COLLEGE GIRLS WILL SERVE IN THIS HOTEL

The Young Women's Christian association of Portland is making preparations for the comfort of many visitors to the Lewis and Clark exposition this summer. The building in process of erection immediately northeast of the Liberal Arts will be furnish all the conveniences of a home for women. A large dining-room, rest rooms, lavatories and bath, hospital room, children's nursery, information bureau and check room will be included in the conveniences offered. The idea is to make the building as homelike as possible, that it may emphasize that for which the association pre-eminently stands—home comforts for women. All the assistants in the building will be college girls taken from the associations of Oregon colleges. The waitresses, maids in attendance and clerks will all be educated and cultured girls who will be pleasant to meet. It is the hope of the association to give some entertainment in the building every week, of musical, literary or social interest, to promote the social feeling among the visitors. Letters of inquiry are received every day from all over the states about the fair and what accommodations will be offered by the association.

OPENING PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR FAIR

Exercises That Will Inform the World June First Exposition Doors Are Ajar.

JAMES A. TAWNEY WILL REPRESENT CONGRESS

It Is Expected That Fifty Thousand People Will Witness Ceremonies.

The program for the opening services of the Lewis and Clark exposition at noon on June 1 is practically completed.

Innes' band will supply music—national airs.

Bishop David H. Moore of the Methodist Episcopal church will deliver the invocation.

Governor George E. Chamberlain will deliver an address of welcome on behalf of Oregon.

Mayor George H. Williams will make the address of welcome for the city of Portland.

President Goode will speak on behalf of the Lewis and Clark exposition.

Congressman James A. Tawney, chairman of the house of representatives' delegation, will respond on behalf of congress.

Archbishop A. Christie of the Roman Catholic church will pronounce the benediction.

It is yet to be decided who, if any one, will speak for the United States senate. It may be that Congressman Tawney's speech will embrace both houses of the national legislature.

It is expected that fully 50,000 people will attend the opening. This at once precludes the possibility of the ceremonies taking place in the Auditorium. A platform will be located between the sunken gardens and the band stand.

Colin H. McIsaac of the excursion bureau of the Lewis and Clark fair, estimates that there will be a total of 2,132,550 admissions to the fair. He has prepared a tabulated statement, showing the number who will likely visit the fair from the northwest, from the east, and from Portland and suburbs.

He estimates the population within 100 miles of Portland to be 400,000 and within 1,000 miles of the city to be 5,000,000. In preparing the estimate he has calculated that each person who comes to Portland will pay three admissions to the fair. In that way he has made the following estimates of the attendance from the western states:

| | |
|---|---|
| Oregon | 480,000 |
| Washington | 487,500 |
| Idaho | 60,000 |
| Montana | 41,250 |
| California | 105,000 |
| Utah | 18,000 |
| Wyoming | 6,000 |
| Nevada | 1,500 |
| British Columbia | 9,000 |

Eastern travel, estimated on a basis of 300 arrivals a day for 137 days, will bring 41,100 persons who will make 123,300 visits to the fair. Portland and suburbs, estimated on a basis of 150,000 population, each resident visiting the fair three times, will make a total of 450,000 admissions.

The daily excursions into Portland will increase the number of visitors at the rate of 1,000 a day, Sundays excluded, which for 117 days, will make 351,000 admissions. He estimates that there will be an average daily attendance of 13,000.

MICHIGAN SOCIETY TO HAVE A MAY QUEEN

The Michigan society of Oregon has added nearly 40 people to its membership in the past month. Meetings are held on the first and third Tuesday evenings of each month. Much interest is shown in the May party on the evening of May 2, at which time a queen will be crowned to preside over the festivities. Voting for the most popular lady of the society is now in progress and ballot boxes are at Dresser's store, Seventh and Washington streets; Arthur Langguth's office, 606 McKay building; Conry's Tea store, 124 Fourth street; Lewis' store, 780 Washington street, and at the Michigan Tea store, on Grand avenue. The Michigan society is enthusiastic in its support of the general headquarters of the state societies in the chamber of commerce and is sending information in reference to the work of the society and the purpose of the general headquarters to at least one newspaper in every county in Michigan.

UNITED IRISH LEAGUE IS VERY GRATEFUL

J. Hennessy Murphy, president of the Portland branch of the United Irish league, has received acknowledgment from the national treasurer of the league, T. B. Fitzpatrick, of the receipt of $200, the contribution of Portland's branch to the United Irish league fund.

"The manner of securing this fund is unique in attractiveness and its object appeals keenly to the sentiment of the Celt," said Dr. W. F. Gallagher. "It was raised by votes for a black thorn stick cut on the soil of old Erin, by her filial children more than 5,000 miles farther away from her than she is from the center of gravity and is to be applied to the amelioration of her unhappy children at home.

"The sum of $450 has been sent from Portland in the past six months in aid of the Irish Parliamentary fund.

"Committees have been appointed by the league to entertain visiting Irishmen and societies during the Lewis and Clark exposition.

"The United Irish league is spurred to activity by the belief that, quoting the immortal O'Connell, 'the politic shifts and amiable persuasion' of Premier Balfour will not long prevail. His untenable position must directly force him before the bar of the electorate. In the opinion of prominent Irishmen everywhere it matters little which party is successful, the probable closeness of the result and the inevitable changes in the personnel of the house must accrue to the benefit of Ireland's cause."
