Crossed electric wires at $:30 o'clock last night extinguished many are lights by causing fuses to burn out, and for a brief period stopped street car traffic at Hood and Caruthers streets. The explosion following the crossing of the wires frightened Mrs. Anna Goldberg, of $52 Hood street, so badly that she fainted. The Portland General Electric company was notified and sent linemen to the scene, who made repairs within a few minutes. Policemen and firemen arrived and kept back the crowd which was in danger from the live wires.

Warning to Business Men.

The business men of Portland are hereby warned not to be entrapped by the representations of certain persons soliciting advertisements for a publication called the Deutsche Zeitung, established a few weeks ago, the circulation of which, we are credibly informed, has not yet reached 200 paid subscribers. These solicitors have caused several advertisers to understand that they represent The Nachrichten, the old, established German newspaper of this city, continuously published for the last 14 years, and which perfectly covers the states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, and is found in nearly all German homes of Portland. Contracts made under these false representations are not binding and should be repudiated by the signers. German Publishing Company, publishers of The Nachrichten, 2021; Second street.

heart nerves—and strengthens them and vitalines them and restores them. Then that is the end of heart diseases.

For the heart itself has no more self-control than a common sponge. It is made to beat by a sender nerve so tiny that it is scarcely visible to the naked eye. Yet ten thousand times a day this delicate norve must cause the heart to expand and contract.

The heart is about the size of your clenched first. Open and close your flat a dozen times, even, and you will see the menatrous labor this little nerve must do.

The heart nerve is only one of the branches of the great sympathetic nervous system. Each branch of this system is we closely allied with the others that weakness or irregularity at any point is apt to spread. Heart trouble frequently arises from Stomach trouble through sympathy, and Kidney trouble may also follow. For each of these organs is operated by a branch of these same sympathetic nerves—the inside nerves. The bond of sympathy between the nerves that operate the vital organs has a useful purpose, as well. For what will cure weakness in one branch will nurely cure weakness in every branch—what will restore one center will surely restore them ell.

There is nothing new about this—nothing any physician would dispute. But it remained for lip, shoop to apply this knowledge—to put it to practical use. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is the result of a quarter century of endeavor along this very line. It does not does the organ or deaden the puln—but it does go at once to the nerve—the inside nerve—the power nerve—and builds up and strengthens it and makes it well.

If you have heart trouble and you never tried my remedy merely write and ask it will

Grain From Exec to Orient.

Early next week the British steamship Ras Elba will arrive at Portland to load grain and hay for the orient. She was chartered yesterday afternoon, and her cargo will be supplied by Henry, Mett of this city.

The Ras Elba is at Beattle, where she arrived about a week uso from Moji, Japan. She came across the Pacific in ballast in search of a cargo, and it is understood that she was secured at a reasonable rate. A portion of her cargo will be loaded on the sound, although all of it will be furnished by the Portland man named. She will take out 5,000 tons in measurement. Her groes register tonnage is 2,735, length 214 feet, breadth 40.5 feet and the foot of Richmond street.

Government to Advertise for Craft Carry Lumber to Philippines.

Regardless of the law on the subject, a foreign bottom may possibly be permitted to carry government lumber from Portland to the Philippines.

Captain Jesse M. Baker, local disbursing quartermaster, received a telegram from Washington yesterday afternoon instructing him to advertise for bids to transport 2,200,000 feet of lumber, the contract for furnishing which was recently awarded to the Portland Lumber company, from this port to Manila. He also was instructed to invite the agents of foreign steamship companies to submit tenders for the contract. The bids will be opened on March 10.

The successful bidder will be required to send his vessel to the Portland mill shortly after March 10 and load the lumber at the rate of 150,000 feet a day, if the weather conditions are favorable. In the event that the lowest bid is accepted, there is scarcely a doubt that the shipment will be taken out by a steamer flying a foreign flag. Poreign owners have always accepted lower rates that the American.

has taken up her position off the mouth of the Columbia river. She was towed out to her old anchorage yesterday by the tender Heather, which then left for Puget sound to replace a number of missing buoys and to make a general inspection of the alds to navigation in those waters. The lighthouse tender Manzanita left up the river from Astoria this morning with a gas buoy, which will be repaired at Portland. It will then be placed in position at Harrington point, on the Columbia river.

The tender Columbine made a trip to Destruction island, near Gray's harbor, yesterday to bring a number of workmen down the coast, who have been making repairs to the lighthouse at that point.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

Contrary to the wishes of the Riggers' and Liners' union of this city the sailors are performing the work of painting and cleaning the hull of the schooner S. T. Alexander, which is now on the drydock. A committee from the union went to St. Johns yesterday and informed the captain that they should have had the job. The skipper replied that he was acting under instructions from the owner. It is the first time that the riggers and liners have not been given that sort of work at the dock.

The Oregon Ceramic club, though only three months old, is fast making its presence felt, and is undertaking large responsibilities. It has just been given complete charge of the exhibit of the national league at the Lewis and given complete charge of the exhibit of the national league at the Lewis and Clark fair.

