COUNCIL IS HER TO APPOINT HER INSPECTOR

May Begin Work at Once if Ordinance is Passed for April Salary.

Miss Lilian E. Tingle, demonstrator in the school of domestic science, will be appointed market inspector this afternoon by the city board of health...

Miss Tingle will be a deputy to the city health officer at $55 a month. Her appointment will go into effect May 1, because no provision has been made for her salary this month.

There is no reason why the appointment should not take effect immediately, said Councilman Flegal.

James Farley, Hood River Merchant, Comes Here and is Lost to View.

CIRCUMSTANCES POINT TO DEATH BY FOUL MEANS

Was Happily Married, Well to Do and Showed Plenty of Money Here.

James Farley of Hood River has been missing since April 17 under circumstances which have caused his partner, J. B. Fletcher, to report his disappearance to the police.

Mr. Fletcher came to Portland yesterday to make an investigation, at the earnest solicitation of Farley's wife. After ascertaining that he had not been seen since the evening of April 17, he went to police headquarters and asked assistance in an endeavor to find him, if alive, and to recover his body, if the worst develops.

Mr. Farley is aged 31 years; 5 feet 8 inches in height and weighs about 170 pounds. His complexion is described as "medium," and he wore a heavy mustache. When last seen he wore black clothes and hat.

Mr. Brougher spoke at night on the subject, "If I Were Elected Mayor." At the close of the address, he made an appeal to those present, and about 100 arose for prayers.
