

WEDDING PREPARING FOR RETURN TO GAIETY

WHEN these meetings are over, or "when lent is over," are the words we hear on all sides when social functions are talked of. And many are growing tired of the resting season and wishing it were at an end that they might come and go as they used to. A large number of dances are scheduled for the week immediately following Easter, and all evidences point toward the continuation of an active season.

The past week has been unusually full of weddings; some were very prominent. Nor has the quiet of the lenten ceremony been observed in all cases. One wonders if the fair brides are trying to bribe fate on the strength of the old saying:

"A lenten bride Shall no woe betide."

The reopening of the Columbia theatre for a short season is heartily approved by all the friends of the theatre, and company, and perhaps appreciation has been slightly enhanced by the touch of forced quiet during an already painfully dull season. Several theatre parties are planned by young people for next week. The coming of Mary Manning later when the season is dragging to an end will be welcome to theatre lovers.

The Kralater concert was enjoyed by those who were there as one of the finest musical events of the entire season, and there were some gowns there worth looking at, if one went for that. But the audience, in point of numbers, did not do credit to musical Portland. Were we afraid that there would not be much fashion out during lent?

Easter entertainments are beginning to look very nice, and those who fancy the making of gifts at this most beautiful of all holiday seasons are planning them. It is also the season of dress, and the shops are full from morning till night with eager purchasers anxious to put aside the more sober apparel of winter. The Old Ladies' home tea, which comes on Easter Monday, is the annual signal of the blossoming out of many beautiful spring costumes.

Harry Jonas, of East Orange, N. J., and His Portland Bride.

of friends from all over the city called. Mr. and Mrs. Fiedner were assisted in receiving by their daughter, Mrs. H. M. Glen and Mrs. Fred G. Haines, and their niece, Miss Anna Fiedner. Beautiful flowers about the room added to the festive appearance, and delicious refreshments were served throughout the evening. In the den off the billiard room the men enjoyed their cigars.

day afternoon by Mrs. C. S. Wright, 621 Lovejoy street. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in sewing and delicious refreshments were passed late in the day. Mrs. Vosen and Mrs. Combs assisted the hostess.

Miss Emily Holbrook entertained very informally a few of her girl friends at 500 last Wednesday afternoon. There were four tables and Miss Henryette Lauer won the prize. A very dainty menu was served at the tables after cards.

shame-silk and old point lace; Mrs. E. H. Lauer, yellow lace over taffeta; Mrs. S. L. Blunsauer, the groom's sister, a black silk costume. There were a number of out of town guests in attendance and many congratulatory telegrams were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Kahn have gone north on their wedding tour and will be at home after May 1, at Hotel Idanha in Boise, Ida.

A beautiful spring wedding was that of Miss Florence Koshland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bernhelm, and Ludwig Hirsch, in the reception parlor of Hotel Portland, Wednesday evening, Dr. Stephen S. Wise officiated.

The decorations were exquisite, all in green and white, with fragrant fruit blossoms, white lilacs and magnolias flaring among the interlacings of ferns and Oregon grape. The bridal couple stood under a dainty bower at one end of the room and were there united.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Ben Goldman of San Francisco. Leon Hirsch, the groom's brother, was best man. The bride was gowned in white chiffon cloth trimmed with duchesse point lace and applique. Her veil was secured with a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried a shower of lilies of the valley. Mrs. Goldman also wore white chiffon cloth and carried white roses.

Dinner was served in the grill room. The bride's table was decked all in white and the surrounding tables in pink roses. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Bernhelm, Mrs. Phillip Jacoby of San Francisco, a sister of the bride, and Madame Koshland, her brother. Mrs. Bernhelm Mrs. Hirsch, chiffon trimmed with silk applique and Mrs. Jacoby wore white messaline silk.

Mr. and Mrs. Hirsch have gone north on their wedding trip and will live at the Portland after their return.

Miss Cecelia Sherlock and Joseph Woerdle of Francis, Wash., were married at St. Patrick's cathedral Tuesday morning; only a few friends witnessed the ceremony. Rev. Father E. P. Murphy officiated.

The bride's sister, Miss Annie Sherlock, presided at the organ and played the wedding march. Mrs. Luke Wells acted as bridesmaid. The bride wore a blue crepe de chine and carried bride roses and her attendant wore pink crepe de chine and carried pink carnations.

