor of the festival of St. David. The choir of Trinity and St. David combined, with a number of prominent soloists will furnish the music, which will be a feature of the occasion. The Episcopal ministers of Portland will attend, and the sermon will be preached by Rev. G. E. Van Waters.
