Portland high school students have been offered a prize of $20 for the best essay on the general proposition that war is cruel and inhuman; they will be expected to show why it should give way to arbitration. The Oregon Humane society has offered the prize. At the society's annual meeting Tuesday evening the following officers were elected: President, Alfred F. Sears, Jr.; vice-president, F. K. Townsend; treasurer, C. F. Adams; corresponding secretary, W. T. Shanahan; recording secretary, Otto J. Kramer. These with C. H. Woodward and A. Berg will act as directors.

Tonight the number of voters registered for the city primaries will approximate 3,350, which, for the 27 days the books will be open, will bring the total to about 6,000, without the usual increase that always comes in the last week. The proportion of Republicans, according to the averages so far maintained, will be about 2,580 to 720 Democrats. Those who have refused to state party preferences number 59. Up to last night 2,691 Republicans and 493 Democrats had registered. New registrations were 444 and changes of residence 584.

The Oregon Burns Cottage association was incorporated today to collect, sell and exhibit books, relics and souvenirs of the Scottish post at the Lewis and Clark exposition. They will have a capital stock of $5,000, and the incorporators are George J. Cameron, A. S. Brown, A. H. Birrell, Tom L. Johnson and J. A. Patterson. Incorporation papers are also filed by the Multnomah Electric company, with $3,000 capital stock, by Charles C. Scott, Arthur Langguth, Alfred B. Cratty and Howard W. Scott.

The executive committee of the Woman's auxiliary of the civic improvement board had a short meeting yesterday to complete plans for the district work. Chairmen for some civic districts were appointed. The auxiliary plans to hold a mass meeting at the Marquam after complete organization is effected, and enlist the interest of many who have not taken up the work yet. Special attention will be given to the work that the women can do for civic improvement.

Louis Goldman, a young man in the employ of the Banfield-Veysey Fuel company, was kicked by a vicious horse yesterday while driving it without harness. The animal's hoof struck him squarely in the jaw and, besides cutting a deep gash in his lower lip, loosened several teeth. His breast was also bruised by the force of the blow. The boy was taken to St. Vincent's hospital for treatment.

If you must travel make your trip one of pleasure. You can do this by going over the Denver & Rio Grande. Spend a day sight-seeing in the Mormon capital, and have a day-light ride through the Royal Gorge of the Arkansas, the acme of Nature's grandeur. W. C. McBride, 124 Third street, Portland, will mail you illustrated booklets if you will write him.

The Irwin-Hodson company, which recently bought a lot at the corner of Washington and Eighteenth streets, has sold the property for $12,500, to Mrs. Daisy E. Holman and Mrs. Clare L. Smith. The lot has a frontage of 100 feet on Washington street, and 53 feet on Eighteenth street. It is reported that the new owners will erect a three-story building on it.

There will be a civil service examination here on April 15, for the positions of boilermaker, carpenter and coppersmith in the Panama service; on April 19 for instructor in carriage-making in the Indian service, at $780 a year; on April 26 for the position of chief of division of chemistry in the marine hospital at Washington, at $3,200 a year.

Mrs. Lawson G. Bradley is dead at Grangeville, Idaho, after an illness of three weeks from typhoid fever. Mrs. Bradley was a daughter of Capt. W. H. Roberts, lighthouse inspector at Tacoma, and wife of a former member of the Oregonian staff. The marriage took place on January 1. Mr. and Mrs. Bradley were well known in Portland.

The members of Upchurch Lodge, No. 126, A. O. U. W., celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of their organization last evening at Upchurch hall. An address of welcome was delivered by Past Grand Master Ralph Feeney, and the response was by Newton Clark. Other speeches and recitations and music completed the interesting program.

Wong Ho, a Chinese resident of Astoria, was brought here yesterday and placed in the county jail on a charge of being in the country unlawfully. The arrest was made by the local immigration officials, who are making an attempt to locate all Chinese who are not provided with certificates.

An ordinance providing for the appointment of a meat inspector and three deputies to inspect hotels and restaurants and butcher shops during the Lewis and Clark exposition was introduced at the meeting of the council yesterday and referred to the police and health committee.

Mr. Harris Opens Office.

Mr. R. A. Harris has opened an office in the Marquam building, where he will design, write, revise, correct and superintend the production of all kinds of business literature. Mr. Harris is a man of exceptional qualification for this work, having spent 16 of his 32 years in the various departments of the newspaper and printing business, and for many years past giving special attention to advertising. He realised this to be a work of great promise and that none could be in a better position to know of the innumerable leaks in the production of advertising matter than a practical printer.

