

GARVIN TROUNCES SEATTLE KICKERS

Big Texan Had a Variety of Curves That Visitors Couldn't Solve

SEVENTH STRAIGHT GAME FOR PORTLAND

Large Crowd Waxing Enthusiastic Over Snappy Playing of McCredie's Men.

Portland 4, Seattle 1.
Batteries—Garvin and McLean, Boyle and Frary.

Virgil Garvin was just about the whole show at Recreation park yesterday afternoon. That lanky individual had the entire Seattle tribe on his staff during the matinee, and although the visitors managed to score the first run, they were never dangerous otherwise as one tally was all that they could muster.

It was an ideal day for baseball, and the crowd, numbering 5,000 souls, made the air fairly ring with their shouts as the battle progressed. Yesterday's victory was the seventh straight for Portland, and McCredie and his team got a rousing reception. The boys played a snappy game, and though the locals got but six hits, their work was of a superior order and victory could not be denied them.

Detail of Game.
Marse Garvin held the Swashes without a hit or a run for three innings, and in the fourth "Midget" Kane beat out a bunt and got as far as second, but Garvin held them safe. Ralph Frary, who is playing better ball than ever before, opened the fifth with a safe hit, but not so Rummy McHale breezed out in the fourth "Midget" Kane beat out a bunt and got as far as second, but Garvin held them safe.

The sixth saw Boyle's finish, for after Seattle had been closed out, and the first man had gone out in Portland's half, Larry Schafly waited and walked. McCredie followed suit and ambled on four wide ones. "Young Slingshaw" McLean strolled to the plate in an unceremonious manner, which evidently frightened the Seattle crowd for he walked the big fellow, and the bases were filled. Mike Mitchell timed one correctly and planted it in right field for two sacks, scoring Schafly and McCredie. Lou Runkle passed a neat hit to center, scoring McLean and Mitchell, and that ended the run-getting for the day. The official score follows:

MAROON NINE WINS FROM HOP GOLD TEAM

Charles Moore's persistent twirling and the bunching of hits by the Maroons were the means of putting the kibosh on the crack Hop Gold Stars at Vancouver yesterday afternoon. The game was played at Soldiers' field and a big crowd filled the grandstand and bleachers. The Hop Golds had imported a husky twirler named Shear, but gave him poor support at times when it was most needed, while on the other hand the Maroons were backed with superb teamwork and glaze. The Brainards will play the Oaks, considered one of the fastest aggregations in Oregon, next Sunday at Fulton. The score follows:
