Might as well go thro' an art gallery without a catalogue as to the exposition without an "Official Guide." We have arranged to make it easy for our patrons to get them. The "Guide" gives at a glance the location of anything within the fair grounds with pictures and descriptions of all buildings, ground plan of exposition and official street car map of Portland. A grand souvenir, splendid to send to eastern friends. The price every where is 25c. . We're going to provide the way for you

THE "GUIDE" 5C

We've arranged with the management to start Monday morning to give a ticket with every purchase of $1 or over at the store, which—presented at the "Guide" head-quarters, south end of Oriental building at the grounds, will be worth 20c toward the purchase of the "Guide." All bearers of these tickets may buy the

A Colossal Purchase and Gigantic Slaughter of $10,000 Worth of Splendid Blankets from the Pendleton Mills!

We've closed the entire Blanket Stock from these famous mills-at tremendous sacrifice! And shall offer the blankets to our patrons the coming week at heretofore unheard of prices. For many years we've been first and foremost in the blanket business along the western coast, supplying most of the great hotels and lodging houses for miles around, as well as the thousands of homes; but never before has it been our privilege to offer our patrons values equal to these. The great Pendleton mills were closing up their season's business, knowing our great outlet

THE MOUNTAIN CAME TO MAHOMET

And offered irresistible temptations for us to take the load off their shoulders onto our broad back-not to carry, but to unload quickly, scattering it to the four points of the compass in short order at short prices. Our regular stock is more than usually attractive now, but its general excellence detracts naught from the wonderful values of these special items. Most of them are the identical numbers we handle regularly, and all of them are of such quality as to merit our heartiest recommendation. Sale opens at 8 a. m. tomorrow-the axe has fallen leaving marks like these-Fourth Floor.
