CRIME DISCOVERED BY INDIANS OF NORTHWEST Charred Bones Found in Ashes of Huge Bon Fire—Shoes Sunk in Swamp.

Regina, Assiniboia, May 5.—The execution of Charles King, set for today, culminates one of the most notable criminal cases with which the mounted police of this section of the dominion have ever had to deal.

At length Kewanah, a Stony fisherman, met "the small dark man" leading the horses along, all packed and ready for the trail.

Call at 548 Alder street any day during the week and purchase tickets in advance of next Sunday's excursion to Seaside and avoid the rush for tickets at Union depot Sunday morning.

tinguished, had been an absurdly large one. It had been so hot and fierce that it had scorched the branches of the adjacent willows.

But a grandson of old Mousroes, the head of the tribe, had been there earlier while the fire was still smoldering, and he observed some cloth, quite consumed, but still showing its texture.

Anderson realized at once that there was evidence of a crime, and determined to make every effort to solve the mystery. In the meantime the Indians found what appeared to be pieces of half-burned tissue among the ashes.

A pocketbook which was found on the prisoner contained checks, letters and other documents, indicating that it belonged to Edward Hayward of North Murrehem, Sussex, England.

AT THE THEATRES. "Parfait" Tonight. J. Alex Hanna will present Richard Wagner's great opera "Parfait" tonight at the Grand Theatre.

The Grand's Novelties. Van Fossen and McCarty, black-face comedians from French extravaganzas, are the principal attractions on the stage of the Grand this week.

The House of Hits. "The Star is known as the 'House of Hits' because all of its acts are successful and popular with the thousands of vaudeville patrons in Portland.

"Our Boys" Next Week. Beginning Sunday afternoon the Empire Stock company will present the well-known comedy of English life, "Our Boys."

At the Baker. The all-star bill continues to pack the house at every performance as it is hard to determine which act is the feature since each is about the best of the sort ever seen here.

At the Lyric. The sensational, foot-race melodrama, "My Partner," continues to draw capacity houses at
