Most Radical Reductions Ever Known to April Selling in the Dress Goods and Silk Stores

FIRST FLOOR—SOUTH ANNEX. "Put these items in big type," said the chief of the Dress Goods Salons; "they're the biggest values ever offered, either by us or any other Western house—they can't be touched in price by any house in America today. I know, for I know we own them less than they cost the mill man, and I've lopped off profits." He ought to know—he bought the goods during his recent New York trip. Portland women will know when they see them.
