

THIS IS BAD NEWS FOR PORTLAND BOYS

Tank at Public Baths Rotten, and Swimming May Be Prohibited.

ABOUT FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS ARE NEEDED

Fifty Thousand Bathers Enjoyed Themselves There Last Year, Without an Accident.

The Portland Free Baths, which have been conducted for three years under the direction of L. Samuel and Edward Holman, are threatened and may be closed this year unless the public responds to the demand for money.

With the added weight of 600 boys it might sink at any time, said Mr. Samuel. "I thought of course there is the possibility that nothing would happen. We wish to get the money from the public-spirited citizens who are willing to turn the baths over to any responsible body of citizens for management."

MILK CRUST ON BABY

Lost All His Hair. Scratched Till Blood Ran. Grateful Mother Tells of His Cure by CUTICURA FOR 75c.

Cure by CUTICURA FOR 75c. "When our baby boy was three months old, he had the milk crust very badly on his head, so that all the hair came out, and it itched so bad he would scratch until the blood ran. I got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. I applied the Cuticura and put a thin cap on his head, and before I had used half of the box it was entirely cured, his hair commenced to grow out nicely again, and he has had no return of the trouble. BELLINGHAM WOULD MEET THE CLUBWOMEN

All the clubwomen of Portland and vicinity are invited to meet the Bellingham hostess, Mrs. Olive Leonard, and her assistants in the Washington building tomorrow afternoon.

When Kryl came to this country 10 years ago he had hair of civilized length. He signed a contract with Duss, the famous New York orchestra leader, and one clause in this contract required that he should allow his hair to grow to abnormal proportions.

Here is what they ate and drank: Oyster cocktail, olives, beefsteak, potatoes with their coats on, baked beans from Boston, brown bread, more beefsteak, Dutch pickles, legs of old chickens, corn in the husk, just beefsteak, tomatoes, old Virginia, coffee-bris, Most of each man wore a white cap and a cook's apron in addition to the usual dinner raiment. Each apron bore the name of the association, its objects and the names of all present, including a line touching upon each individuality. This is the inscription on the aprons: John M. Thurston (toastmaster), "I love to sing 'My Old Kentucky Home'"; D. C. Lewis, "Waiting for 'Fiddle-Dee-Dee'"; John C. Lewis, "All gold and a yard wide"; J. C. Lewis, "Sanford Hirsch, 'If you want to cure lumbago, drink Pommeroy Brat'; E. M. O'Brien, 'Hurry up, quick; they're at the post'; Robert T. Smith, 'On the quiet, I'm a cook'; F. A. Spencer, 'Preferred stock'; Gus Simon, 'Smoke up, you're too trusting'; Ignatz Lowengart, 'Mother knows I'm out, but she don't know much'; Ion Lewis, 'Just as you are'; H. H. Travis, 'We were going some, but the chain broke'; Clarence Jacobson, 'That won't happen again'; C. S. Jackson, 'The wild, wild, wild'; D. M. Dunne, 'We knew Uncle Sam'; J. Sox Wilcox, 'Something will turn up'; J. C. Garretson, 'I'm all O. K. if the gasoline holds out'; H. T. Hendryx, 'The Red the first high ball at Fort Sumner'."

KRYL'S CURLS WILL BE CUT THIS WEEK

Cornet Soloist of Innes' Band Will Have Half-Yearly Operation Performed.

COSTS HIM A DOLLAR TO HAVE LOCKS SHORN

He Has Possibly the Longest Hair on Any Musician in the Northwest.

Bohumir Kryl, the long-haired cornet soloist with the Innes band, intends to get a haircut. He is quietly investigating janitorial conditions in Portland, and as soon as he finds a barber who can furnish a satisfactory bond he will subject himself to the ordeal.

Kryl has a mat of hair, the like of which has never been seen in Portland. Standing with his back to the audience one can scarcely see anything of Kryl but his hair's adornment. On a windy day he has to control it by means of strong cords.
