

DR. LANE IS CHOSEN

(Continued from Page One.) Looking blankly at Howell, the freeholder faltered. "Why, no, I don't know his name."

Auditor T. C. Devlin, Republican—McAlpin Photographer.

in, and the police officer at each of the 58 precincts was literally a glittering superfluity. An interesting feature of the day was the report that gained currency in the first, second and third wards, that the Rowe and Glafke men had framed an agreement for the virtual withdrawal of Rowe and the throwing of his strength to Glafke.

Mr. Glafke, when asked concerning the report in the middle of the afternoon, said that he had made no compact with any other candidate. He said that Friday night a messenger came to him from the Rowe camp with a suggestion that he join forces with Rowe.

"I repudiated the offer," said Mr. Glafke, "and informed the emissary that I would go to the last ditch with my own following, and that I would not make any promise to secure the withdrawal of any other candidate."

City Attorney L. A. McNary, Republican.

Independent. If Albee is nominated, I will not be an independent candidate. I think Williams should be defeated for the mayoralty, and I shall do all I can to see that he does not sit again in the mayor's chair."

Another surprising announcement was made on alleged authority of House Zimmerman, president of the council, that he would be an independent candidate for mayor even though Mayor Williams were nominated.

The weakness of the Matthews machine was made apparent by a significant fact that was disclosed early in the afternoon, when the Young Men's Republican club distributed its list of candidates upon whom it had conferred its effort—Williams for mayor, Beveridge for treasurer, McNary for city attorney, and Shanley, Gray, Kellaber, Quimby and Ankray for councilmen-at-large.

Would Save What They Could. No other names were on the list, and the action was interpreted as indicating

Has Lost Mother. "Consumption runs in our family, and through it I lost my mother," writes E. H. Reid, of Harmony, Me. "For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a cough or cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved me from serious illness. His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble need not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quick relief and cure for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed at Red Cross Pharmacy, Sixth and Oak streets, on the way to the postoffice. Trial bottles free.

that the club, known to be working under inside advice from the machine, was convinced that it could not carry a complete ticket. Apparently the machine had determined to save what it could from the wreck left since June, 1904, when the election of Tom Wood as chief clerk and John Manning as district attorney on the Democratic ticket, and C. W. Nottingham as senator on the Republican ticket, gave the Matthews organ-

founder for the benefit of the people. If I cannot have the office, for these terms, I do not want it, for a worthless thing and can do neither credit to the city nor honor to himself.

"If I am elected, I will give to the people the best that is within me at all times—do my full duty—I will appreciate the honor which has been bestowed upon me, and will repay it with faithful service. In what I have said there is no idle word, and if any man brings himself or is led to believe that I am not sincere, that while I do not intend to be entirely assuaged in the event of my election.

"I am not better than my neighbor; there will be no airs or false pretenses on my part, and that while I do not intend to be held personally responsible for

WITH MAJORITY OF CANDIDATES. "I seem to be with the majority of the majority candidates," said George H. Thomas, Democratic candidate for the nomination for chief officer of executive, "and I have no protest to register. The people decide these matters, and have the right to do so. My opinion is that Dr. Lane received the open-town Democratic vote solidly and also divided with the Democratic law enforcement element. I will support Lane, provided he assumes an unequivocal position in favor of enforcement of the law. It was for that I entered the race, thinking that it was essential that the Democratic party in Portland be forced to take ground in favor of such a policy."

LAW OR NO LAW (Continued from Page One.) "I am not better than my neighbor; there will be no airs or false pretenses on my part, and that while I do not intend to be held personally responsible for

under the discreet administration of Mr. Hunt, Mayor Williams' chief of police. The issue then is squarely joined and it is this: Whether the saloon element of Portland is to rule the city for another two years, whether it may violate with impunity the laws and ordinances and flaunt public vice in the face of decency or whether during the fair and afterward there is to be a reasonable proper observance not alone of the laws and ordinances but the decencies which should characterize a civilized community. In the renomination of Mayor Williams there is assumed all his administration stands for, all of the graft, wastefulness, extravagance and thievery which is receiving and has received the solicited attention of present and past grand juries, not to mention that unholy alliance with vice for the pretended purpose of raising public revenue.

