HER MOUTH ROOFED BY CHICKEN BONES

Woman Owes Return to Health to Most Remarkable Surgical Operation on Record.

HEN'S BREAST CARTILACE GRAFTED ON HUMAN BONE

Ulcerated Tooth Caused Hole as Large as Half a Dollar Which Is Now Restored.

(Journal Special Service.)

New York, May 27.—Mrs. Dai Hawkins, wife of the former pugilist, owes her return to health and probably life to a remarkable operation which has supplied her with a new roof for her supplied her with a new roof a young mouth from the breastbone of a young chicken. It is the first successful opera-tion of the kind in the history of surtion of the kind in the history of surgery. She speaks plainly now, whereas a few weeks ago she could hardly make herself understood, and suffers no inconvenience in eating or drinking.

An ulcerated tooth diseased a bone in Mrs. Hawkins' mouth and caused a hole in the roof of her mouth. The hole finally became as large as a half dollar.
The falling away of the bone let down

The falling away of the bone let down the support for the nose, which fell and flattened and her mouth was also drawn flattened and her mouth was also drawn out of shape.

Doctors performed a bone-grafting operation. Two chickens four weeks old supplied the cartilege to be grafted and which would ogsify and form a firm roof for her mouth. A great quantity of disassed bone was removed and when this was accomplished the chickens were killed and the bone-forming, skinlike substance taken from the breast and the bones grafted to the undiseased bone.

The grafted cartilage has hardened and the mucous membrane has grown over almost all of the formerly bare space, and Mrs. Hawkins' mouth has 'a new roof. In the course of a few weeks the operation will be a perfect success.

CONGRESS OF RELIGION'S TENTH GENERAL MEETING Fine corner lot at West Piedmont, near the company's big barn.

Chicago, May 27.—Representatives of many churches and creeds are gathering in Chicago for the tenth seneral meeting of the Cohgress of Religion, an outgrowth of the great religious congress held in this city during the world's fair. The congress will be formally opened tomorrow morning at the Abraham Lincoin Center, and the sessions will continue until June 2. Among the subjects to be discussed are: The relations of the woman's club movement to the coming church, institutional works as a means of church salvation, the coming church and commercial criminals, and the kind of a church that will enlist the sympathies of the laborers. In tis coamopolitan character and range of subjects the approaching congress promises to outreach all former sessions that the subjects of the laborers. Suburban Home Seeker's Paradise

This tract is situated on the Oregon Water Power & Railway Co.'s line, one mile south of Mount Tabor, and is practically 425 feet above the city, on the same clevation as the Mount Tabor reservoir, thus affording a very dealrable view of the city and surrounding country. This tract is provided with excellent water, electric lights, 16-minute car service, Geent fare and only cousumes 20 minutes of your time to reach the city. Lota are selling from $175 to $300. or one-tenth of the price of property located within the same distance on the west side of the river. These prices will prevail for the next-60 days, at the expiration of which time the prices will be sell-vanced one-third.

Houses will be built on reasonable monthly payments on lots purchased during the next 80 days, should the property by an electric line that crosses Madison street bridge, and owing to-its being the last bridge up the river, it is the least disturbed by steamers passing through the draws.

This property is lease in the city, insuring first-clas car service for the future.

This property is also in a direct line with the Columbia river and is of sufficient elevation to insure the best of air that it is possible to obtain in any surrounding district.

You will find agents on the ground that will be pleased to show you the many advantages of this addition. Select this trip as your Sunday car fide and investigate these statements. You should provide yourself with a building site for a home in the future with the property is at its minimum price in this gro listrict.

The mere fact that there has been 2,000 onuses built within the past three years in this listrict is a demonstration of the popularity of the same.