Mr. Harris has for the past two years been engaged with one of the largest lithographing and printing houses in the city, where he has held the position of compositor and proof-reader as well as that of writer of advertising matter for the trade. He holds a number of flattering letters covering his work both as a writer and as an originator of good advertising. In addition to this he is active, conscientious and enthusiastic, and it will be his aim to lend his services to such work only as he can conscientiously indorse as having positive merit and deserving of public patronage, as he believes there is plenty of this kind to be had. He is a charter member of the Portland Ad Men's league.

VACANT LOTS ARE NOT PUBLIC DUMPS

If You Catch a Teamster Putting Rubbish on Them, You Earn Five Dollars.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WANTS A CITY CLEANING

Eastern Railroads Reconsidering Rates, and Letter Carriers' Convention May Come.

A reward of $5 will be offered by the chamber of commerce to every person who will report and identify any teamster or garbage collector who deposits rubbish of any sort on a vacant lot within the city limits. The chamber is making a strenuous effort to induce owners of vacant lots to clean up their property; after that it will be the care of the chamber to prevent further disfigurement of the landscape.

"We would like it if everybody would take an interest in this civic improvement work and help us out," said President Wheelwright. "It is everybody's business to assist in presenting a clean, up-to-date city to the view of our visitors this summer, and all should get in and help clean up. There are some property owners who have thus far shown no disposition to clean up their own vacant lots."

The chamber's effort to secure a reduction of rates over eastern roads for the conventions to be held in Portland during the Lewis and Clark fair, and particularly for the letter carriers' convention, is having important results. The demand for a reduction of the rate between Chicago and Atlantic coast points is considered favorably. Through A. L. Craig and J. C. Stubbs, of the Harriman lines, a stand in favor of Portland has been taken by F. C. Donald, commissioner of the Central Passenger association, and influence has been brought to bear on others in that territory by Howard Elliott, president of the Northern Pacific, and Darius Miller, general traffic manager of the Great Northern.

The American institute of mining engineers, the leading organization of mining men on the American continent, has been invited by President Wheelwright, of the chamber, to adjourn to Portland at the close of the convention in Vancouver, B. C., this summer.

WILL CHARTER SHIP TO CARRY FLOUR

Portland & Asiatic Steamship Company Negotiating for Use of Large Craft.

HAS CHOICE OF TWO AT A REASONABLE RATE

Exporters Have Enough Freight on Hand Now to Fill a Big Steamer.

In all probability the Portland & Asiatic Steamship company will charter a steamer this afternoon to carry flour to Japan. Before closing the deal the local officials of the line decided to await the advice of General Manager Scherwin of San Francisco.

The choice of two vessels have been offered the company at a reasonable rate. Either will be available for loading in May. Exporters have almost enough orders on hand to fill a freighter of 5,000 tons, and they are anxious to have the Portland & Asiatic company take care of the business. If it does not do so the shippers will be obliged to charter a vessel themselves, but there is said to be no doubt that the deal pending will be closed.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Department Sends Information of Lines in Juan de Fuca Strait.

Collector of Customs Patterson received notice from the department of commerce and labor this morning that the following lines dividing the high seas from rivers, harbors and inland waters at Juan de Fuca strait and Puget sound will be established on May 1: A line from New Dungeness lighthouse N. ⅝ W. to Cattle Point light, on the southeasterly end of San Juan island (Mount Constitution, on Orcas island, is in range with Cattle Point light on this line); from Bellevue Point, San Juan island N.W. ¼ W., 2 ⅝ miles, to Kellett Bluff, Henry Island (a tangent to the point and the bluff); thence NW. ⅝ N., 6¼ miles, to Turn Point light, on the northwesterly end of Stuart island; thence NE. ¼ E. to the westerly point of Shipjack island; thence N. by E. ⅝ E. to Patos islands light; from the easterly end of Patos island NW. ⅛ W. northerly to the southwesterly point of Point Roberts.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

Schooners Mabel Gale and Eric arrived this morning to load lumber for California ports. The former will be supplied with a cargo at the Inman-Poulsen mill and the latter at the Portland.

Barge Columbia left this morning with 500 tons of coal which will be placed aboard the ship St. Nicholas at Astoria. The vessel will leave shortly after the first of the month for the fishing grounds at Nushagak, Alaska.

Steamer Aberdeen, Captain Kelly, arrived this morning from San Francisco, and reports a rough voyage as far as Cape Mendocino. Fine weather was experienced the balance of the trip. The steamer brought 19 passengers. She will take out lumber.

