HUNT CLUB RIDERS TRAINING FOR MEET

Enthusiastic Horsemen Are Working Hard for Annual Field Day in June.

INTERESTING PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR DAY

Two-Mile Event, Heavy Race and One-Mile Trot Will Have Many Friends.

In keeping with the annual custom, a practice that has afforded much pleasure to those who enjoy amateur horse racing, the Portland Hunt club will hold its field day events on June 17 at Irvington race track.

The principal work that is being done now is the training of the riders for the races. Never before in the history of the institution have the Hunt club members taken such a deep interest in training and if it continues until the day of the events the condition of the riders will be as perfect as the jockeys who participated in the Brooklyn handicap on Friday last.

The races that are attracting the most attention are the two-mile, the heavy race for gentlemen and the one-mile trot for women.

A race that will show what heavyweights know about riding will be the one in which Captain Spencer, Admiral H. C. Campbell, Mr. Patallo, I. Long, R. L. Sabin, A. R. Diamond and others will participate.

LAWRENCE AND MISS COONIN WILL ALSO ENTER

The other events will find many entries when the complete list is published on June 7.

One of the features of the day will be the paper chase that will start about an hour and a half immediately preceding the race program.

The program for the meet is as follows: Paper chase; 1/4-mile dash, handicap weights, thoroughbreds barred; 1/4 furlongs, to carry 165 pounds; one mile trot, ladies only; one mile and 60 yards, handicap weights; 1/4 furlongs, to carry 165 pounds; 1/2-mile pony race, riders not over 18 years, ponies not over 14 hands; two miles, to carry 165 pounds; one quarter mile, riders to weigh not less than 200 pounds.
