address by Bishop Keaton. June 15—Thursday morning and aft-ernoon, women's auxiliary at Goed Shepherd church; address by Bishop ficials of the 55th convention in their chairs. There was an exceptionally heavy attendance of delegates from blue Keaton. June 15-Thursday evening, opening lodges, and the auditorium of the temple was filled to the doors. Between 350 and 400 delegates are here, while there services of convention, Bishop Morris nnual address. June 16-Friday, 10:30 a.m., holy ommunion, followed by business conis a large throng of visiting blue lodge men and past grand officials.

Opening ceremonies, naming commit-tees and feading of the grand master's report consumed the morning hours, and routine business was taken up in the afternoon.

The grand lodge will be in session three days, but nothing is imparted as to whether special business other than the building project will be taken up. Election of officers and installation will be deferred until toward the close of the grand lodge and all master Masons de-siring to do so will attend the production of "The Widow's Son" at the Scot-tish Rite cathedral. Other especial functions will be arranged for the entertainment of visitors.

ar, finished its annual sion late last evening, with exemplification of degree work by the Oregon City team, Pioneer chapter No. 28, for Grand Worthy Matron Conkling of the national organization. She urged the Oregon women to bring a team next year to Milwaukee to take part in a national contest.

The grand lodge session terminated appily. In addition to the degree work put on, there were social features that happily. brought out a strong attendance, filling Woodmen of the World hall, at East Woodmen of the World hall, at East Sixth and East Alder streets, to the ante-room. There was little routine business, save election of officers and installations. The floral work in the evening was by Rose City chapter, recently organized.

Far Easier to Cure Catarrh Now Than at Any Other Season.

Now is the time to use Hyomei. when the early summer days make it so casy to cure catarrhal troubles. The Hyomei treatment, breathed for a few minutes three or four times a day in May or June will do good twice as quickly as it did in January, and nearly everyone knows that used faithfully then, it completely rids the system of catarrh.

system of catarrh. Hyomei is a purely vegetable prep-aration whose active curative prop-erties are given off when it is breatlied by the aid of the pocket inhaler that comes with every outfit. It destroys all germ life in the air passages, puri-fies the blood by supplying additional ozone, and its healing, volatile, anti-septic fragrance reaches every corner of the respiratory tract as no med-icine taken through the stomach can possibly do. possibly do.

possibly do. The complete Hyomei outfit costs but one dollar, and consists of a neat inhaler that can be carried in the purse or vest-pocket and will last a lifetime, a medicine dropper, and a bottle of Hyomei. Extra bottles of Hyomei can be procured, if desired, for fifty cents.