Photo by Asa. Municipal Judge George J. Cameron.

Defeat Williams! Will there be opposition to Williams in the shape of an independent ticket, or will the issue be practically fought out between Williams and Lane?

This is one of the crucial questions which face the people of Portland today. It is conceivable that this may be another case of the saloon and church element again electing Williams, though with the variation this time that the reform element, by dividing its strength, may so weaken the opposition to Williams as to insure his election. In this respect nothing should be done hastily.

The people of Portland owe it to themselves to defeat Williams not only for the record of his administration but for what he nakedly stands for today. That is the chief desideratum and before it all other questions sink into insignificance. It should not be forgotten that the simple defeat of Williams will carry with it a lesson that cannot be misunderstood and that will of itself go far to clarify the moral atmosphere which has been debauched under his administration.

It is inconceivable that the decent citizens of Portland will stand for all the men nominated for councilmen-at-large. Those backed by the saloon combinations will go into the council under pledges inimical to the best interests of the city; otherwise they could not have got their endorsements. No matter how good the man elected, major if his hands are tied by councilmen so pledged and his policies paralyzed by their open or covert opposition it will be impossible for him to give the sort of administration that the people desire, that they have earnestly hoped for and that they are entitled to receive.

Watch the Council, Too. Strong independent nominations for councilmen should be made. What is true of the councilmen-at-large is generally true of the ward nominations. Take Larry Sullivan, in the second ward, who was one of the gambling trust under Mayor Williams' administration, that the people desire, that they have earnestly hoped for and that they are entitled to receive.

It is in no other right nor gainful for a city to enter into partnership with any form of vice for the sake of the revenue to be derived therefrom. If a city's revenue is not sufficient to meet its legitimate expenses resort should be had to lawful and honorable methods, chief among which may be mentioned economy and honest expenditures.

It is in all candor and sincerity, and without vanity, that I make myself thus plain. If I am to have this office I want it to come clean to my hands, as I pledge myself to return it clean to the hands of the people from whom I received it. I want it free from all pledges or obligations to any individual, or to any special interests which are inimical to the interests of the city, as a corporation of the city, known to be working under inside advice from the machine, was convinced that it could not carry a complete ticket. Apparently the machine had determined to save what it could from the wreck left since June, 1904, when the election of Tom Wood as chief clerk and John Manning as district attorney on the Democratic ticket, and C. W. Nottingham as senator on the Republican ticket, gave the Matthews organ-

founder for the benefit of the people. If I cannot have the office, for these terms, I do not want it, for a worthless thing and can do neither credit to the city nor honor to himself.

"If I am elected, I will give to the people the best that is within me at all times—do my full duty—I will appreciate the honor which has been bestowed upon me, and will repay it with faithful service. In what I have said there is no idle word, and if any man brings himself or is led to believe that I am not sincere, that while I do not intend to be entirely assuaged in the event of my election.

"I am not better than my neighbor; there will be no airs or false pretenses on my part, and that while I do not intend to be held personally responsible for

WITH MAJORITY OF CANDIDATES. "I seem to be with the majority of the majority candidates," said George H. Thomas, Democratic candidate for the nomination for chief officer of executive, "and I have no protest to register. The people decide these matters, and have the right to do so. My opinion is that Dr. Lane received the open-town Democratic vote solidly and also divided with the Democratic law enforcement element. I will support Lane, provided he assumes an unequivocal position in favor of enforcement of the law. It was for that I entered the race, thinking that it was essential that the Democratic party in Portland be forced to take ground in favor of such a policy."

LAW OR NO LAW (Continued from Page One.) "I am not better than my neighbor; there will be no airs or false pretenses on my part, and that while I do not intend to be held personally responsible for

under the discreet administration of Mr. Hunt, Mayor Williams' chief of police. The issue then is squarely joined and it is this: Whether the saloon element of Portland is to rule the city for another two years, whether it may violate with impunity the laws and ordinances and flaunt public vice in the face of decency or whether during the fair and afterward there is to be a reasonable proper observance not alone of the laws and ordinances but the decencies which should characterize a civilized community. In the renomination of Mayor Williams there is assumed all his administration stands for, all of the graft, wastefulness, extravagance and thievery which is receiving and has received the solicited attention of present and past grand juries, not to mention that unholy alliance with vice for the pretended purpose of raising public revenue.

