Bijou Millinery Salons

A Monster Sale of Handsome Hats

at $5.00

Looking backward a few months to a certain "MANAGER'S SALE" when $100 in gold was offered to the department showing greatest increase of business over a corresponding period of a year previous, we remember that the first prize of $50 was won by and awarded to Mr. Frank M. Hamburger, the able and popular young millinery section manager. Mr. Hamburger has served notice on us that he has decided to capture the first prize also—of $50—in the present competitive contest, this time, however, for the salesladies under his direction. Mr. Hamburger has never made a statement—to the best of our belief—in his life that he hasn't backed up. That's why this one looks exceedingly dangerous to competing departments. The resolute way he goes at it decides us to give no odds against him. Values like this of tomorrow should jam the department of millinery beauty to repletion with eager, enthusiastic buyers. WHAT WOMAN WON'T BUY A $10 HAT FOR $5? especially when she may select from the newest of the new and the smartest of the most beautiful creations ever offered in the city of values comprising the $4.00, $7.50, $8.00 and $10.00 hats? Few, we think. That's why we advise millinery for first selection. About 200 Hats—that's all—Choice Wednesday only. $5.00

The Community Has Been Quick to Recognize the Importance of the "Home Folk's Pre-Exposition Sales" As a Money-Saving Proposition

If Portland people do not bring their needs in personal attire and household wants to us this month it is because they are indifferent to the value of time, money and satisfaction. That's a sermon in itself—think it over. And, moreover, one cannot afford to purchase, at any price, merchandise of poor or doubtful quality while the best that's made—the Olds, Wortman & King kind—is offered at such generous reductions. Tomorrow is the third day of the greatest, most interesting sale of new and DEPENDABLE goods, that bear the hall-mark of AUTHORITATIVE STYLE, it has ever been the privilege of this store to give or Portland folk to enjoy. We have made tremendous efforts to make it so. Our success is attested by the unprecedented interest manifested the past two days in this wonderful, unparalleled sale. Here is a gigantic stock of seasonable merchandise at the mercy of your cash—profits lopped off and costs cut into. By watching each day's sales one may fill a summer's wants, have a summer's buying over before exposition days begin, and possess their aggregate purchase—bought piece-meal, as it were—at a figure as low or lower than that paid by this store "laid down" here in immense quantities. Now, if ever, it pays to watch the Olds, Wortman & King daily announcements thro' the public press "as a cat watches a mouse" and to plan a daily trip to the store. If you'll come tomorrow you'll find the richest list of bargains yet—among the WEDNESDAY "SPECIALS."

Home Folk's Pre-Exposition Sale in Portland's Foremost and Largest Suit and Wrap Store $26.95

Women's New and Handsome $38.50 Smartly Tailored Street Suits for $26.95. This is one of the most remarkable sales of superb-fashionable Street Suits ever conducted by a Portland house. The suits are made up in master workmanship by expert men tailors; the product of a leading, well known New York house of national repute as style leaders and authoritative dictators of correct fashions for women. They are not of a class to be compared with the plentiful supply of east side, New York, sweat shop garments as exploited by some go-as-you-please stores of local repute. The suits comprising this offering are in very newest blouse and jacket-effects and Bolero styles. Serges, Panamas and smart mannish mixtures including a color range that embraces plain blues, browns, blacks and fancy mixed materials. The most swaggar lot of suits ever offered at a regular price of $40 by any Portland house—our usual $38.50 values. Special for Wednesday only at a choice for $26.95.

Stylish $12.50 and $13.50 Walking Skirts Wednesday Only $7.98

Smartly tailored garments, cut in very latest round length effects, blue, black and fancy mixed granite cloths, chevots and fancy serges. In narrow and wide plaited and accordion plaited styles and severely tailored effects. Some are handsomely trimmed in taffeta to match materials. Buying and selling—as we do—more skirts in a year than any other two Portland houses combined is an evidence in itself of the superiority of our styles and materials as well as low prices. Tomorrow's offering is the best we have ever yet been able to make. $12.50 and $13.50 values—for the day only at $7.98.
