Duchess Cecille Demands No Change in Marriage Ritual.

WEDS CROWN PRINCE BEFORE GREAT THRONG

Civil Ceremony Precedes Church Service-Kaiser's Son Is Given a Palace.

(Journal Special Service.)

Berlin, June 6.—The wedding Crown Prince Frederick William, who if he lives will one day be German emperor and king of Prussis, and the Duchess Cecille of Mecklenburg Schwerin took place today in the chape of the schloss with severe though rich

The bride promised to "obey" her The first ceremonies of the day were private, and the attendance was limited to the households of the bride and bridegroom. The laws and customs of Germany, like those of most continental countries, require both a civil and a religious marriage. The civil ceremony took place this forenoon in the pelace.

The crown prince repaired to the phase the crown prince are prince to the crown prince. The pulace at Oels is very old and it is a favorite retreat of the crown prince. The surrounding country is a typical hunting ground, the forest consisting of magnificent alder the interest.

After their return from the honey. husband as the marriage ritual requires.

The first ceremonies of the day were private, and the attendance was lim-

Guards, consisting of a long blue coat, blue trousers and gaiters extending to the knees. On his head was a helmet with white plumes, and his breast was decorated with the ribbons of all the exalted orders to which he belongs. After the crown prince had taken up his stand in the chapel the German emperor arrived, accompanied by guests and deputations present as rep-guests and deputations present as rep-resentatives of the reigning families and governments of Europe and across the seas. Meanwhile the bride and her party thad left the Bellevue palace for the scene of the ceremony. The future empress was flushed and radiant as who emerged from the palace. A shout of welcome greeted his, which she bowed to acknowledge before proceeding on her way. She was escorted by a bedyguard of 12 young Mecklenburg neblemen and attended by 12 young girls belonging to the Mecklenburg aristoc-

In the Chapel

Meanwhile all the audience for the religious ceremony had assembled in the chapel. The scene was most magnificent. Though the attendance was limited to three hundred it made up a gorgeous mass of many colored uniforms and beautiful gowns with flashing jewels and glittering orders of the royal personages and nobility. In the section set aside for them were the foreign envoys. These included Archduse Francis Ferdinand of Austria, the Duke of Aosts, representing Russis, the Frince of Wales, representing Russis, the Frince Arlsugawa, representing Hussis, the Frince of Wales, representing Russis, the Frince of Wales, representing Russis, the Frince Arlsugawa, representing Hussis, the Frince Arlsugawa, representing Hussis, the Frince Arlsugawa, representing Hussis Japan, and practically all of the religing monarchs of the German states. Frince Albert of Flanders and the Crown Prince Frederick of Den-Meanwhile all the audience for the the Crown Prince Frederick of Den mark were conspicuous among thos mark were conspicuous among those present. France was represented by a delegation headed by General Lacroix and Admiral Marolles, and Turkey by the minister of mosques and churches. Turcha Pasha, and General Abdullah Pasha. The United States was represented by the American ambassador and the first secretary.

Before the wedding procession en-tered the chapel the congregation arose and the entrance was made to the strains of a military march. First came a dozen couples of royal and noble relatives of the bride, men in spectacular uniforms, women in richly colored gowns, with a great array of jewels. Then, on the arm of her brother, Grand Duke Frederick Francis of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, came the bride, in a white gown adorned with the contliest lace, a long white veil and a small wreath of myrtle on her head. In both hands she held a bouquet of lilies of the valley and green, red and longs white satin

When the party entered the chancel the bride and the crown prince took the central seats, surrounded by the members of their respective families.

The court chaplain, Dr. Drysander offered a long prayer in earnest tones Next came a hymn from the choir The duchess bowed her head low an

Fair Bulletin No. 5. June 7, '05

Pendleton-Heppner Day

Individual symnastic cham-

June Wedding Days

Are here, and for a suggestive gift of beauty, usefulness and durability there is nothing so ac-ceptable as

Sterling Silver

Our stock has "that difference" of style and finish, aside from the proper weight, that makes it desirable for selection and, with the pleasing prices, one can make choice with the greatest satisfaction.

. & C. Feldenheimer

the chaplain addressed the bridal coup

Made Man and Wife. After this the couple rose and the crown prince took the bride's right hand in his, left resting on the hilt of his sword. For several minutes they knelt before the altar with hundreds of eyes fixed on them as the deep, impressive tones of the chaplain's voice rang throughout the chapel as he repeated the marriage service.