Photo by Asa. Municipal Judge George J. Cameron.

Defeat Williams! Will there be opposition to Williams in the shape of an independent ticket, or will the issue be practically fought out between Williams and Lane?

This is one of the crucial questions which face the people of Portland today. It is conceivable that this may be another case of the saloon and church element again electing Williams, though with the variation this time that the reform element, by dividing its strength, may so weaken the opposition to Williams as to insure his election. In this respect nothing should be done hastily.

The people of Portland owe it to themselves to defeat Williams not only for the record of his administration but for what he nakedly stands for today. That is the chief desideratum and before it all other questions sink into insignificance. It should not be forgotten that the simple defeat of Williams will carry with it a lesson that cannot be misunderstood and that will of itself go far to clarify the moral atmosphere which has been debauched under his administration.

It is inconceivable that the decent citizens of Portland will stand for all the men nominated for councilmen-at-large. Those backed by the saloon combinations will go into the council under pledges inimical to the best interests of the city; otherwise they could not have got their endorsements. No matter how good the man elected, major if his hands are tied by councilmen so pledged and his policies paralyzed by their open or covert opposition it will be impossible for him to give the sort of administration that the people desire, that they have earnestly hoped for and that they are entitled to receive.

Watch the Council, Too. Strong independent nominations for councilmen should be made. What is true of the councilmen-at-large is generally true of the ward nominations. Take Larry Sullivan, in the second ward, who was one of the gambling trust under Mayor Williams' administration, that the people desire, that they have earnestly hoped for and that they are entitled to receive.

It is in no other right nor gainful for a city to enter into partnership with any form of vice for the sake of the revenue to be derived therefrom. If a city's revenue is not sufficient to meet its legitimate expenses resort should be had to lawful and honorable methods, chief among which may be mentioned economy and honest expenditures.

It is in all candor and sincerity, and without vanity, that I make myself thus plain. If I am to have this office I want it to come clean to my hands, as I pledge myself to return it clean to the hands of the people from whom I received it. I want it free from all pledges or obligations to any individual, or to any special interests which are inimical to the interests of the city, as a corporation of the city, known to be working under inside advice from the machine, was convinced that it could not carry a complete ticket. Apparently the machine had determined to save what it could from the wreck left since June, 1904, when the election of Tom Wood as chief clerk and John Manning as district attorney on the Democratic ticket, and C. W. Nottingham as senator on the Republican ticket, gave the Matthews organ-

founder for the benefit of the people. If I cannot have the office, for these terms, I do not want it, for a worthless thing and can do neither credit to the city nor honor to himself.

"If I am elected, I will give to the people the best that is within me at all times—do my full duty—I will appreciate the honor which has been bestowed upon me, and will repay it with faithful service. In what I have said there is no idle word, and if any man brings himself or is led to believe that I am not sincere, that while I do not intend to be entirely assuaged in the event of my election.

"I am not better than my neighbor; there will be no airs or false pretenses on my part, and that while I do not intend to be held personally responsible for

WITH MAJORITY OF CANDIDATES. "I seem to be with the majority of the majority candidates," said George H. Thomas, Democratic candidate for the nomination for chief officer of executive, "and I have no protest to register. The people decide these matters, and have the right to do so. My opinion is that Dr. Lane received the open-town Democratic vote solidly and also divided with the Democratic law enforcement element. I will support Lane, provided he assumes an unequivocal position in favor of enforcement of the law. It was for that I entered the race, thinking that it was essential that the Democratic party in Portland be forced to take ground in favor of such a policy."

