The Olds, Wortman & King Organization Gives to the People of the Northwest a Dependable Store

There is a deal of experimenting going on. Some stores experiment with facts, others with figures. Not so here. If we quote a price, depend upon it, it's right. If we announce a reduction, depend upon it, it's true. If we recommend a style, depend upon it, it's correct. Dependability is the strongest feature of this store.

Women's Fancy Goods Shops

First Floor. THE NEW SPRING RIBBONS ARE READY. They reflect the period of Marie Antoinette and Madame Pompadour. The influence of Marie Antoinette and her time, sitting through the centuries, may be seen in the soft new ribbons on display today. Louis XVI's queen ruled the fashionable world. She was fond of dress and full of invention. It was due to her ingenuity that many new colors were brought out, such as "Pasha mud," "burnt opera-house," "the color."

Only One Man Out of Every Ten

Gets a good trolley as he pays for. Perhaps only one out of twenty. We're speaking of Portland men who don't buy their new shirts "cheap"—in Portland stores. The reason is that only about that part of the city's male population trade here. Consequently, only one man out of ten or twenty is as well dressed as his means will afford. Now, these frank men! It's the only reason is that about 80 or 95 men out of a hundred have an sympathy against trading in a "department store," and they pay dearly for that feeling. The prices here are from 10c to 25c, on an average, less than men's specialty houses ask for same grades in a regular way—except on contract goods. And then the opportunities offered by our special sales are numerous. Women are wiser than men—and better buyers—that's why women through this store daily. Take a lesson from your wife, your mother, your sister, Mr. Man, in your buying. It will pay you and increase our men's business rapidly. Our men's store is by itself, away from the crush of other stores, light, handy and airy—right at the Sixth Street entrance. Get wise, Mr. Man—DO IT NOW! This week in the MEN'S TOGGERY.