Finally the minister held out a gold plate, from which the crown prince took a ring and placed it on the third finger of his bride's right hand. The finger of his bride's right hand. The bride took another ring, with a slight fumbling, and slipped it on the same finger of the prince's right hand. The singing of another hymn concluded the

The ceremony lasted rather more than half an hour and its conclusion was announced to the Berlin populace by the ringing of church bells and the firing of a salute of 181 guns from the firing of a salute of 101 guns from the forts round the capital.

When the ceremony was concluded congratulations were in order. The emperor immediately advanced toward the crown princess, kissed her on both cheeks, and offered her his congratulations, after which he kissed the crown prince on both cheeks and wished him lifelong happiness. All the royal ladies present kissed the bride, and the men kissed her hand. The crown prince and erown princess then signed the register.

the register.
A magnificent state banquet at the

After their return from the honey-moon the principal residence of the crown prince and his bride will be at the old palace built by Frederick the Great in Potsdam, but one of the small-er palaces in Berlin, which has been unoccupied for several years, is being fitted up and will be placed at their

Prussian royal family and all the royal HERE IS RESULT IN OFFICIAL FIGURES

(Continued from Page One.)

Robert Brady (Dem.) 117, L. L. Paget (Pro.) 22, G. Hickethier (Soc.) 25, George Sorenson (Ind.) 82.
Fourth Ward—George W. Shepherd (Rep.) 865, John Corkish (Ind.) 548, J. Ehalainen (Soc.) 45. (Rep.) 866, John Corkish (186.) 543, J.

Ehalatnen (Soc.) 46.

Fifth Ward—W. Y. Masters (Rep.)

1,145, Edward H. Cahalin (Dem.) 356,

A. F. Fuchs (Soc.) 100, Otto P. Prag

(Ind.) 79, R. H. Taje (Pro.) 46.

Sixth Ward—Henry A. Belding (Rep.)

518, H. W. Parker (Dem.) 235, George

515, H. W. Parker (Dem.) 235, George E. Strayer (Pro.) 17.
Sewenth Ward—A. G. Rushlight (Rep.) 678, Dan G. Sherrett (Dem.) 304, Sam Morrow (Pro.) 438, G. L. Prior (Soc.) 80.
Eighth Ward—Frank S. Bennett (Rep.) 784, M. A. Raymond (Cit.) 541, J. E. Knox (Pro.) 48, J. P. Polen (Soc.) 47. Precinct 44 still incomplete.
Ninth Ward—R. E. Menefee (Rep.) 846, John A. Pittinger (Ind.) 436, S. P. Anderson (Pro.) 266, C. F. Schultz (Soc.) 95.

BOY OF FOURTEEN

(Journal Special Service.)

New York, June 5.—By the terms of the Zeigler will, filed in the surrogate's office, 14-year-old William Zeigler will come into possession of $30,000,000, or an income of $125,000 a month. By the time he reaches his majority the fortyne will be much larger and he will be a factor in the financial world. Yours a factor in the financial world. Young Zeigler is the adopted son of William Zeigler, the millionairs baking powder manufacturer, who was known on two continents as the backer of north pole expeditions.

The boy's father is George A. Brand The boy's father is George A. Brandt of Chicago, half brother of the deceased millionaire. Young Brandt's mother died when he was an infant, and there being several other children, William Zeigler begged to be allowed to adopt the baby, who had been named for him. His wish was granted and little William Brandt, now Zeigler, thus becomes the relationship of the world. It is said the richest boy in the world. It is said he has been kept in ignorance of his real parentage, and has looked upon his half uncle as his father. The boy will not come into pessession

FAIRBANKS A SPEAKER AT FLINT'S JUBILEE

(Journal Special Service.)
Flint, Mich., June 6.—Flint is dressing herself in her best bib and tucker, for tomorrow is to be a red letter day in her history. It will mark the opening in her history. It will mark the opening of a two days' golden jubilee celebration and old home coming reunion. The occasion will be memorialized by the laying of the corner stone of the federal building, the unveiling of memorial tablets of civil war veterans, the dedication of the Flint public library and the dedication of the new courthouse. The exercises tomorrow will consist of laying the corner stone, and the federal government will be represented by Vice-President Fairbanks, Senetors Alger and Burrows, Governor Warner and other men of distinction. Many visitors are already arriving to take part in the celebration.