LAW OR NO LAW (Continued from Page One.) "I am not better than my neighbor; there will be no airs or false pretenses on my part, and that while I do not intend to be held personally responsible for

under the discreet administration of Mr. Hunt, Mayor Williams' chief of police. The issue then is squarely joined and it is this: Whether the saloon element of Portland is to rule the city for another two years, whether it may violate with impunity the laws and ordinances and flaunt public vice in the face of decency or whether during the fair and afterward there is to be a reasonable proper observance not alone of the laws and ordinances but the decencies which should characterize a civilized community. In the renomination of Mayor Williams there is assumed all his administration stands for, all of the graft, wastefulness, extravagance and thievery which is receiving and has received the solicited attention of present and past grand juries, not to mention that unholy alliance with vice for the pretended purpose of raising public revenue.

Photo by Asa. Municipal Judge George J. Cameron.

Defeat Williams! Will there be opposition to Williams in the shape of an independent ticket, or will the issue be practically fought out between Williams and Lane?

This is one of the crucial questions which face the people of Portland today. It is conceivable that this may be another case of the saloon and church element again electing Williams, though with the variation this time that the reform element, by dividing its strength, may so weaken the opposition to Williams as to insure his election. In this respect nothing should be done hastily.

The people of Portland owe it to themselves to defeat Williams not only for the record of his administration but for what he nakedly stands for today. That is the chief desideratum and before it all other questions sink into insignificance. It should not be forgotten that the simple defeat of Williams will carry with it a lesson that cannot be misunderstood and that will of itself go far to clarify the moral atmosphere which has been debauched under his administration.

It is inconceivable that the decent citizens of Portland will stand for all the men nominated for councilmen-at-large. Those backed by the saloon combinations will go into the council under pledges inimical to the best interests of the city; otherwise they could not have got their endorsements. No matter how good the man elected, major if his hands are tied by councilmen so pledged and his policies paralyzed by their open or covert opposition it will be impossible for him to give the sort of administration that the people desire, that they have earnestly hoped for and that they are entitled to receive.

Watch the Council, Too. Strong independent nominations for councilmen should be made. What is true of the councilmen-at-large is generally true of the ward nominations. Take Larry Sullivan, in the second ward, who was one of the gambling trust under Mayor Williams' administration, that the people desire, that they have earnestly hoped for and that they are entitled to receive.

It is in no other right nor gainful for a city to enter into partnership with any form of vice for the sake of the revenue to be derived therefrom. If a city's revenue is not sufficient to meet its legitimate expenses resort should be had to lawful and honorable methods, chief among which may be mentioned economy and honest expenditures.

It is in all candor and sincerity, and without vanity, that I make myself thus plain. If I am to have this office I want it to come clean to my hands, as I pledge myself to return it clean to the hands of the people from whom I received it. I want it free from all pledges or obligations to any individual, or to any special interests which are inimical to the interests of the city, as a corporation

LIST OF RICHEST MEN IN AMERICA

Wealth of Millionaire Capitalists is Estimated by Banker Henry Claws.

ROCKEFELLER IS FIRST AND CARNEGIE SECOND

Astors, Coulds, Marshall Field, Blair Estate and Vanderbilt Follow in Order.

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) New York, May 6.—Henry Claws has made an estimate of the wealth of the number of millionaire capitalists of the United States, in which he places John D. Rockefeller first and Andrew Carnegie second.

- This is the table he has formulated: John D. Rockefeller, $500,000,000. Andrew Carnegie, $115,000,000 given away, leaving $250,000,000. William Waldorf Astor, chiefly in real estate, $125,000,000. John Jacob Astor, $175,000,000. Gould family, of which George J. Gould's personal fortune represents $35,000,000, $150,000,000. Marshall Field, $100,000,000. Blair estate, $100,000,000. W. K. Vanderbilt, $80,000,000. Russell Sage, $80,000,000. D. O. Mills, $75,000,000. William Rockefeller, $75,000,000. J. P. Morgan, $60,000,000. James H. Hill, $60,000,000. Henry H. Rogers, $50,000,000. Henry Phillips, $45,000,000. John D. Archbold, $40,000,000. Henry M. Flagler, $40,000,000. James B. Duke, $40,000,000. James B. Haggin, $40,000,000. James Henry Smith, $35,000,000. W. H. Tilford, $20,000,000. James Stillman, $15,000,000. George F. Baker, $15,000,000. M. C. Clew, admits that his list is by no means complete, but says that it undoubtedly contains the names of the very richest men in the country.

