REPUBLICAN TASKS AT BIG LAKE RALLY

F. B. Gibson Tells Why He and Many Others Have Gone Outside of Party Lines to Make the Election of the Democratic Candidate Sure.

LANE REPRESENTS THE NEW MOVEMENT IN POLITICS

W. G. Munly Says Administration Under Williams Has Been Corrupt and That Mayor Wanted to Pay Contractors Who Did Poor Work on Tanner Creek.

Frank B. Gibson, a lifelong Republican, presided over the Lane meeting in Sellwood last night, and before he introduced the majority candidate told the audience that although he was 40 years old and had voted the Republican ticket ever since he had reached his legal majority, he purposed in this city election to vote for Harry Lane...

"In common with thousands of Republicans," said Mr. Gibson, "I am supporting this new movement, a movement that makes for better government, a movement that is national in its scope, and that has swept throughout the country. Its conspicuous head is President Roosevelt, standing there in the White House and asking only one question before determining what shall be his official acts—the question: 'What is the will of the people as expressed in written statute?'"

"Respect for the Laws." "Never before have I stood before an audience to endorse a Democratic nominee. I hold loyally the party ideas of the Republican party. But, in this municipal campaign, I can do as well as I do that there are no issues that trench on party distinctions. You know that it is a question of respect for law, and that Dr. Harry Lane stands for these things in his present appeal to the women to assist in this battle. You are more vitally interested in the issues of the campaign than are the men. You who have children whom you wish to guard from the influence of the underworld, who have children whom you pray for help in surrounding them with conditions that will make it easier to rear them as they should be reared—I say that you should stand with me now in backing Dr. Harry Lane in his campaign for mayor."

"Every person who knows him knows that he is a man who will keep his promises, who will give every person in Portland a square deal. I believe that I speak the sentiments of enough Republicans who will vote for Lane to insure his election."

William G. Munly was introduced and delivered a strong appeal in the duty of every good citizen to get behind Dr. Harry Lane in this fight. "Not alone because of his winning personality, but because of the issues he represents," said Mr. Munly, "read the reductions drawn from extended argument in an article in McClure's magazine, treating of the crime statistics, and saying in conclusion as the views of the editor of that publication that the increase in crime is due to the corruption by corporations and contractors who thought it cheaper to acquire franchises by bribery of officials than by legitimate purchase, to politicians and position holders, to the deterioration of public official positions, and disregard for law grown so common that it has become a vital issue in every corner of the nation."

"The conditions set forth in this article," said Mr. Munly, "would be discouraging were it not for the rising tide of protest that is sweeping over the country. What gave President Roosevelt such a tremendous majority last year? It was not the popular belief that he would enforce the law regardless of the station in life of the citizen involved."

"Study the conditions in Wisconsin, with its LaFollette fighting for this new idea now obtaining in your country; consider Missouri, with its Joseph Folk, supported by the people without respect of political lines; learn of New York, with its Jerome, going out to fight with its progressive laws and its record of the people abroad in this land a new idea which, expressed in these concrete movements, means that the people propose to come into possession of their own government."

"Judge Williams' supporters say that he has been a great man in the past. We are not trying him now on the record of the past, but on the record of his present action in this municipal campaign. That is his present cause in court, people don't care much what happened 50 years ago. They care very much about matters of the immediate present."

"The Orpheum theatre throughout the week has presented most entertaining programs which have drawn exceptionally large houses. The Pony Girls' ballet has made a decided 'hit' in presenting their sketch, 'School.' These very pretty girls evidently divide their time generously between their books and their songs, dances and bon-mots as well received and the entire bill has been much of a success. An entirely new program will be presented next week. The price of this popular house is but 10 cents and hours of continuous amusement."

BOARD OF GOVERNORS. The Oregon state board of geometry met in session on Thursday for the purpose of organizing E. O. Mattern of Portland, as chairman pro tem. Dr. C. W. Lowe of Eugene was elected president and Dr. H. W. Barr of Salem secretary.

