At the regular meeting of the New York State society held in the city hall last night that part of the constitution relating to membership was changed to read that any person eligible may become a member at any time by filling out the blank provided by the registrar or secretary and paying the annual fee of $1. The society had as its guest D. M. Ellis of Batavia, New York, director of exhibits to the Lewis and Clark exposition, who gave an interesting talk concerning the various features of the New York state building and the ways in which resident New Yorkers could make themselves useful to the visiting ones. The next regular meeting, Friday evening, May 26, is to be in part a social one. Several new members were enrolled last night.

Secretary Elliott of the committee on congresses for the exposition has received acceptances from three more men men of national fame. They are Dr. Andrew S. Draper, commissioner of education in New York; General R. H. Pratt, a pioneer organizer of the Indian industrial schools, and Rev. Robert McIntyre, who is said to be the greatest of all descriptive orators. All will be here during the civic congresses and religious conferences. The directors of the exposition yesterday passed resolutions of respect to the memory of Jonas M. Church, who was for a year and a half a director of the corporation. Henry Ladd Corbett was elected to his place.

On May 15 the Oregon Railroad & Navigation company will make effective a new rate on wheat and flour shipped east from territory east of The Dalles and south of Winona, Washington, to equalize rates from all territory of this road east of the Cascades. Flour to St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth will pay 45 instead of 55 cents a hundred. South of Winona wheat will pay 50 instead of 55 cents to Missouri river points, and north of Winona the rate will be reduced from 52½ to 50 cents. From points south of Winona wheat and flour will be cut from 55 to 52½ cents to St. Louis and Chicago.

The importance of clear skies and fresh air in Oregon this year is impelling forest rangers to extra effort to prevent a recurrence of the disastrous forest fires that burned over hundreds of acres of slashings and dead timber last summer. Adolph Ashoff, who has charge of the western Oregon division of forest rangers, is carefully posting his men and giving them special instructions. It is expected that the scarcity of snow in the mountains and the large number of campers who will probably visit the woods will make the task of the rangers more arduous than ever before.

Here is your opportunity to get a tailor-made suit at ready-made prices. We have a nice new line of up-to-date goods, and are still making any suit in the house to order for $25, no more, no less. We guarantee these to be the same as others charge $35 and $40 for. Look around and you can see this for yourself. The style, fit and workmanship will be the best. Any pants, $7.50. Unique Tailoring Co., 347 Washington street, city.

The Portland Federated Trades Council has indorsed the proposed civic federation conference to be held in Portland this year, and has volunteered to assist in securing speakers. John Mitchell, president of the mineworkers, is mentioned as a probable speaker to be secured by the trades council. Communications have been exchanged by the council and W. G. Elliott, Jr., secretary of the local civic conference committee with satisfactory results.

The trustee for the Wright Music House is now offering to the public the complete Schirmer library and fine assortment of books and folios at from 30c to 40c on the dollar. WALTER, WHO LOOKS LIKE HIS BROTHERS, BELASCO

Walter Belasco, who has been especially engaged to play two small bits in "The Heart of Maryland" at the Belasco theatre, bears a striking resemblance to his two brothers, Fred and David. He has frequently been mistaken for each.

Mr. Belasco is an admirable character man, and his portrayal of the sexton in the opening bill at the Belasco is said to be extremely clever and convincing. Besides the sexton he appears as the old negro, and in both parts he has made great hits. While his present engagement is for the one week only, it is not unlikely that Mr. Belasco will be engaged by his brother for other roles which he originated on the Pacific coast.

JIM BURWICK WILL SPEAK ON SIDE TRACKS

Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, Jim Burwick, known to railroad men all over the North American continent, will address a men's meeting on "Side Tracks," at the Marquam theatre. Special music has been arranged for the occasion to be led by Conductor A. H. Clark.

Jim Burwick is one of the old time type of railroad men, genial, generous, and whole-souled; he was his own worst enemy through drink. Fifteen years ago he started the Christian life, and has been urging his fellow railroad men all over the country to do the same ever since. For six months in the year he runs an ore train and the other six months he spends in evangelistic work.

Free Baking Powder With "Want Ads"

A SPECIAL OFFER MADE TO INTRODUCE THE MERITS OF JOURNAL "WANT ADS"

The Journal having made a special arrangement with the K. C. Baking Powder Co., it has been decided that with each 25-cent "Want Ad" there will be given entirely free a 25-ounce can of this well known article.

This offer will be made for a limited time only, and those who have property to sell, rooms to rent, lost articles to find, etc., will find The Journal of invaluable aid.

K. C. is the up-to-date baking powder which is sold by all the leading grocers "25 ounces for 25 cents." It is becoming more popular every day as housewives learn of its superior merits. It makes pure, wholesome food, and is unexcelled for hot biscuit or fancy cakes.