Prominent among the big capitalists who are included are the Astors, the big Rock Island crowd, the Moore Bros. and D. G. Reid, and W. B. Leeds, nor does he omit Senator W. A. Clark, Henry C. Frick, John W. Gates, Norman B. Sloan, the Williams G. Whittemore, E. A. B. Widener, the younger Vanderbilts, Mrs. Hetty Green, nor any of the notably rich women of the country.

TWELVE COMPANIES ARE INCORPORATED

One Foreign Under Laws of New York and Others Are Domestic.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal) Salem, Or., May 6.—Eleven domestic and one foreign company filed articles with the secretary of state this week as follows:

- Domestic corporations—National Copper Mines company, principal office, Portland, Oregon; capital stock, $1,000,000; incorporators, J. J. Richardson, H. A. Mautz, F. B. Jones, William Trevor, W. E. Jones, R. A. Proudfoot and Frank King. Portland Concession company, principal office, Portland, Oregon; capital stock, $10,000; incorporators, T. S. Clarkson, A. J. Webb and B. B. Beckman. The Warner Valley Mercantile company, principal office, Portland, Oregon; capital stock, $10,000; incorporators, Ernest A. Friday, Belle Friday and Charles T. Powne. The Brick Store company, principal office, Klamath Falls, Oregon; capital stock, $30,000; incorporators, Alexander Martin, Evan R. Reames and F. W. Jennings. Official Photographic company, principal office, Portland, Oregon; capital stock, $25,000; incorporators, David M. Stevens, G. L. Bossemeyer and Fred H. Kiser. Mason & Ackley company, principal office, Tillamook, Oregon; capital stock, $10,000; incorporators, Homer Mason, Ralph Ackley, Annetta B. Mason and Lillian Ackley. The Western Storage & Transfer company, principal office, Portland, Oregon; capital stock, $15,000; incorporators, John S. Beall, Chester M. Frink and L. B. Reader. Webber & Co., principal office, Wasco, Oregon; capital stock, $50,000; incorporators, E. A. Gummans, H. E. Kaseberg and H. P. Disher. Union & Station Railway company, principal office, Union, Oregon; capital stock, $500; incorporators, G. G. Gummans, Grace Lander and G. A. Flanagan. Buffum & Pendleton, Inc., principal office, Portland, Oregon; capital stock, $50,000; incorporators, F. G. Buffum, F. N. Pendleton and G. G. Gummans. Stayton, Oregon; capital stock, $100,000; incorporators, S. Phillip, F. Carter and W. L. Freres. Foreign Corporation—The Empire State Surety company, organized under the laws of New York; capital stock, $500,000; attorney in fact, Moses Billings, Portland, Oregon.

MONTANA IS SCENE OF BUFFALO CHASE

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) Helena, Mont., May 6.—Probably the last buffalo chase to be seen in Montana occurred today, when three animals of the bison tribe, escaped from Central Park and before they could be captured a most exciting chase resulted. No sooner had their loss been reported than a posse was organized, headed by George Ruedlo, an old buffalo hunter, who had engaged in many a similar chase in the early days, and the start made. In the meantime, an employee of the park, who was trying to prevent the escape of one of the buffalo calves, was chased up a tree, where he remained for several hours until the return of the party. The older animals were found five miles from the park and after considerable dallying were turned around and headed for the park. It was with much difficulty that they were taken back, as the animals were acting badly and lasses were used as persuasive means.

Without Reserve. From life. "Is your husband very confidential with you?" "Very. He tells me everything he suspects I've found out about him."

Looks That Way. From the Pittsburg Post. "Shall we chloroform the old folks of the next generation?" asked the sage of Plunkville. "If cigarette and light soap keep their present hold on the respective sexes," retorted the Polish philosopher, "there is no going to be no old folks in the next generation."

For Croup, Diarrhoea, All Coughs, COLIC, Cholera, Painkiller

Fighting the Trust! Great Manufacturer's Sale

Men's, Women's and Children's Cravenette Rain Coats and Mackintoshes at 25c to 40c on the Dollar.

