June's Rarest Bargain Roses are on Friday's Spreading Bush

Remarkable values in tomorrow's 11th Grand "Friday Economy Sale." Merchandise new and styles fresh as the morning. Pluck to your heart's content, get the purse's fill while prices droop thus low, bent by the force of Special Friday Prices

TO THE GRADUATE:

You've finished with High school—for instance; you've devoted years to acquiring a good education; your parents may have strained every nerve to keep the home going and you at school. Now you face the world—and it looks cold and heartless; every one seems wrapped in selfish concerns; you look for a situation, try place after place, and in every-day parlance "get turned down." You see the pinch of it all—and from trying to get a place that promises promotion, you falter and are ready to take "any kind of a job." Don't. REMEMBER THAT A PORTLAND HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATE IS WORTH SOMETHING. When looking for a place or writing in reply to advertisements, mention this great qualification. You've no business experience, to be sure, and the pay must be small to start with, but, engaged on a high school basis you are in an atmosphere conducive to development and quicker promotion. Just as in the German army, the several years' service exacted of an unschooled recruit is shortened in the case of a man graduated from the gymnasium to a year or two. The latter seems to learn more quickly because of previous mental training. Friends and "backers" don't amount to "a hill of beans" nowadays—the healthy young man or woman has success wrapped up in the individual. Not all can become millionaires, but every one with youth, health of mind and body can succeed. The man or woman who challenges this statement is a misanthrope. Don't get sour; don't get discouraged. You're welcome to this advice from this big store—you'll thank us for it some time. It's bread we cast on the waters.

Exquisite French Lingerie at 1/3 Reduction

SPECIAL FOR FRIDAY ONLY IN THE UNDERMUSLIN SALONS—ANNEX—SECOND FLOOR.

This time the manufacturer blundered, and our patrons reap the fruits of his carelessness. A famous French maker of lingerie shipped us duplicate orders of beautiful Undermuslin. We notified him by letter and he immediately cabled us a price on the lot that decided us to keep them to hand you as bargains. He preferred to pay us the costs of freight back to sunny France rather than we should return the goods to him weeks old and his season over. Result—a third reduction on prices. You become partners in this fortunate transaction tomorrow—'tis indeed "an ill wind that waits no one good." Full lines of laundered and unlaundered Gowns, Drawers, Chemise, Corset Covers and Petticoats are embraced. All beautifully embroidered by hand in every delightful design, from the modest, dainty polka dotted patterns to the most elaborate fancies. Regular prices range from $2.25 to $47.50.

As a companion sale we shall offer for the day all the latest shapes, embracing polo turbans, "Maxine Elliott's" French Sailors, etc. Special at a choice for.....25c
