

TODAY'S DOINGS IN OREGON CITY

RAILROAD FRANCHISE GRANTED BY COUNCIL

In Return Company Agrees to Do Much Work in Way of Street Crossings.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Oregon City, June 5.—The city council in regular session last night passed the ordinance granting the railroad franchise to the Oregon & California railroad for the use of Railroad avenue for two sidings and main track. As a condition of this franchise the railroad company will construct an underground crossing for pedestrians at Sixth and Fourth streets, an overhead crossing for pedestrians at Seventh and Eighth streets and an underground crossing for teams and foot passengers at Third street. The railroad also agrees to complete what is known as the South End road. These improvements will cost about $25,000 and work on them will be commenced as soon as the ordinance is passed.

Liquor licenses were granted to Kelly & Rucanich and Louis De Prensio. Council accepted the invitation of the tournament committee to take part in the Fourth of July parade and appropriated $50 toward the expense. One thousand feet of hose was purchased for $500. The balance due Jacob Wind for reclamation of saloon license, $166, was ordered refunded. Grades were ordered established on Jackson street, between Fourth and Fifth, and on Madison street, between Seventh and Eighth.

A grade was ordered established on the alley east of Main street, between Ninth and Tenth, with the expectation of making other improvements. The usual reports of the city officers were made and the usual batch of monthly claims were allowed. The mayor appoints Messrs. Brant and Chapman a committee to confer with the tournament management on the building of a bandstand not to cost more than $100. An ordinance was passed establishing a grade on Eleventh and Moss streets. An ordinance was passed assessing the cost of the Third street improvements.

Joseph Kursten was elected water commissioner for the ensuing year. The spring on Third street was ordered curbed and its drainage controlled. The new addition to the Cataract hose company's house was ordered painted. The recorder was instructed to advertise for bids for the improvement of Fourth and Fifth streets from the railroad to the river. The proposition to tax meat peddlers $25 a month was referred to a special committee.

JUDGE M'BRIDE'S AGE FIFTY-SEVEN YEARS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Oregon City, June 5.—The report has been industriously circulated that Judge Thomas A. McBride of the circuit court of this district, who is prominently mentioned as the successor to the late Judge C. B. Bellinger, is 60 years old. Friends of Judge McBride, knowing this is the only objection to his appointment that has been raised, feel that this is an injustice. Judge McBride is only 57 years old and he is as vigorous as many men of 47 years.

This 60-year-old story has been printed in all the Portland newspapers and Judge McBride's friends hope that the truth about his age will attain the same publicity. He has received the indorsement of every attorney in his district.

To Hang July Thirteenth

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Oregon City, June 5.—Unless executive clemency shall intervene George Lauth will be executed at Salem Thursday, July 13. Judge McBride has fixed that date for the hanging. So far as is known this will be the first legal execution in a state on a day other than Friday. When asked why he broke the time honored and traditional rule of having hangings on Friday, Judge McBride said he never gave the matter a thought, but selected July 13 as being a few days after the required 90 days will have expired. He added that being on the 13th should serve to make this day sufficiently unlucky.

Child Expires

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Oregon City, June 5.—Annie Borhels, the daughter of Frank Borhels, died Tuesday night after a lingering illness. The funeral will take place this afternoon at Jefferson.

THE LATEST NEWS OF VANCOUVER

MUCH BUSINESS DONE BY COMMISSIONERS

Contracts for Bridge Work and Other Improvements in Clarke Let.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., June 5.—At yesterday's session of the county commissioners more business was transacted than is usually the case in two days. The contract for renewing the piers of the Lewisville bridge was awarded to Robert Webster at $7.75 per cubic yard for either stone or concrete and $30 for other work necessary. It will take 70 cubic yards to construct the piers. There were two other bidders. E. J. Allen put in a bid of $7 per cubic yard and wanted $140 for extra work. Van Camp & Dole put in a bid of $18.50 per cubic yard and $200 for extra work.