In the evening a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sherlock, 2100 Commercial street. The rooms were elaborately decorated with Oregon grape, palms, ferns and smilax with bouquets of carnations and roses in pink and white. The bride wore a blue crepe de chine and carried bride roses and her attendant wore pink crepe de chine and carried pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn gave a small chafing-dish supper at their rooms at the Guillemain, Friday evening. The guests were Mrs. J. H. Sherlock and Mrs. Fred Bitter and C. W. Allen of the Chapman corps were the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Simon celebrated their thirtieth wedding anniversary last week by entertaining a few friends informally in their apartments at the Portland.

Mrs. Julius L. Mester of 124 Tenth street entertained the Whist club Friday. Mrs. Isaac White and Mrs. S. Lipman were prize winners. A dainty menu was served after cards at the tables.

Edgar Frank celebrated his twenty-first birthday last week and received a few of his friends informally at the Portland.

Prof. and Mrs. W. M. Wilder entertained at dinner Friday night in honor of C. F. Allen, director of the Chapman chorus.

WEDDINGS.

One of the prettiest weddings of the year was celebrated at Parsons' hall last Monday evening, when Miss Barbara Lauer and Charles Kahn, city artist, were united in holy matrimony. Both are prominently identified with Jewish society circles. Mr. Kahn formerly lived in Portland. Dr. Stephen S. Wise pronounced the ceremony.

The dance here was a beautiful appearance, decked as it was with palms and ferns. From the doorway to the center of the room was an aisle formed of palms and white satin ribbon. A table of honor, with the canopy of the hall of banked palms. A large splash bow of pink tulle mingled with the green overhead and white tulle doves nestled there. A Parsons' orchestra played the Lohengrin bridal hymn as the wedding party entered, preceded by the ushers, Joseph Spiegel of Boise and Isadore Koshland. The bridesmaids followed, Misses Therese and Rosalie Friendly of Eugene, carrying bouquets of pink and white flowers. Dolly Varden brooch, one of blue and the other of pink flowered silk organdie. Both carried showers of pink bridesmaid roses and blue forget-me-nots. The maid of honor, who followed, was Miss Henryette Lauer, the bride's sister, who wore pink liberty satin over taffeta, trimmed with lace. Her shower was of pink baby roses and lilies of the valley. All three maidens wore in their hair wreaths of the baby roses. The two little flower girls, who came next, were nieces of the bride and groom, little Amy Lauer and Della Kahn of Los Angeles. The two dark-haired tots made a pretty picture in white baby dresses with quaint baskets of pink and white blossoms suspended about their necks with pink ribbons. The bride wore a white messaline silk over taffeta and heavily trimmed with handsome duchesse lace. The veil, which was used at her sister's wedding several years ago, was outlined with the lace from her mother's wedding gown. Her shower bouquet of real orange blossoms was suspended from the white satin markers of her white leather sash. She was met at the altar by the groom, who was attended by his brother, Milton E. Kahn.

After the ceremony Parsons' orchestra played the opening song. Congratulations and good wishes followed and continued through a season of dancing. Mrs. E. H. Lauer and Mrs. Sol Baum, the bride's sister, assisted in receiving the guests. When the honoree was thrown Miss Clementina Hirsch caught it.

The wedding supper was served downstairs, where the table was laid in the form of a horseshoe. Similar and pink aseles were arranged about the table and over it were festooned garlands of pink hearts. The place cards also were pink hearts. Candelabra were shaded with pink and pink candles were used. E. H. Lauer presided as toastmaster. The bride cut her cake immediately afterward and Miss Holub drew the thimble. Miss Therese Friendly the ring and Miss Henryette Lauer the dime. There were some 75 guests at the wedding and many very handsome gowns and jewels were in evidence. Mrs. Charles Lauer, the bride's mother, wore black silk gown with jet trimmings. Mrs. A. Kahn, the groom's mother, jetted silk net; Mrs. Sol Baum, with the club colors, yellow and white, with lilies and jonquils in vases about the room. After the program dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. Fred L. Olson, Who Will Sing at This Morning's Services at the Methodist Episcopal Church at Vancouver, is a Resident of Portland and Has Won a Reputation in Musical Circles.

The program was opened with a Strauss serenade in duet, played by Mrs. Pruitt and Mrs. M. L. Pratt. Mrs. Young prepared the audience with a paper on the life and work of Strauss, speaking of their distinguishing features. Mrs. E. E. Coover, who recently returned from study in Germany, where she saw and heard Strauss, told of the occasion, and showed a portrait of him. Mrs. L. Marshall played one of his compositions and Mrs. Amelie Smith sang his "Dream in the Twilight," followed by two selections from other composers, which were enthusiastically received. A trio by Bendis for mandolin, mandola and piano was given by Miss Cook, Miss Clark and Mrs. Young. Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. Young gave another of Strauss' duos, another trio followed and Mrs. Coover sang most pleasingly English songs.