With 200 tons of flour and 200 tons of general freight the steamer Alliance will sail tonight for Eureka and way ports.

Steamer Cascade cleared for San Francisco yesterday with 550,000 feet of lumber.

Schooner Hugh Hogan sailed from the Bay City this morning to load lumber for a California port. This will be her first visit.

Fred J. Brauer, purser on the steamer Leona, says that within the past few days one and a half feet of snow has fallen in the foothills back of the north fork of the Lewis river. He also states that this is the first time it has snowed in that locality as late as this. For the past few nights there have been heavy frosts in the town of Woodland.

The British ship Pythomene has moved from the Coloma to the Star sand dock, where she will complete discharging. The vessel is still on the disengaged list.

MARINE NOTES.

Astoria, March 30.—Sailed at 10 a. m., schooner John A. Campbell, for Redondo.

Astoria, March 30.—Condition of the bar at 8 a. m., smooth; light north wind; weather cloudy.

BARS IN THE COWLITZ.

Capt. Orin Kellogg, who looks after the affairs of the Kellogg Transportation company, returned yesterday from a business trip to Toledo, the head of navigation on the Cowlitz river. He says a number of bars in that stream should be dredged this season, or it will be impossible to operate boats regularly. To interest government agents in the matter he called on the United States engineers yesterday afternoon. An appropriation has been set aside for the improvement of the Cowlitz and Lewis rivers. The captain states that if steamers are unable to reach the towns down that way Portland will lose trade that will go to Puget sound.

SUCCEEDS CAPTAIN GAMMONS.

Captain Frye, who succeeds Captain Gammons as master of the American ship C. F. Sargeant, arrived from San Francisco this morning. Captain Gammons was badly injured in a street railway wreck a number of weeks ago and resigned from the Sargeant because of his inability to go to sea. The craft has been anchored near the Columbia slough all winter, but came here yesterday for supplies before sailing for Nushagak, Alaska, where she goes every spring at the beginning of the salmon fishing season. Captain Gammons is slowly recovering from his injuries.

COLLIDED WITH RAILROAD TIE.

The steamer Maria, belonging to F. P. Jones of this city, ran into a floating railroad tie on the Lewis river yesterday and had her wheel broken. The steamer Glenola happened along and with borrowed wheel buckets and arms the damage to the Maria was repaired.

AT THE THEATRES.

"A Contented Woman."

The very title of Hoyt's great farce comedy that is amusing people at the Columbia this week is a surprise, and the constant string of clever and ludicrous scenes and situations keeps an audience in a state of merriment. The company, so well known in Portland, is excelling itself, this being the first comedy put on for several months. The last performance Sunday night, and from present outlook this is the last week of the company's career. Matinees Saturday and Sunday.

The Pollards Tonight.

At the Marquam Grand tonight the Pollard Opera company will present for the last time "The Belle of New York." Friday and Saturday nights, "The Geisha" will be the bill, and for the Saturday matinee performance "Pinafore" will be the opera presented.

On next Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights "A Runaway Girl" will be staged for the first time here by the Pollards, and the first time at popular prices. Some exceedingly handsome and picturesque costumes are worn by the participants. Flower girls, gondoliers, brigands, peasants, soldiers and sabot girls, all dressed in appropriate costumes, and a beautifully painted set of scenery serve to make a grand picture.

The Grand Theatre.

James Keane as "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" has become the talk of the town. This is the first time that such an ambitious attempt has been made in vaudeville. Ted E. Box has become a general favorite by the excellence of his comedy work. The grandiscope showing President Roosevelt taking the oath of office is a great feature of the show.

All at the Star.

The marvelous Shenke family of unrivaled acrobats, Senor Ricardo Ruiz, the eminent Spanish concert violinist, Maude Carter, "The Widow," the McCarrens in late songs, Claudius, king of the banjo, Barnes & Washburne, Roscoe Arbuckle in "Good-bye Sis" and the projectoscope make up a bill that has never been equaled in quality.

WANT PERPETUAL INJUNCTION

Suit was transferred yesterday from the state district court to the federal court in the case of J. A. Stillman against the Mount Hood Lumber company. It is sought to secure a perpetual injunction restraining the lumber company from diverting the waters of Beaver creek from their natural channel.

SUB-PORT AT EXPOSITION.

At the request of Collector of Customs Patterson the department of commerce and labor will send John J. Miller, who has been in the customs service at St. Louis, to this port to assume charge of the foreign exhibits at the Lewis and Clark fair grounds, and establish a sub-port on the exposition grounds.
