

CORBETT BLANKS SWASH INDIANS

New Twirler Puts Kinks Into the Batting Eyes of Visiting Players.

LOU RUNKLE PLAYS FAST BALL AT THIRD

Game Was Slow From Start and Bull Durham Couldn't Enliven It.

Portland 3, Seattle 0. Batteries—Corbett and McLean, C. Hall and Blankenship.

The feature of the game was the presence of "Lilliputtian" Perrine, who headed the indicator.

Corbett made good with the fans. He got into several tight holes, but emerged gracefully by using headwork.

Seattle became violent at several stages, but could not muster sufficient strength to develop a rally.

Fielding honors go to Runkle. Lou stole two bases without an error.

Seattle advanced men as far as second and third in the first two innings, but were unable to negotiate the register till the third.

Seattle's last run came in the eighth and was a gift on the part of Lefty Houze, who, with two down and one on third, dropped Atz' fly, allowing Runkle to score.

CORNELL FAVORITE IN ANNUAL RACE

Coach Courtney's Oarsmen Looked Upon as Sure Winners of Event.

POUGHKEEPSIE SCENE OF GREAT ACTIVITY

Wisconsin, Columbia and Pennsylvania Crews Are Toiling Faithfully for Struggle.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, June 21.—The oarsmen hold the center of the stage among college athletes just now, and will until the great intercollegiate regatta has been rowed at Poughkeepsie and Yale and Harvard have tried conclusions.

The river about Poughkeepsie represents a busy scene. Cornell, Columbia, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania are all on hand and the other crews will be on hand next week.

Cornell is the favorite for the race now on performance, and Courtney says mainly for a heavy trim and excellent list of the following list of the crews, as they will row, according to the present intentions, shows:

SPORTING NOTES.

Everything went along so smoothly and quietly at Recreation park that half of the fans enjoyed a fiesta.

Drink shortens a man's days, say the reformers. That's right. The longest day we ever put in was at a temperance town.

A man who eats oafs' brains and oatmeal soup may be said to be going to extremes in his diet.

Joseph McCabe, president of the A. A. U., is due here tomorrow to see how the sports are being conducted at the fair. It is not likely that Mr. McCabe will allow any more professionals to compete under the A. A. U. rules.

Jockey Hildebrand has been reinstated because Harry Payne Whitney says the "grossly incompetent rider" was all a mistake. It isn't everywhere that a judge will take the unsupported word of an owner, but it goes in New York, if the owner has an annual pass to the track.

The Detroit woman who wants a divorce because her husband never brings anything home after he has been fishing, doesn't know her luck. When most husbands have been fishing they bring a package home with them.

Bill Delaney, the champion-maker, announces he has retired from the business of helping boat-handling pugilists in order to give the young fellows a chance to make good. Very considerate of Bill, to be sure, but we had not noticed he was standing in front of any worthy aspirant in the profession in which he has been such a conspicuous ornament.

Tommy Burns has returned and says that he will take on Billy Smith and Tom Tracey in one evening at Tacoma, and if he can't beat both he will not accept a cent of the purse.

"Mysterious" Billy Smith says that Burns will be the luckiest man in the world if he can last 10 rounds. Billy is real cross at Burns and declares that Burns will get a fine trimming should they ever meet. Billy won't accept a penny if he can't whip Burns in 10 rounds.

And Tommy Tracey says that Burns cannot stop one side of him in 10 rounds. Tommy is hostile at all Burns' declarations, and states that Burns must either put up now or shut up forever.

It has leaked out that the judges appointed to look after the objective end of the international yacht race were not properly looked after themselves. The necessity of going ashore every little while could have been obviated by the use of a ship of greater displacement in the cold storage department.

Manager McCredie is on the lookout for a young catcher, as Harry Murphy leaves the local team Sunday for Denver where he is to join one of the Western League clubs that has a claim on his services. It seems that Murphy signed with some Western League club last winter but was not called upon to report right away, and took advantage of Portland's offer to get in the game until he was wanted.

Billy Kane is not coming to Seattle after all. This has been a case of "he loves me, he loves me not," and the "not" finally won out. Manager Hall was notified yesterday that Billy had refused to take up his ticket or the advance money that has been in St. Louis.

Drunkards Cured In One Day

Any Lady Can Do It Secretly at Home—Costs Nothing to Try.

An odorless and tasteless remedy when put in the drunkard's coffee or beer will destroy all craving for drink. This remedy is so simple that any one can use it and the drunkard need never know why he quit drinking intoxicating liquors.

Many have been cured in one day with a free trial alone.

THE OUTCOME OF A DRUNKEN SPEE.

A Trial Package of the Great Haines-Otto Wine Cure for Drunkenness.

Lois Pendleton, Rocky Mountain, Va., cured her drunken father with the free package of Golden Specific which Dr. Haines sent to her.

My husband and I took two doses of your medicine about five months ago and she has not taken a drink or had any desire for liquor since then.

Mrs. Mattie Baikin, Vancouver, Ky., says: "My husband and I took two doses of your medicine about five months ago and she has not taken a drink or had any desire for liquor since then.

Mrs. Mable Zink, R. E. D. No. 8, Salem, Oregon, says: "My husband and I took two doses of your medicine about five months ago and she has not taken a drink or had any desire for liquor since then.

NOTICE TO AMATEURS.

All notices of amateur baseball games, challenges and athletic events must be sent to this office before 9 o'clock a. m. on the day for publication.

for weeks, and the deal is now all off for keeps. While Billy was trying to make up his mind, Seattle has been without a second baseman for Burns was allowed to go to Everett upon the positive assurance from Kane that he would join the Seattle team in "Erico."

Dick Eagan is expected to join the Swashes this week. He will be played on third base and McHale sent back to his regular position in the outfield.

Big Thompson, the school teacher who pitched such good ball for the Helena team three years ago, would like to wear a Seattle uniform.