At the last rehearsal of the Tuesday Evening Music club, at Mrs. Walter Reed's residence, the following numbers were given: "It Was Not So to Be" (Nealier), John E. Cronan; "All For You" (D'Hardelvt), Miss Mary Conyers; "The Sweetest Flower That Grows" (Hawley), Miss Esther Leonard; (a) "One More Clasp" (Lambert), (b) "An Old World Serenade" (Helmsrud), Gustav Cramer; "Calm as the Night" (Bohm), Miss Rena Anderson; "Only in Dreams" (DeKoven), Henry G. Lettow. A number of choruses were given by the club, among them "The Miller's Wood" (Panning), "Lost Chord" (Sullivan Brewer), and "The Peasant's Wedding March" (Soederstrom).

Miss Ann Week sang before the People's forum last week and delighted all with her sweet contralto voice. Her songs were "Obstination" (Fontenailles) and as an encore, "On the Shore" (Neldinger). Miss Helen Davis accompanied her in the cathedral choir as heretofore. Both are Portland academy girls. Miss Week sang again at the Jewish council Wednesday afternoon. She is a pupil of Mrs. Rose Bloch-Bauer.

A short program was given by the members of the Tuesday afternoon Music club at its last meeting, at Mrs. Walter Reed's studio. "An Old World Serenade" (Helmsrud) was sung by Miss Lillian Parrell; "A Little Thing" (Stern), Miss Rosie Forbes; "Daffodils" (Eversole), Miss Mame Fryer; "When the Roses Bloom" (Reichardt), Miss Ethel Powers.

Miss Ethel Abrams made a decided hit with her songs at the children's festival at Parsons' hall last Saturday evening. Mrs. Rose Bloch-Bauer, her teacher, accompanied her. Miss Abrams is the child soprano who is creating much comment now because of the marvelous range and strength of her voice.

"A Simple Ave," composed by Rev. Father Mount Angel and dedicated to Mrs. Walter Reed, is being rehearsed by the Treble Clef club. It is written for contralto solo and three part chorus for women's voices. All those who have heard it pronounce it a gem.

J. A. Hickey, a pupil of Mrs. Rose Bloch-Bauer, who has an excellent bass voice, has been appointed to fill the place in the cathedral choir as heretofore, vacated by Nicholas Zan, who has gone to New York for further study.

Mordant A. Goodenough, formerly of the Western Academy of Music, has severed his connection with that school and opened a piano study.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The Astoria club was entertained by Mrs. W. G. Howell of Mt. Tabor, on Friday afternoon. The rooms were beautifully decorated with Oregon grape and potted plants.

This club is composed of women whose former home was Astoria and they meet every Friday afternoon to play five hundred. Last Friday the club prize was won by Mrs. Sutherland and the guest's prize by Mrs. C. G. Tipton. The hostess served refreshments. The guests were Mrs. J. H. Nelson, Mrs. F. P. Kendall, Mrs. J. D. Sutherland, Mrs. A. W. MacLennan, Mrs. F. W. Newell, Mrs. E. A. Noyes, Mrs. J. C. Fox, Mrs. G. Wingate, Mrs. J. O. Bauson, Mrs. J. C. Lighter, Mrs. W. G. Howell. The guests were Mrs. C. W. Fulton, Mrs. G. C. Fulton, Mrs. F. W. Fulton, Mrs. J. H. Cook, Mrs. McLehenn and Mrs. C. G. Tipton.

The New England supper given by the George Wright Relief corps Friday evening was a decided success, socially and financially. Four long tables were filled several times between 8 and 9 o'clock. A short program was given, and most of the performers responded to encores. Whist and dancing finished the evening. The receipts are to be added to the Roseburg cottage fund, for which the entertainment was given. The corps sewing circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Choate, 774 Roosevelt avenue, next Thursday.

Tuesday evening, and Mrs. Charles L. Bode entertained the East and West Side Lewis and Clark Whist club at their home, 374 Multnomah street. The rooms were prettily arranged with palms and ferns and there were a few cut flowers. Prizes were awarded Mrs. W. H. Lee and Mr. Draper. In serving a delicious table luncheon the hostess was assisted by Miss Isabelle Wood and Mrs. Harry Wade. In three weeks the club will meet with Mrs. A. B. Gibbs, 449 Market street.

ENGAGEMENTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Harding Eschman of this city announce the engagement of their daughter, Beula Leota, to Frederick W. Wright. The wedding will take place Thursday, April 29, in Ashland, Or.

The wedding of Miss Lillian Gallagher to William E. Empey of Los Angeles, Cal., will take place next Wednesday.