Sale of Mill Recorded

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., June 5.—A bill of sale was yesterday recorded in the auditor's office transferring the plant of the Columbia River Paper company to the Crown-Columbia Pulp & Paper company, with headquarters in French Creek. While the instrument transferring the property gives a nominal consideration, it is understood that the price was a good one. The new company is a consolidation of the Crown Paper company and the local company. E. W. Leadbetter, former proprietor of the local plants, will be first vice-president of the new company. In charge of the property which he sold, it is understood that the new concern will at once increase the capacity of all three of the plants taken in.

TO SOON WED WOMAN WHOSE LIFE HE SAVED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Oregon City, Or., June 5.—Mrs. J. C. Peel of Portland has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Miss Florence Rainford Peel, to John Brantwood Lewthwaite of Oregon City. The marriage will take place at the Cumberland Presbyterian church Thursday evening, June 15, at 8:30 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Lewthwaite will reside in Oregon City and will be at home after July 10.

More than the usual amount of romance is woven around this approaching marriage. About a year ago Mr. Lewthwaite, Miss Peel and another young woman were on the Clackamas river in a skiff. The river was high and the water swift and treacherous. The boat capsized and all three went under. After he saw that one young woman was hanging to the upturned boat and was temporarily safe, he saved Miss Peel from drowning after she had sunk and risen to the surface twice. He came pretty nearly being drowned himself. This was the beginning of the pretty romance that will reach its happy fruition next Thursday.

Local and Personal

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Oregon City, June 5.—Miss Corilla Schonkwiller and Miss Warnock of California are visiting Miss Myrtle Schonkwiller. The school board of Oswego has selected the following teachers: Miss Maud Zimmerman, Miss Eunice Garfield, Mrs. Van Horn. The principal is yet to be selected. The board at Oak Grove has appointed Miss Elizabeth Hayward and Miss Annie T. Smith as teachers. Examinations of pupils in the eighth grade of the public schools are in progress in all the schools in Clackamas county.

Clarke County Man Seriously Injured

Buyer Horse and Attempts to Ride It Home but Receives Broken Arms.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., June 5.—G. W. Welner, who lives near Minnehaha school was thrown from a horse while on his way home from this city yesterday. Both arms were broken and in other ways he was badly injured. He was brought to this city and the broken bones were set after much difficulty. While it is thought Welner will survive his injuries, it will be several months before he will again be able to work. For several days Indians have been selling horses here for the sum of $5 and upwards. Hearing that it was possible to secure a horse at a great bargain in this way, Welner came to this city and made his purchase. After leading the animal for several miles on his way home he decided to ride the steed, with the above results.

At the Courthouse

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., June 5.—Four transfers of real estate were recorded and one marriage license issued yesterday by Auditor Burnham. The transfers were as follows: Owen Mulligan to Robert Laver, lots 5 and 6 in block 50, west of Main street, and lots 1, 2, 7 and 8 in block 10, and lots 7 and 8 in block 20, of Portland addition, and lots 7 and 8 in block 2 of North Vancouver; consideration, $1. Michael O'Connell and his wife to F. M. Hansch and his wife, lot 4 in block 48, west of Main street; consideration, $1. Frederick W. Leadbetter and his wife to Crown Pulp & Paper company, all the lands on the north bank of LaCamas slide; consideration, $1. The marriage license was issued to W. F. Motley and Agnes Hughes of Portland.

Columbia Rising

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., June 5.—During the last week the Columbia river at this city has risen at the average rate of a foot a day. It is now higher than it has been this year and bids fair to go as high as it was in 1899. Eight feet will put it up to the 1899 mark. Old-timers do not look for a flood, as the warm weather of February and March took away a considerable amount of the snow in the foothills.

