With was felt in all of the conches and passenger train in Montana occurred near Boulder, a Great Northern train having a narrow escape from what might have been a most disastrous wreck. As the Great Northern passenger train coming from Helena to Butte was traveling slowly a huge boulder which had become loosened by the heavy rains of yesterday tore down the mountain side and crashed through the baggage car. It struck close in the door of the car, shattered it, and passed through the car, and through the door on the opposite side, the second down the mountain. For-travagant entertainment given in the past by his majesty's emissary.

It is true that former British ambassadors to this country were lavish in their hospitality, but with the arrival of Sir Mortimer, there began a regime of rigorous economy as far as social endeavor is concerned, sithough Lady Durand gave it to be understood that she was not in sympathy with the smart life of the American capital. What sudden revulsion of feeling caused Mortimer to plead for an extra allowance for entertainments is a question which the social leaders at the national capital are now asking one another.

Schiller Controversy.

Schiller Controversy.

The centenary of the death of the German poet, Schiller, was celebrated in Washington by a most picturesque outdoor performance of the second act of "The Robbers," in Rock Creek Park, Sunday morning, after which all joined in the erection of a monument to Schiller, each one rolling his own stone to be placed on the pile. Twenty-one German societies participated.

Chinese Ladies Leceive.

When the Chinese minister was a little boy, he spent a good many years in this country, and went to school at Philips' Andover academy. Therefore, last Wednesday evening, the minister entertained the Philips' Andover alumnt in Washington. Professor Graves came on to Washington for the occasion, and entertained the company with talk of the old Andover days, lihistrated by stereopticon views. There are 50 alumni members in Washington. The wife of the Chinese minister received the company, and Miss Yung Kwai, a young lady of the household, was present. Chinese ladies in mixed company would shock society in Peking. way.

Something of that nature happened in the opposite end of the car, and also fortunately, there happened to be no trunks or other baggage occupying the space between the two doors. The jar of the boulder as it struck the train was felt in all of the coaches and passengers were severely frightened. Had the boulder struck the trucks of a car it would have wrecked the entire train without a doubt. The scene of the accident is on a mountain side, and had the train left the rails it would have rolled down the rocky side of the mountain about 100 feet.

Washington, June 6.—Newspapers have commented at some length on the "unusual feature that has developed"in the Bowen-Loomis case," and that is the losing of the two most important letters from their resting place among the government archives. On the con-trary, this is far from unusual. Whenever any one gets in trouble over money or other matters in government service, and there are papers, incriminating or otherwise, that ought to bear on the case, it has come to be a cinch to have some or all of such papers spirited away.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL RENDERS OPINIONS

Law Relative to Money for Schools for Wayward Girls Is Constitutional.

ASYLUM AND REFORM SCHOOL BOARDS MEET

Miss Cornelia Marvin Appointed Secretary of Oregon Library Commission.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Salem, Or., June 6.—Attorney-General Crawford rendered two opinions yeasterday in which he holds that the law passed by the last legislature appropriating maney for their purpose the schools having for their purpose the reclamation of wayward girls, and the law taxing itinerant venders of drugs, are constitutional.

The question as to the constitutionality of the first was raised by Rev. W. H. Selleck of this city, who alleged that the only school which would receive this money was a Catholic institution in Portland. He therefore asserted that the state would be rendering assistance to a denominational institution. The attorney-general held that the money was to be expended for the support of the girls and not of any institution. He stated in his opinion that the money was to go to any institution which should reclaim wayward girls, and that the law did not say whether the school should be denominational or not, tional or not,

E. C. Case of Canby thought the law providing for the taxing of drug ped-dlers not only unconstitutional, but would contravene the interstate commerce law. In answering his letter the attorney-general holds that it is con-

The asylum and reform school boards met at the capitol yesterday afternoon and received the monthly reports from the superintendents of these institutions. The superintendent of the asylum was ordered to advertise for bids for the furnishing of the asylum supplies for the ensuing year. No appropriation being available, it was ordered that payments be made on certificates. The bids will be opened on July 16.

The average cost of the maintenance of the asylum for May was $10.76 for each inmate.

TORTURE AND HUMILIATION

For Fifteen Years Face and Body Mass of Itching Sores - Could Not Express Suffering — Doctors Failed - Had Lost Hope

CURED BY CUTICURA AT COST OF $1.25

"My head was one mass of scabs, my forehead was covered down almost to my eyebrows, and I had to wear my hat all the time. My body was covered with spots in size from a pin-head to as large as a silver dollar. A white, crusty scab would form and it h, and words cannot express the torture and humiliation I suffered for torture and humiliation I suffered for fifteen years. I tried many doctors, and all kinds of treatments, but could get no help, and I thought there was no hope for me. A friend told me to get Cutioura. I did, and in three days my head was as clear as ever. I applied the Ointment night and morning, also taking a hot bath three times a week, and using the Ointment freely after the bath. After using one cake of Soap and two boxes of Ointment I was completely cured, without mark or blemish. I was so pleased I felt like running down the street to tell every one I met what Cuticura had done for me. If any one is in doubt about this, they may write to me. (signed) H. B. Franklin, 717 Washington St., Allegheny, Pa."
