Ysaye, who will be at the Marquam Tuesday, May 30.

Ysaye, the greatest of living violinists, will play at the Marquam Grand on Tuesday evening mext, and the coming of this great virtuoso will be the biggest event of an already eventful season. Ysaye's accompanist is Jules Deserve, director of the famous Belgian Philharmonic society, and an accompanist of rare power and discrimination. He has played for Ysaye at each of the 110 concerts which the master has given on route. In an analytical article about Ysaye, written by a great authority on violinists, this, sentence occurs:

"As Tartinf founded the Italian school, De Beriot the modern Franco-Belgian school, Alard the Paris school and Spohr the German, so has Yssiye or Tuesday is under the personal editorial means of the modern franco-Belgian school, alard the Paris school and Spohr the German, so has Yssiye rection of Lois Steers-Wynn Coman and of violinisted a new school—eclectic—and will end the musical season.