SUES FOR DIVORCE ON WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Albany, Or., June 6.—Isle Piatt yesterday filed a suit for divorce from George W. Piatt. They were married in this city June 8, 1900, or five years ago today. The wife alleges cruel treatment and abandonment. The husband is said to be in Missouri. There is one child, aged two months. The wife asks for custody of the child and the right to resume her maiden name of Isle V. Venters.

R. L. Sabin of Portland yesterday afternoon brought an attachment suit against Walker & Snyder, merchants of this city, to collect $541 alleged to be due several Portland wholesale houses for goods purchased.

WOODMEN'S MEMORIAL DAY.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Elgin, Or., June 6.—The local lodges of Woodmen of the World and Circle of Woodcraft met in their respective halls Sunday to form in line of march to go to the City cemetery where they unveiled two beautiful monuments over the graves of A. R. Tuttle and J. M. Grandin. There was a large attendance State Senstor Walter M. Pierce was the orator of the day.

MANY DELEGATES

ary Society Opens With Large Audience.

FRIDAY IS DAY NAMED FOR FINAL ADJOURNMENT

Many Will Visit Portland and Other Points of Interest in Oregon.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Albany, Or., June 6.—The convention of the Women's Missionary society of the United Presbyterian church met in this city last evening, the opening session being held in the United Presby this city last evening, the opening seasion being held in the United Presbyterian church in the presence of a large audience. Mrs. A. N. Porter of Norwood, Illinois, presided and delivered the principal address. She introduced the members of the general board of the society and each one spoke briefly, after which a short social hour was enjoyed. The Indies will be in session until Thursday, when they will adjourn and on Friday it is expected an excursion will be held to Yaquina Bay to give the visitors an opportunity to see the beauties of the Oregon coast.

Yesterday afternoon a reception was held at the residence of Rev. W. P. White of the United Presbyterian church, when the women from all parts of the United States met the women of this city.

Mrs. Douthett of Argyle, New York, opened this morning's session with prayer service, followed by morning worship by Mrs. Wherry. The business of the day was then taken up and reports of secretaries, treasurer and finance committees heard, after which an adjournment was taken until the afternoon session.

When the convention met in the afternoon reports on parsonage work, the manse, field secretary, thank offerings.

When the convention met in the afternoon reports on parsonage work, the manse, field secretary, thank offerings, magazine committee, junior sebretary and junior magazine were the topics disposed of and adjournment taken until the evening session.

The subject of the evening service is
"True Worship," and Mrs. Mary Clokey
Porter will preside. This will be followed by an address by Kate A. Hill of India and adjournment until Wednesday morning.

BOURSE RUMOR HAS CZAR ASSASSINATED

(Continued from Page One.)

Russian casualties in the battle of the Sea of Japan was 14,000 killed and drowned and 4,600 captured. Three thousand escaped. A large percentage of the prisoners are suffering from disease. The chief gunnery officer in the prisoners quarters says the Russian guns were 26 centimeter Krupps of the 1880 type.

It is stated that a number of Russian women were on board the two captured hospital ships, including Admiral Rolestvensky's nices, who asked permission to nurse her uncle.

BUSSIÁNS ALL GOWE.

(Journal Special Service.)

Cheefoo, June 6.—General Balaschoff and his staff arrived here from Port Arthur and leave today for Russia overland. The embalmed body of General Kendratchebko was brought here

Relative to high water the bulletin prepared by the weather bureau this morning states:

The upper Columbia continues to rise slowly, while a slight rise is noted this morning in the Snake river. The temperatures over the Columbia river drainage area are slightly below normal. The Willamette at Portland will continue to rise at the rate of about half a foot a day, reaching a stage of 11.7 a foot a day, reaching a stage of 11.7 Wednesday, 12.1 Thursday, and about 12.6 Friday. The stage at The Dalles this morning was 22 feet, having risen 8 inches in the was 22 feet, having risens inches it in preceding 24 hours. At Wenatchee it is 26.5 feet and rose 1.2 feet since yesterday morning. The danger point at Portland is 15 feet; it is not generally believed that stage will be reached.

ADVERTISING MEN WILL BE WARMLY WELCOMED

A meeting of the Portland Admen's league was held last night, at which a general discussion was had concerning the entertainment to be furnished the Pacific Coast Advertisors' association convention here in July. It was decided to make the visit of the California men one to be remembered. Every hour of their two days here will be full of in-terest. The officials of the exposition are joining hands with the local adver-tising league, and arrangements are being perfected to make the gathering a success in every particular. Two or three names of local men will appear on the program. They have been given subjects that will permit them to sing the praises of the Pacific northwest.