HAPPY NIGHT SPENT BY PENNSYLVANIANS. The women of the Pennsylvania society gave a delightful social last evening at the rooms of the society in the City Hall. Nearly 100 members and many visitors were present. At the business meeting it was decided that the society would cooperate with the officials of the Lewis and Clark exposition. Wallace McManam made a short address on features of Pennsylvania history. Dr. Ney Churchman gave a humorous reading and the reminiscences of George H. Himes was interesting and instructive. Mrs. Munra, 74 years of age, and Mrs. Graves, 59 years old, acted as hostesses, and assisted Mrs. Sarah H. Evans, the chairman of the evening, in welcoming the guests.

Up-to-Date Vaudeville. The Orpheum theatre throughout the week has presented most entertaining programs which have drawn exceptionally large houses. The Pony Girls' ballet has made a decided 'hit' in presenting their sketch, 'School.' These very pretty girls evidently divide their time generously between their books and their songs, dances and bon-mots as well received and the entire bill has been much of a success. An entirely new program will be presented next week. The price of this popular house is but 10 cents and hours of continuous amusement."

FOUNDATION OF SUICIDES' SKULLS. "The supreme court denounced gambling and said that it outrages public decency and disturbs the public peace, and yet the officials proposed to build up the financial fortunes on a foundation of suicides' skulls. Not all the verbal flowers from the mayor's vocabulary can sweeten this foul thing that they have done. The mayor called the purchase at the office, First and Alder streets, and the Scotchmen 'lads and scoundrels.' As to the Scotchmen, they have given the world the best municipal administration known to civilization, and the clergy—since the thunders of Sinai were heard have they not stood for the best things that have come to mortal man?"

"I have no word of personal abuse for Judge Williams. He is an old man, perhaps in his days of senility. But against him we gladly place, with his pleasing personality, Dr. Harry Lane, a man of firm convictions and strong in his devotion to the right."

LOUD CHEERS FOR LANE. And then came Dr. Lane, cheered time and again, and renewing his straightforward presentation of his position on the current issues. He spoke kindly of Judge Williams, and yet said that the time had come when the people of this city should demand that the government have a responsible head, a man who acknowledged that the acts of his appointees must be taken as his own acts, and that it was not competent for the chief executive to saddle upon someone else the blame for wrongdoing in the administration.

Band Concert at Estacada Sunday. By Dr. Urbano's Royal Italian band. Motor cars with trailers from First and Alder streets, 7:30, 9:30, 11:30 a. m.; 1:30, 3:30, 5:44 p. m. Tickets must be purchased at the office, First and Alder streets.

WHIPPING POST MAY LOSE FIRST VICTIM

Charles F. McGinty Said Not to Be Married to Woman He Assaulted.

BOTH HAVE BEEN IN POLICE COURT BEFORE

She is Reported to Have Left Husband in California, Without a Divorce.

Because of a legal technicality it is likely that Charles F. McGinty, the first candidate for the whipping post under the provisions of the law that recently became effective, will escape a flogging. However, his escape from the humiliating punishment may be the cause of his arrest on a serious charge.

McGinty lives at 85 Fifth street with a woman supposed to be his wife. Both have been waiters in the city. He attacked her Thursday, and the marks of his injuries were still plainly in evidence when she appeared in the municipal court yesterday. McGinty waived an examination and was held to the grand jury in the sum of $200.

McGinty offered no denial of the charge of assault and battery, and a court attaches and others who were interested in the execution of the law instantly perceived in him the first victim of the new law. Sheriff Word was prepared to deprive the woman of the whipping in case the court imposed the penalty, and she is said to have declared her willingness to perform the operation.

Today, however, it was brought to the attention of the officials that the man could not be punished for wife-beating, although he pleaded guilty. Officials were informed that the woman is not the legal wife of McGinty. A year ago McGinty, another man and the woman fell into the clutches of the police on a serious charge. In order to avoid a penalty of six months' labor on the rockpile McGinty married the woman. They have lived together since that time.

The police now say that one year prior to her marriage to McGinty the woman deserted her husband in Sacramento, California, and came to this city. They also state that she did not secure a divorce. The charges will be investigated.