THE GOODYEAR RAINCOAT COMPANY of Boston, Mass., known throughout the United States as manufacturers of the highest grade of Cravenettes, Raincoats and Mackintoshes, and the only one of the big manufacturers who would not allow the trust to dictate to them, opened wholesale and retail stores in all the leading cities and decided to fight the trust until the end. In consequence of the above it was decided, at a meeting of the Board of Directors held March 1, to open wholesale and retail store rooms in this city at 145 Sixth street. In order to make the fight in the northwest more effective

50,000 Cravenettes, Raincoats and Mackintoshes for Men, Women and Children at 25c to 40c on the Dollar. DO NOT FAIL TO VISIT THIS STORE, AS THESE PRICES WILL PREVAIL FOR A SHORT TIME ONLY.

- Men's Mackintoshes, in blue and black, with full military capes; former price $3.50. Sale Price $1.00. Men's Mackintoshes, of English covert cloth, box style, velvet collar, gray and tan; former price $6.50. Sale Price $2.00. Men's very fine All-Wool Serge Mackintoshes, in box style, velvet collar, all colors; former price $9. Sale Price $3.50. Ladies Imported Newmarkets, of all-wool materials, in all shades; former prices $9.50 to $12.50. Sale Price $3.50. SPECIAL—For rain or shine, the celebrated Combination Overcoat and Mackintosh, in box or regular style, made of all-wool English melton, in all colors; never sold for less than from $15 to $22.50. Sale Price $5.50. Ladies Raglans, of English covert cloth, latest style, with capes, belt and full sleeve, all colors; former price $7.50. Sale Price $2.50. Men's Cravenettes, in staple plain effects, large shoulders, full, roomy back, snug fitting collar, long; $12.50 to $15 values. For this sale $5.50.

- Ladies' Mackintoshes, in all shades, with full box cape, made of serge cloth; former price $5.50. Sale Price $2.00. Men's regular $16.50 value. Men's Cravenette Raincoats, in fancy or plain effects, new conceave shoulders, full back, close fitting collar; never sold less than $16.50. For this sale $7.50. Men's regular $22 value. Swell, up-to-date Cravenette Raincoat, in Oxford-black and novelties, all hand-tailored and silk lined; never sold less than $22. For this sale $9.50. Ladies' Cravenette Raincoats, $12.50 values, imported models. We ask that you see these splendid garments, that you note the styles, the make and finish; never sold less than $12.50. For this sale $5.00. Ladies' Imported Cravenette, $16.50 value, in green, tan, gray and mode colors. For this sale $7.50. Ladies' Fancy English Cravenette, full value $22, in all colors, stole collar, 3-cape effect, leg of mutton sleeve; never sold less than $22. For this sale $9.50. Boys' and Girls' Raincoats, never sold less than $3.50. For this sale $1.25.

Mail Orders Promptly Attended to When Accompanied by Check or Money Order. State Chest and Length Measure.

Goodyear Rain Coat Company

145 SIXTH STREET, BETWEEN ALDER AND MORRISON

BEWARE OF FAKERS!

Who ruin your Hat. Go to HEADQUARTERS for Panama and Felt Hat Cleaning

J. FISCHER, King of Hat Renovators, Will Dye for you or Clean and Block your Hats. 404 1/2 NO. SIXTH ST. PHONE RED 646.

WHAT A PORTLAND MAN SAYS ABOUT

Casey's Rheumatic Cure

J. H. Casey Med. Co., Spokane, Wash.—Gentlemen: I have had Rheumatism very bad for seven years; have tried the best physicians and hot springs, but got no relief until I tried Casey's Rheumatic Cure. I have just used four bottles, and it has been the greatest blessing in the world to me, as I am now free from pain and am able to get around good. I will always tell others of this great medicine. With best wishes, I am yours truly, O. LAIRD, Foreman Steel Bridge.

This medicine sold and guaranteed, 1.00 bottle, by Woodard, Clarke & Co., cor. Fourth and Washington; Watts & Matthei, 275 Russell st.; Skidmore Drug Co., 151 Third st.; Albina Pharmacy, 330 Russell.