At the meeting last night the league authorized President Hall to extend to A. F. Sheidon an invitation to address the business men of Portland on the evening following the close of the advertising gathering. The Commercial vertising gathering. The Commercial mercial club parlors for the event Those who have heard Mr. Sheldon praise his ability as an entertainer.

PLUMBERS MEET IN ATLANTA.

(Journal Special Service.) Atlanta, Ga., June 6.— The twentythird annual convention of the Nationa Association of Master Plumbers opened at 10 o'clock this morning in the Grand Opera house. More than 600 delegates. representing almost every state in the Union, were present. The freedom of the city was extended to the visitors, for whom for whom response was made by the national president, David Craig of Boston. The sessions are to continue three days and will be devoted to the discussion of numerous matters of importance to the craft.

Torsure of a Prescher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased condition of Throat and Lungs. At Red Cross Pharmacy, Sixth and Oak streets. Price 50g and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

CROWD IS COMING

Convention of Women's Mission- Hundreds of Invitations Issued for Reception at Exposition on Thursday. ...

> SUNSHINE AND FLOWERS PROMISED FROM WASCO

Dufur Will Also Turn Out Large Throng-Mrs. W. Lord Will Be Hostess.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
The Dalles, Or., June 6.—The Dalles will close her stores on next Thursday and attend the Lewis and Clark exposition as that day will be The Dalles day. Hundreds of invitations have been day. It is friends in the Rose City and issued to friends in the Rose City and near by towns to attend an informal at given by The Dalles at the Ore home given by The Dalles at the Oregon building at from 2:30 until 4 p. m., although a program will be rendered in the forenoon by The Dalles people.

Dufur will also be represented on that day, sending many of her people to participate in the reception. Sunshine, fruit and flowers will be carried to the Oregon building from Wasco county on The Dalles day, and everybody is cordially invited to attend the at home.

Mrs. W. Lord is to be the hostess on this occasion and has chosen as her assistants, among others, the following ladies: Mesdames George Blakeley, S. L. Brocks, W. L. Bradshaw, H. Logan, B. S. Huntington, A. Thornbury, J. B. Condon, H. L. Kuck, D. J. Cooper, Belle Cooper Ferguson, J. C. Hostetler, H. S. Shackelford, J. M. Marden, J. Crandall, L. E. Crowe, J. M. Filloon, Misses Ruch, Thompson, Lay, Rose Michel, Callerson, Jeannette and Harriet Marden.

The program in the forenoon will condition would be program in the forenoon will condition would be program. The program in the forenoon will consist of vocal music and speeches. It is very probable that The Dalles or chestra, one of the best in the state, will render music at the at home in the Oregon building in the afternoon.

PENDLETON AND HEPPNER TOMORROW

Program for Tonight and Next Day When Warships Are Due in Harbor.

Tonight's program:
7 p. m.—Pennsylvania society in Audi

7:80 to 9:80 p. m.—Concert by Innessand, Auditorium if raining.

8 p. m.—Grand electrical illumina

11 p. m.—Gates closs.
Order of the day for tomorrow, Pendleton and Heppner day;
8 a. m.—Gates open.
9 a. m.—Bulldings, government exhibit and Trail open.

10 a. m.—Pendleton and Heppner exercises in the Oregon building; address of welcome by President H. W. Goode; music by Administration band, Signor service exhibition on the lake. service exhibition on the lake.

2:30 to 4:30 p. m.—Grand concert by
Innes band, bandstand, Gray boulevard.

2:30 to 4:30 p. m.—Grand concert by Administration band, Forestry building.

3:30 p. m.—Baseball, final game in city interscholastic championship series, Athletic park, Twenty fourth and
Vaughn streets; United States warships Chicago, Marbiehead and Bosto

BUT VERY SLOWLY 7:30 to 9:30 p. m.—Grand concert by RIVER EXCURSION IS Innes' band, bandstand.

In high water the bullette tion.—Grand electrical illumination. 9:30 p. m.—Pyrotechnic display on the 11 p. m.—Gates close. 11:30 p. m.—Grounds

SPECIAL VENIRE WILL HAVE TO BE CALLED

Out of the 48 jurors summoned for the June term of the state circuit court, Presiding Judge Frazer this morning Presiding Judge Frazer this morning excused 15 for the term, two for one week and two for one day. As this leaves only 31 jurors in the panel for the remainder of the week, a special venire will have to be issued.

