

Small Change. Spring feeling, eh? Work it off. Put flowers in the place of weeds. The dove of peace has disappeared again.

The Making of a Husband. Can a woman make over a cold, clammy, indifferent and often discourteous husband into one that is tender, kind and considerate?

Intuition. If girls followed all the advice given them in regard to their treatment of men, they would spend more of their time spinning around like teardrops.

A TRI-STATE PROBLEM THAT IS BEING SOLVED.

EVERY MAN living in Oregon, northern Idaho and eastern Washington is deeply interested in the growth and development of the country. Every one at last realizes that the outcome sought can be reached in only one way and that is through the utilization of the great water way that drains the Columbia valley.

IRRIGATION IN KLAMATH VALLEY.

APPARENTLY IT HAS been unfortunate—though perhaps only apparently—for the Klamath valley that there has been a prolonged conflict there between two large irrigation projects, one that of a private company that has expended much money and the other that of the government acting through its reclamation engineers.

THE CULMINATING NAVAL CONTEST.

JUST A MERE TRAGEDY of the sea or a naval engagement? is the world's eager question of the impending conflict of fleets off the oriental coast.

Letters From the People.

Portland, Or., April 10.—To the Editor of the Journal—Reverals being now in the air it is proper to say a word about them. Religious revivals bring the claims of spiritual interests before the people in a forcible manner.

The Play.

The new Columbia stock company was introduced by Manager Ballard yesterday in the old English melodrama, "Woman Against Woman."

MAYOR DUNNE'S HEAVY TASK.

CHICAGO IS NOT going to achieve municipal ownership of street railways right away nor perhaps very soon. Various difficult problems will have to be solved before the end aimed at in the recent election there can be attained.

Oregon Sidelights.

Lake county is out of debt and will have improvement money in the treasury. The fine blooded sheep of Umatilla county are in demand in all Pacific coast states.

Lewis and Clark.

April 10.—We again set off early, with clear, bright weather, and halted about 10 for breakfast above a sandbank which was falling in and near a small willow island.