SON OF SUGAR TRUST KING KILLED BY AUTO

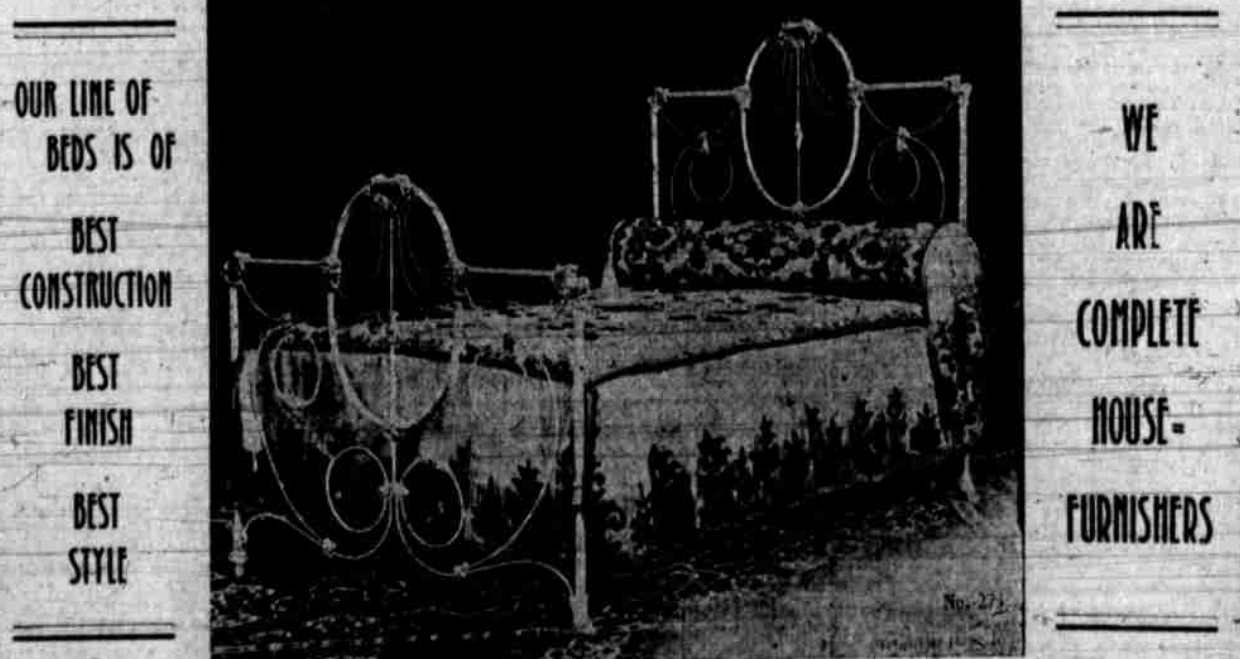

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) New York, May 6.—Wilson A. Bardona, 12 years old, son of Wilson S. Bardona, head of the American Beet Sugar Trust, was killed tonight by being struck by an automobile. The machine was the property of Frank Stocum, president of the Stocum Building company of Brooklyn. Mr. Stocum was not in the car and the machine was being driven by his chauffeur, who was arrested. Before the chauffeur could do anything to prevent it, the great machine knocked the lad down. He brought the car to a stop, rushed back and lifted the unconscious lad into the vehicle. Then at top speed he carried him to the home of Dr. John DeMont, Bath Beach, but it was too late. The little fellow was dead.

PENNYROYAL ENGLISH PILLS

Original and Only Genuine. In KEEP a Gold medal award, won at CHICHESTER'S ENGLISH PILLS. Beware of cheap imitations. Take no other. Refuse to purchase substitutes and imitations. Buy your Druggist or send 4c. in stamps for Particulars, Testimonials and Official English Ladies' Letter. Write to: Pennyroyal Pills, 10,000 Testimonials, Sold by all Druggists. Chichester Chemist Co., London, England. Mott's Square, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

A Week of Specials on Iron Beds

We Carry the Most Complete and Up-to-Date Line of Iron Beds on the Coast

If in Need of Furniture of Any Kind Do Not Fail to See Us Before Purchasing

HENRY JENNING & SONS

172-174 First Street