The reason given by the majority of jurors who asked to be excused for the term were that they were engaged in business, and had no one to whom they could trust their interests during their absence. In other cases jurors were excused on account of sickness in their families.

RICH SONS AS LONGSHOREMEN.

Sons of wealthy men working as longshoremen and deckhands is said by Paul B. Lansing of San Francisco to be the latest fad among the moderately rich residing on the Pacific coast.

"Do you know," said Mr. Lansing. "that many of the wealthy shippers and the Pacific coast.

shipowners on the Pacific coast now have a fad which is spreading rapidly and which is unusual-most unusual handlers on their wharves, and are making their sons like it. The boys, many of whom have just been released from college, get no more money and, just as much work as any of their father's em-ployes. The old men seem to think that it will prepare the young men for their entrance into the basiness world and will make them appreciate wealth when they

100 Mercer St., Jersey City, N. J.

BEAUTIFUL HOME CHARMS GUESTS

Young Women's Christian Association Throws Building Open to Admiring Friends.

RECEPTION AT EXPOSITION IS LARGELY ATTENDED

Nursery Opens and Mothers Are Assured Children Will Have Every Care.

Hundreds of people proved their friendship for the Young Women's Christian Association last night by atending the opening reception of the pretty rustic home of the organisation was decked in holiday attire for the ceasion; beautiful roses were everywhere. In the receiving line stood Mrs. W. J. Honeyman, president of the board of directors; Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mrs. James F. Failing, Mrs. L. E. Rockwell, Miss Mabel Haseltine, all members of the board; Miss Harriet S. Vance, general secretary for Portland, and Miss Constance McCorkle, superintendent of the

In the large dining-room fruit punch was served at a number of tables. Mrs. Dell Stuart had charge of the refresh-Dell Stuart had charge of the refreshments, and the tables were presided over by Mrs. J. A. Sladen, Mrs. A. L. Maxwell, Mrs. W. P. Olds, Mrs. Dell Stuart, Mrs. W. H. Beharrel, Mrs. James Gray, Mrs. W. R. Mackenzie, Mrs. Robert Livingstone. Assisting in serving were Miss Helen Eastham, Miss Anna Stuart, Miss Maud Morey, Miss Hazel Crocker, Miss Helen Lytle, Miss Helen Bingham and Miss Lena Cunningham.

Miss Helen Bingham and Miss Lena Cunningham.

The entire house was open to inspection and the visitors were shown to the rooms by the college girls who are to be on duty through the season. There were 15 of them and they looked very pretty in their gray Quaker costume, which will be the uniform. The force will be added to later, so that there will be 20 girls on duty always. They come from the various colleges of the state, and Pacific university at Forest Grove. University of Oregon at Eugene, Agricultural college at Corvallis, Pacific college at Newberg and several others have sent girls from their associations.

clations.

Miss McCorkle has charge of the building and Mrs. Anna Crane, preceptress of the Normal school at Weston, will superintend the dining-room, though for the first two weeks Mrs. Kate Willett of Buffalo; New Work who has just come to take charge of the dining-room down town, will have charge. The first meal was served at noon today and was very largely patronized. Both men and women are accommodated in the dining-room, and the broad, open veranda, the good menus and the reasonable rates insure popularity. popularity.

The rursery, which is the only one on the grounds, was opened today and a few minutes after opening one long-robed babe was brought in for care. Miss Van Nuys will have charge of the nursery and a feature will be made of it. Kindergarten amusements will lend their attraction always, and a play-ground under the porch will be used when the rains prevent the use of the large playground in the back of the house. The restrooms, lavatories, hospital-rooms, information bureau and checknoom will easily find appreciation, and the Travelers' Ala association will have its headquarters there. Kindergarten amusements will lend

ENJOYED BY THE A. O.

About 700 people joined the river excursion conducted by the Ancient Order of Hibernians Sunday, on the barge Klickitat and the boat Glenola. The party went down the Columbia to Mountain bluffs, returning late in the evening. Music, dasking and games were features of the day's amusements and were greatly enjoyed. Several requests for another excursion have been sent in and the order may give one later in the season. The committee responsible for the success of this one was composed of John O'Hara, John Farrell, J. E. Malley, Charles Bird, E. H. Deery, P. J. Smith, D. W. Lane and T. T. Dougherty.

NOW A LOST DEED WAS POUND

After the death of the late Governor Charles Robinson it was found that he had followed up a number of valuable gifts made to the university during his lifetime by bequeathing to the university his valuable farm a few miles north of Lawrence. His widow was to have the farm during her life and then it was to go to the State university.

