As a special feature of the great MAY BARGAIN FEAST we shall open another popular contest here today, to run eight weeks, ending Saturday, July 1, at 6 p. m., through which the public will select twenty pupils from the schools of Portland—any school eligible, public or private—each to be awarded a book containing fifty commutation tickets of admission to the exposition, good any time for admission between July 3 and the close of the fair, October 15. Ballot-boxes will be distributed about the store as in former contests. A vote will be given with every 25c purchase, and will be returned with your purchase from the cashier, through the wrapping desk, in the baskets, thus insuring every one the vote due them and safeguarding the ballots with the same care as the cash they represent the receipt of.

Lucky the Woman Who's Planned to Buy a $25.00 Jacket Tuesday—She Saves HALF THE PRICE

A Grand Bargain Offering by Portland's Largest and Foremost Apparel Store for Women. Grand Salons—Second Floor.

Women's New $22.50 and $25 Covert Coats $12.50

The buyer of a certain store, located within a half mile of this headquarters of Style and Quality, remarked to a New York manufacturer of garments during a recent trip East that "He wasn't going to be particular this year about the 'inside' of the garments he bought so long as they 'looked well' on the outside—so many visitors, you know—never expected to see 'em again—and the home trade? Oh! they wouldn't mind being 'fooled' once." This conservative, dependable old store isn't going to do business that way. We're going to treat visitors and home-folk alike, in the same old way—only the best goods—and best all the way through. We're not going in on any of the get-rich-quick schemes of the "graffers" who don't care what visitors say of Portland, and her merchants after they get home. WE'RE GOING TO DO A LOT OF BUSINESS THIS YEAR ON A SMALLER THAN EVER MARGIN OF PROFIT and add a lot of REPUTATION to that already attained by this DEPENDABLE house. Women folk who buy garments of us this year will get the greatest bargains of their life—and QUALITY will be sewed in through and through with the silken thread of STYLE. Bargains told of below, and every value offered this year are selected from our superb stocks, nothing bought for a "Sale." The losses are all our own or the manufacturer's. Principle is never lost sight of in this business.