At the recent meeting of the club the president, Mrs. Annabelie Parrish, was appointed a committee to attend to the correspondence with power to choose her own helpers.

A good exhibit is expected this year from the league, and Mrs. Parrish today received a letter from the head-quarters at Chicago asking her to arrange for space and showcases. All the clubs of the league send their work to Chicago, where it is strictly judged by an advisory committee. Thus only the highest standard of work is allowed to go out to be exhibited. Last year the judgment was so severe that only about eight pieces were passed on for the St. Louis fair. This, however, was due to the fact that many of the best exhibitors could not take part because of the delay in returning their work from the Parls exposition.

Miss Minnie Parker has been ap-

Paris exposition.

Miss Minnie Parker has been appointed chairman of a committee to arrange for the traveling exhibit, which is quite a different thing. The league each years sends out a schedule for certain kinds of designing or modeling. The artists must conform strictly to the requirements, and in this way the same pattern is used by several, and the different methods of treatment with individual ideas are brought out. The best are chosen by the advisory committee to form an exhibit, and this is circulated among the clubs.

At the meeting with Mrs. Alexander Muir at Mt. Tabor papers were read by Mrs. J. D. Tresham on "The Methods and Materials Used in the manufacture of Porcelains," and by Mrs. Haines on "Glass Decoration." The next meeting will be in the Oregon Camera club rooms, the first Wednesday in April. Paris exposition.

Portland amusement lovers are soon to have an opportunity of visiting this great production. It will be open daily commencing Saturday, on Washington street between Sixth and Seventh streets, and 'tis safe to say the success met with at the world's fair will be duplicated here. This is a new style of entertalnment—the visitors are escorted through a series of winding grottos underground, the several circles of which inferno is composed are visited, various punishments are witnessed on all sides. Satan holds court for his earthly friends and at its conclusion a reput descent is made in a large elevator to the mysterious depths below. This is the "chamber of the dead," and a creepy atmosphere thrills one during the weird performance that concludes the tour of exploration of Satan's domain.

AT THE THEATRES.

Seats Selling for Creatore.

Creatore and his Italian band are coming to the Marquam Grand theatre next Monday and Tuesday nights with a popular price matinee Tuesday at 3 o'clock. Creatore's successes in the United States have been rapid, well deserved and won entirely by his own efforts and undoubted genius. His band, which is the largest now touring this country, is an evenly balanced and spiendidly organized corps of skilled and cultivated musicians, who, with their leader, enjoyed in New York the largest and most successful engagement of any similar organization in musical history. There they specared on Broadway for three consecutive months, breaking the record of all receipts Guring that period.

As to Creatore himself, everyone, no matter how limited his musical knowledge, should hear him interpret, according to his own ideas. Seals are now selling.

"Old Heidelberg." No greater praise can be given a play than to go and see it a second or even a third time. Probably no one but old theatre-goers ever do this, anyway, but no matter how confirmed they might be in the theatre going habit, they will not go again unless the performance leaves a pleasant impression on them.

"Old Heidelberg," at the Columbia this week, is so beautiful a play that one does not begin to realize its charm and interest the first time one sees it, and hundreds have gone twice. The regular Saturday matines tonnor now will be packed with women and children. The big top gallery will be thrown open to them so all may be comfortably accommodated.

Bargain Prices Tomorow.

Seats are now selling for the performance of Stetson's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" company at the Marquam Guand theatre tomorrow afternoon and night. The big parade will start from the front entrance of the theatre on Morrison street at 12 o'clock. The bargain price matines which means both adults and children. 25 cents to any part of the theatre, will begin at $1.15 o'clock; admission to the gallery will be 15 cents in the afternoon. The evening performance will begin at $1.15. Prices, adults 50 cents, children 25 cents on the lower floor and balcony; gallery, 25 cents.

Mahara's Minstrels.

The diverting novelty promised by Mans Baker at the Empire theatre four nights, at ing Sanday matince, with a special mati Wednesday, is the famous Mahara's Minstr known from Maine to California as the bar colored minstrel organization of America, entire performance scintiliates with the o inality that has made this company the mopular of all traveling colored attraction that the company comprises a membership of very best artists.

Good Things at the Grand.

At the Grand theatre this week the Duffy, present a clever sketch which shows two children to great advantage. Leonard, Holme and Deane offer a musical set that is a whirlwind of tun. Amy Granville in he songs and electric dance has made a distinct hit. Alf Bonner has gotten more application thic week's song than by any yet offere at the Grand, and Nagle and Adams in dancing singing, juggling and whistling have been features of the show.

Baker's Great Show.

It is a funny show you see at the Baker this week, and there is pienty of it. There are the Stubblefield trio, in their serial set; Castle and Hall, comedy sketch artists; the Klines, in an eccentyle clown act; Alf James, the king of funny men; the Leander Irio, is reaturary poses; the De Lacies, leaders of black face; Bernard Williams, the monologist, and John W. Wood.
