BURGLAR FOOLED KANGAROO JUDGE

Charles Wright, Boldest of City's Criminals, Was Released by Hunt.

HAS COMMITTED FIFTY CRIMES IN TWO MONTHS

Discovered Breaking Into a Sa loon at Oregon City, Where He Is Captured.

Charles Wright, alias Jasper Johnso colored, arrested yesterday afternoon by Detectives Vaughn and Hartman, guilty on his own admission of breaking into nearly 50 saloons in the past two months, was released three weeks ago by Chief of Police Hunt, sitting as kangaroo Chief of Police Hunt, sitting as kangaroo judge. Wright at that time was taken into custody by Station Officer Price and Patrolman Welch for being out afterhours, and the next morning Chief Hunt, on his throne as the dispenser of justice in the kangaroo court, turned loose the criminal who had already broken into a large number of saloons in Portland according to his confession made last evening.

Wright was captured after information had been received from Oregon City, where he robbed three saloons. He was lodged in the city jail and made confession of numerous crimes. He stated that he secured from a few cents to $20 where he robbed three saloons. He was lodged in the city jail and made confession of numerous crimes. He stated that he secured from a few cents to $20 in his various burgiaries.

Wright admitted having broken into 15 saloons in this city. He either entered by a window or twisted the lock off the front door. In a few instances he used a skeleton key to effect entrance. His last two exploits in this city were burgiaries at the saloons of Alexander Anderline. 195 Second street, and Whitney & Snyder. 234 Yamhill street, where he secured only $2.50.

The credit for the capture of Wright is principally due to C. C. Fields, superintendent of the O. W. P. Co., who kept the police acquainted with the movements of the burgiar from the time he left Oregon City until he arrived in Portland. Acting on information furnished by employes of the company, the police had little more to do than station themselves in the path of the robber and cover him with their revolvers when he reached the spot where they were lying in walt.

At Oregon City early yesterday morning Wright broke into three saloons. He was seen on leaving the last saloon by Patrolman Ed Shaw, who gave chase. The burgiar escaped by swimming the Abernethy river. Shaw emptied his revolver at the fleeing man, but did not him. Word was seft the police of Portland, and Detectives Vaugha and Hartman were detailed to apprehend him.

He was arrested as he was walking

He was arrested as he was walking along the Oregon City streetcar line in the outskirts of town.

Wright's clothing was still wet, and he was limping from a bullet wound in the leg. The police believe he is the burgiar at whom three shote were fired by Proprietor Fiebeler of the Albina Gardens sulcool, a week ago.

Chier der Police Burns took Wright back to Oregon City last night, where he will stand trial for the burgiary of the three saloons. No charges have been filed against him in this city.

Frank H. King is charged with obtain-ing money by false pretenses, in a com-plaint filed this afternoon by Laura Mc-Cullam. She alleges that he obtained $1,000 from her by giving her a fraud-ulent deed to coal lands. King is said to have left town with the money.

What to Do for Heart Trouble

I ask no reference, no deposit, no security. There is nothing to promise, nothing to pay—cither now or later. To any heart sufferer who has not tried my remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative—I will gladly give, tree, not a mere supple, but a full dollar bottle.

I am warranted in making this unusual offer because mine is no ordinary remedy. It does not value truly try to stimulate the heart. Such treatments are worse than useless. It goes straight to the cause of all heart trouble—the heart nerves—and strengthens them and vitalizes them and restores them. Then that is the end of heart discusses.

ins them and restores them. Then that is the end of heart discusses.

For the heart likely has no more self-control than a common sponge. It is made to best by a tender nerve se they that it is scarcely visible to the naked eye. Yet ten thousand times a day this delicate nerve must cause the heart to expand and contract.

The heart is about the size of your clenched first. Open and close your flat a dozen times, even, and you will see the monstrous labor this little nerve must do.

The heart nerve is only one of the branches of the great sympathetic hervous system. Each branch of this system is so closely allied with the others that weakness or irregularity at any point is apt to spread. Heart trouble frequently arrises from Stomach trouble through sympathy, and Kidney trouble may also follow. For each of these organs is operated by a branch of these same sympathetic nerves—the inside nerves. The bond of sympathy between the nerves that operate the vital organs has a useful purpose, as well. For what will cure weakness in one branch will surely cure weakness in every tender what will restore one center will surely restore them all.

branch—what will restore one center will surely restore them all.

There is nothing new about this—nothing any physician would dispute. But it remained for the Shoop to apply this knowledge—to put it to practical use. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is the result of a quarter century of endeavor along this very line. It does not dose the organ or deaden the pain—but it does go at once to the nerve—the inside nerve—the power nerve—and builds up and strengthens it and makes it well.

if you have heart trouble and you never tried my remedy, merely write and ask. I will send you an order on your druggist which he will accept as gladdy as he would accept a dellar. He will hand you from his shelves a standard sized bottle of my prescription, and he will send the bill to me. This offer is made only to atrangers to my remedy. Those who have once used the Bestorative do not need this exidence. There are no conditions—no requirements. It is open and frank and fair. It is the supreme test of my limitless belief. All that I sak you to do is to write—write today.

ASKS OREGON CITY MAN TO HELP HIM

tiary Writes to Man in His Old Home.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Oregon City, March 17.—A local hotel proprietor has received a long letter from some person confined in the Montana penitentiary at Deer Lodge, susgesting a method by which the prisoner might regain his libetry. The writer signs himself "Harry Alexander," but this is an alias assumed, as he declares, in order to cover up his identity. The man claims to have been a resident of Oregon City and to have formerly worked in the woolen mills here. The letter goes on to say:

letter goes on to say: "I now write to see if you would do me a favor, to help an old Oregon City to Portland, there to Montana, where I got into a little trouble through no I got into a little trouble through no fault of mine. So not wishing to let my folks know of my trouble, I was not able to secure a counsel and consequently was, sent to prison. . . I am trying to raise a little money to get my case in shape to present to the governor, for I believe when he has looked at the transcript he will give me my liberty."

Here is the plan by which he proposes to raise the fund:

"Since I have been in prison I have made a beautiful riding bridle of pretty colored horsehair, worked up into a very fancy design, all artistically mounted, and I can tuly say it is beautiful, and must be seen to be appreciated.

Now, my dear friend, won't you put this beautiful bridle up to he raffled off to help me out of prison? You could have the chances run from one cent to a dollar, and I believe that most any one who saw it would want a chance.
