MAYOR KING WILL SEEK TO KEEP DOWN THE TAXES

Bonds Will Be Issued for a City Hall and Fire Apparatus.

The following city officials were given the oath of office at St. Johns last night and installed: Mayor, W. H. King; recorder, J. W. Hanks; treasurer, F. W. Valentine; councilmen—C. S. Thompson, C. D. Edwards, C. A. Lindquist, H. W. Brice, J. H. Shield, B. T. Leggett and P. J. Peterson.

Retiring Mayor C. A. Cook presented Mr. King with a gavel of maple cut from a tree which grew on the Cook place.

One of the first problems the council discovered it had to solve was the approval of the bonds of the new officers, and an adjournment was taken until this evening, when the bonds will be verified and the work of the new administration begun.

The installation was the culmination of a spectacular political fight among three candidates. Even after the election of Mr. King and a majority of the Good Government ticket the town was stirred by the report that the canvassing committee had attempted to open ballot-boxes and throw out certain votes. The result was, however, the installation of all the candidates first an-

DOWIEITE COLONY TO SETTLE IN EVERETT

Becoming Disgusted With Life at Zion City, Many of the Faithful Will Come West.

(Journal Special Service.) Chicago, April 11.—One hundred and twenty former Dowieites, disgusted with life at Zion City, will form a colony near Everett, Wash. While not renouncing their religious beliefs, they have thrown Dowie overboard. Walter Campbell and Fred Wilson, former Dowieites who visited Washington some time ago and selected a site.

The Dowieites have made their plans quietly, collecting funds secretly. Financial difficulties at Zion seemed to press them with forebodings of disaster.

It is said that options have been secured for several tracts of land besides that at Everett. Contracts have been made on property in Okanogan county and Whidbey Island. A large quantity of household goods and supplies have been shipped west.

It is believed that many others will join the movement, news of which has caused much excitement in Zion.

Presiding Mayor C. A. Cook presented Mr. King with a gavel of maple cut from a tree which grew on the Cook place.

One of the first problems the council discovered it had to solve was the approval of the bonds of the new officers, and an adjournment was taken until this evening, when the bonds will be verified and the work of the new administration begun.

HONEST GAMBLER FINALLY CASHES IN

Tom Williams, Representative of the Old School of Gaming Men, Is Dead.

KNOWN WHEREVER A CHIP RATTLED IN NORTHWEST

Had Respect of All, and Money and Time Were Always at Friends' Command.

When Tom Williams died yesterday there passed away an interesting representative of the old school of gamblers in the west. Along the coast and throughout the northwest he bore a reputation for honesty and uprightness that was untainted during an active career of 30 years.

In every city and hamlet in the northwest where a faro bank has run and chance has ruled, Williams was known and respected. His friends were numbered not only among the fortune-tellers, but among business men as well, and in circles outside his own he bore the name of "Honest Tom."

Williams was a sailor by trade, a faro dealer by occupation, and a gambler by nature. From a long line of ancestry he said to have inherited a spirit of reckless adventure that the roving of the

OVERTAXED

Hundreds of Portland Readers Know What It Means.

The kidneys are overtaxed; Have too much to do. They tell about it in many aches and pains.

Backache, sideache, headache. Early symptoms of kidney ills. Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease follow.

A Portland citizen tells here a certain story. John J. Keating, painter, of 3014 First street, says: "I had dull, aching pains in my back for a number of years. They were often so severe that I had to quit work for two or three days at a time. The kidney secretions were irregular and scalding and I suffered also from headache and dizziness. My back was always lame and sore in the morning. Physicians failed to help me and no medicine did me any good until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They relieved the urinary difficulty and the heavy aching in the back disappeared."

For sale by all dealers. Price 30 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no other.