Local and Personal

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., June 5.—Miss Ida Willoughby is visiting friends at Woodland. W. O. W. band will play at Eichenlaub's hall this evening. Mrs. E. C. Sterling left for her home at Wenatchee, Washington, to spend her vacation. Mrs. Sterling will probably teach at this place again next year. William Devine left this morning for Portland, where he will work at H. R. Rollin's brickyard. William Moore and his wife of Pendleton, A. E. Sermon of Portland, B. D. Henry of Hood River, Washington, Roy Hugger of Topeka, Kansas; D. H. Martin of Seattle, J. A. Selout of San Francisco, Slocum Grant of Hayes, Washington, and J. Seaman of Portland were registered at the Hotel Columbia yesterday. Eight members of the Portland Hunt club visited Vancouver this morning and rode through the garrison and along the Fruit valley road. Vancouver has become a favorite resort for members of the Hunt club.

MEETING CAPITAL OF WA

Women's Missionary Convention Elects Officers and Chooses Des Moines.

HOME MISSION WORK IN FLOURISHING CONDITION

Final Reports Received Today and Adjournment Taken Until Next Year.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Albany, June 5.—The most important work of the women's missionary convention yesterday afternoon was the election of officers for the coming year and the selection of Des Moines, Iowa, as the next place of meeting. The officers chosen are: President, Mrs. W. F. White of this city, wife of the pastor of the United Presbyterian church here; first vice-president, Miss Margaret Mitchell, Pittsburg; secretary, Mrs. Mary W. Porter, treasurer, Mrs. J. B. Hill, Board of directors, Miss E. J. Sloan, Mrs. R. A. Elliott, Mrs. N. Wylie Stevenson, Mrs. N. L. Wallace. Magazine committee: Mrs. W. C. Hutchison, Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. H. C. Dean, Mrs. E. M. Kelso, Miss Elmer Collins. The committee on place of next meeting reported that invitations had been received to hold the next annual meeting at Detroit, Michigan; Chicago, Illinois, and Des Moines, Iowa. Des Moines was chosen as the place of meeting for next year.

The report of the home mission work read yesterday afternoon shows that the society owns orphan's homes at Allegheny, Pennsylvania, in which 80 children are being cared for. A hospital owned by the society is being increased and thoroughly equipped, and recently Andrew Carnegie endowed two rooms to be named after his wife and daughter, he giving $1,500 toward equipping the institution. In the home for the aged 51 persons are being cared for and more room is being added so that other applicants may be received.

At the evening session the new officers were presented to the convention. During the evening it was announced that Miss Emma Dean Anderson's passing to her heavenly home had been secured and she would sail for her field of work September 5. She appeared before the convention for a brief farewell address and was given a warm reception. The final reports of the committees will be received today and the convention will adjourn some time this afternoon, when the delegates will leave, many of them going to California while a good proportion of them will go to Portland and spend some time at the exposition before leaving for their eastern homes.

WOMAN IS CONTENTED WITH HALF A MILLION

(Journal Special Service.) Chicago, June 5.—With the return to Chicago, Mrs. Elizabeth V. Asay and the relatives of the late Peter L. Kimberly, the mining man, who left an estate valued at $1,000,000, came an announcement that there will be no will contest, and that Mrs. Asay will get the $500,000 left her by the terms of Kimberly's will. Mrs. Asay said: "There is no reason why I should try to break Mr. Kimberly's will. He provided me enough money to live the rest of my life, and even if he had not I have means of my own. I lived as Mr. Kimberly's wife for 25 years. I never had a single quarrel with him, except when we traveled, and then he registered me as his wife at hotels. In New York and San Francisco and other cities I met all my best friends, who knew that I was not his wife."

CRUSHED BY CAVING BANK AT SUSANVILLE PLACERS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Canyon City, Or., June 5.—By being caught in a caving bank at Buck Gulch placers, near Susanville, this county, G. J. Tucker was fatally injured Monday, dying a few hours after being released from the debris. Tucker was one of the early citizens of this part of Grant county. The Buck Gulch placers are in the Big Creek placer district, where there is considerable placer work every spring. In some of the alluvium beds are deep and it is necessary to observe great caution in operating the giants.