A few months ago L. S. Steele, an abstracter in Lawrence, was commisabstracter in Lawrence, was commis-sioned to make an abstract of the farm. He found the title vested in a sister of Governor Robinson by virtue of a deed made more than 25 years ago. The executors could not find any deed or other instrument transferring the propother instrument transferring the property to Governor Robinson. For a time it seemed as if the legacy would be lost. The woman in whom the title was vested had been dead for several years. The widow of the governor was sure that her husband had held the title to the farm at the time of his death. A thorough search was made.

Finally it occurred to one of the executors to compile a list of all of the agents Governor Robinson had employed during his lifetime. All of these agents that could be found were seen and each of them searched everywhere for the deed. Finally one of them recalled an old desk that he had sold to a second-hand dealer a few years before. The deak was traced to a farm house almost—adjoining the Robinson fore. The deak was traced to a farm house almost-adjoining the Robinson farm. The deak was searched, but the missing document was not discovered. The farmer who owned the deak was not satisfied with the search made by the lawyers who had visited him for that purpose. He took the deak apart and behind a broken panel found the missing deed.

The document was recorded the next day and the widow of Governor Robin-day and the widow of Governor Robinson is now sure of her home during her lifetime and the University of Kansas is again secure in its anticipation of a vaRiable legacy.

The Call of the Beau From Judge.

Hulda, the Swedish maid, had served or mistress faithfully for a year, when ne day she announced her fotention of

"Why, Hulda, what is the troublet" asked her mistress. "Is the work too hard, or is it the wages."
"No. De work be all right, and de wages he be too; but de beau—he must have me."

GRAY'S

THE EXCLUSIVE MEN'S APPAREL STORE

The one store where you can get fine quality and correct style. The CHESTERFIELD SUITS we have exclusive sale of for the State of Oregon are the finest ready-for-wear clothing produced in America. Any Chesterfield Suit which loses shape in one year's wear will be replaced with a new suit free. Priced $20 to $40.

Our HABERDASHERY DEPARTMENT contains every new style conceit in SHIRTS, NECK-WEAR, HALF-HOSE, UNDERWEAR, ETC.

HATS - STETSON'S, $4 to $12. Guyer, $3.50 to $4. Roland, $3. Panamas, $5 to $10. Pleased to show you any article you may wish to see. Buy them if you are pleased.

R. M. GRAY 269-271 MORRISON

OPEN FOR BUSINESS Merk's Restaurant

(FORMERLY WINTER GARDEN.) Largest and Handsomest Moderate Price Restaurant in the City.

Phone Main 6103. Take Elevator in the Alisky Building. Cor. Third and Morrison Sts.

BANK AND OFFICE RAILING

WIRE AND IRON FENCING Barbed Wire, Wire and Lawn Fencing Poultry Netting, Etc.

163 FLANDERS ST., Near Thir

PORTLAND WIRE & IRON WORKS

Phone Main 2000

DR. T. P. WIE

WISE BROS., Dentists

DEFEND COASTS BY AID OF SUBMARINES

General Staff Recommends Establishment of a New System of Defenses.

PROPOSED FLEET TO BE OPERATED BY THE ARMY

Cost of Equipment Estimated to Exceed Four Million-Navy Will Object.

defenses for coasts. The plan has been approved by Lieutenant-General Char-ice and by him will be submitted to congress. This is one of the definite congress. This is one of the definite results of the war in the far east, where torpede boats and both fixed and mobile and submarine mines played such an important part in the destruction of ships.

The new corps will embrace 5,000 officers and men, who will be trained in submarine defense, and it is proposed that members of the corps shall not only have charge of the torpedo outfits and shore batteries protecting mines and fields, but they shall be charged with the care and operation of power plants, searchlights and other accessories.

It is estimated that the cost of equipping the proposed submarine defenses ping the proposed submarine defenses will be $4,000,000. This will provide for a fleet of submarines for all the principal harbore, searchlights, equip-ment of wireless telegraph outfits and fixed and feating mines. It is expected the navy will enter an objection to the plan for a fleet of submarines to be constructed for operation by the army.

"As almost a teetolater myself," said (Journal Special Service.)

Washington, June 6.—The general the chief enemy of temperance is that the establishment of a system of submarine fit to consume."

Bon

The Best Scouring Soap Made

A Scouring Soap
A Metal Polish A Glass Cleaner