DANCES.

The New Century club gave its farewell party this season last Wednesday at Parsons' hall. It was given by the club in addition to the regular series and its success warranted the action. Almost all of the members were present and the gowns worn by the women were very beautiful. The music was exceptionally good. Two kinds of punch were

COMING EVENTS.

The Home Training association will hold a mothers' meeting at the Holiday school at 2:30 o'clock Friday. If found practicable a circle will be organized in this district. All mothers and teachers are cordially invited to attend. The program will be as follows: "Aims and Purposes of the Home Training Association," Mrs. Robert H. Tate; address, Governor George E. Chamberlain; solo, Misses M. E. Smith; "How often and at what time should mothers visit the school?" Discussion to be opened by Mrs. William Reid. Closing remarks, Mrs. Samuel Connell, acting president.

The regular Thursday afternoon meet-

MUSICAL NOTES.

The members of the Progress club spent a delightful afternoon last Monday with Mrs. A. Kahn, at the home of Mrs. F. P. Young. The home was pres-

WEDDINGS.

One of the prettiest weddings of the year was celebrated at Parsons' hall last Monday evening, when Miss Barbara Lauer and Charles Kahn, city artist, were united in holy matrimony. Both are prominently identified with Jewish society circles. Mr. Kahn formerly lived in Portland. Dr. Stephen S. Wise pronounced the ceremony.

The dance here was a beautiful appearance, decked as it was with palms and ferns. From the doorway to the center of the room was an aisle formed of palms and white satin ribbon. A table of honor, with the canopy of the hall of banked palms. A large splash bow of pink tulle mingled with the green overhead and white tulle doves nestled there. A Parsons' orchestra played the Lohengrin bridal hymn as the wedding party entered, preceded by the ushers, Joseph Spiegel of Boise and Isadore Koshland. The bridesmaids followed, Misses Therese and Rosalie Friendly of Eugene, carrying bouquets of pink and white flowers. Dolly Varden brooch, one of blue and the other of pink flowered silk organdie. Both carried showers of pink bridesmaid roses and blue forget-me-nots. The maid of honor, who followed, was Miss Henryette Lauer, the bride's sister, who wore pink liberty satin over taffeta, trimmed with lace. Her shower was of pink baby roses and lilies of the valley. All three maidens wore in their hair wreaths of the baby roses. The two little flower girls, who came next, were nieces of the bride and groom, little Amy Lauer and Della Kahn of Los Angeles. The two dark-haired tots made a pretty picture in white baby dresses with quaint baskets of pink and white blossoms suspended about their necks with pink ribbons. The bride wore a white messaline silk over taffeta and heavily trimmed with handsome duchesse lace. The veil, which was used at her sister's wedding several years ago, was outlined with the lace from her mother's wedding gown. Her shower bouquet of real orange blossoms was suspended from the white satin markers of her white leather sash. She was met at the altar by the groom, who was attended by his brother, Milton E. Kahn.

COMING EVENTS.

The Home Training association will hold a mothers' meeting at the Holiday school at 2:30 o'clock Friday. If found practicable a circle will be organized in this district. All mothers and teachers are cordially invited to attend. The program will be as follows: "Aims and Purposes of the Home Training Association," Mrs. Robert H. Tate; address, Governor George E. Chamberlain; solo, Misses M. E. Smith; "How often and at what time should mothers visit the school?" Discussion to be opened by Mrs. William Reid. Closing remarks, Mrs. Samuel Connell, acting president.

The regular Thursday afternoon meet-

MUSICAL NOTES.

The members of the Progress club spent a delightful afternoon last Monday with Mrs. A. Kahn, at the home of Mrs. F. P. Young. The home was pres-

The Shirtwaist of Perfection

Forsythe Waist

Spring 1905 Styles

Shown Only by

Robinson & Company

289 Washington Street

1905 Model.

THE

New Oriental Rug Store

410 Morrison St., Between Tenth and Eleventh

Special Opening Sale

A great opportunity presents itself to every Portland lady who is ambitious to get the best to make her home attractive and up to date. Our selections consist of some of the RAREST AND CHOICEST PERSIAN AND TURKISH RUGS. A visit of inspection at our store will repay you. We have on exhibition many Antique KAZAK and MUSUL Rugs, Choice Royal KIRMANSHAH, TARRIS, ROVOOK, Antique SINA and KABISTAN, as well as large-size Carpets with mats for selections. Visitors are very welcome at our store. Our Mr. Jacob Michaelian, a thorough English scholar, will be pleased to show our large and varied stock of goods. Our prices are reduced to the very lowest possible figure.

We Invite a Very Critical Investigation