FIGHT TO BE MADE ON LIQUOR CANDIDATES

Opponent to Impossible Larry Sullivan.

At a meeting of the executive com-mittee of the Municipal association this afternoon it was decided to adopt reso-lutions indorsing Dr. Harry Lane in his candidacy for mayor of the city of Deciliard

Portland.

While they intend placing a full independent ticket in the field, with the exception of a candidate for mayor, the reform element, it is said, intends concentrating its endeavors on the defeat of Mayor Williams, the liquor candidate for re-election, Attorney George J. Cameron, the liquor candidate for police judge, and "Larry" Sullivan, candidate for councilman from the second ward.

A member of the Municipal association said today:

Cameron for the police court bench, he has the indorsement of the liquor interests. It is understood, and I think can

DR. F. W. CLAMETT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Gearhart, May 10.—Dr. Frederick W Clampett, rector of the Trinity Episco-pal church, of San Francisco, addressed the conference this morning on "The Pour Pillars of Christian Character. The first fundamental element of Chris tian character, he said, was sanctifica-tion. The words "holy" and "wholly" come from the same root. The religious come from the same root. The religious man is a religious man. Only a relig-ious man is a whole, or holy, man. The second requisite to Christian character the speaker defined as thoroughness, the "this-one-thing-I-do" spirit. He dep-recated the slip-shod, slop-dash methods of the present age.

The third characteristic of a great character is self-annihilation, or the surrendered life. "What I mean by sur-rendered life. "What I mean by sur-render," said the doctor. "Is to lean so far over upon the strength of God that we lose our balance and are irravoca-bly lost in him. We must crucify self upon the cross of mankind, until all love of self dies out in the love of our kind." reat character."
Dr. D. L. Rader, editor of the Pacific

Christian Advocate, of Portland, made a great missionary address at the "life-work" meeting this evening.

GIVES NAME OF HANLON WHICH MAY BE ALIAS

Woman Who Disappeared With Him.

Considerable mystery attaches to the identity of G. H. Hanlon, as he calls himself, one of the three criminals arrested for the theft of $135 from the cashbox of the rathskeller at the Portland hotel. Detectives are searching the records at police headquarters trying to find his real name and his record.

The police take issue with the Pinkerton theory that he is Herman, or Charles Diehm, the noted bank robber and diamond thief. They assert that the likeness is not strong enough between the photographs of Diehm and Hanlon to warrant such a belief. Diehm is said to be an older man than Hanjon, whose age is 27 years.

"I have secured positive evidence," said Detective Day, "that Charley Diehm and Barrett had a disagreement of some sort, and broke away from each other about three months ago. This the conference today.

Much speculation is going on, espectally among the laity, as to the final reality among the laity, as to the final reality among the laity and Saturday port of the stationing committee. It is generally believed that more men will be moved this year than for many years heretofore. An unusually large number of places will be left vacant because of the expiration of the time limit of the pastors, no man being allowed to serve one field more than four years consec-utively. Among the places which will be vacated are some of the principal ones in the conference. First church, Seattle; First English church, Portland; Memorial church, Portland; Tigardville mission and Canby mission. It is a foregone conclusion that many changes must be made in order to fill these places, and to make room elsewhere for their former incumbents. The station-ing committee, which is composed of Bishop Breyfogel. Presiding Elder Shupp and Presiding Elder Mauer, will not report before Saturday, and possibly not until later.
