

SALARY TOO SMALL FOR MISS TINGLE

City Market Inspector Hands in Resignation and Board of Health Accepts It.

CLEAN SHOP CRUSADE IS LIKELY TO LANGUISH

Knows No One Competent to Fill Place Who Would Do the Work.

Miss Lillian E. Tingle tendered her resignation as city market inspector to the city board of health this morning.

Miss Tingle was present, and when asked whom she would recommend as her successor stated that she did not know any one competent to fill the position who would accept it.

Miss Tingle was appointed in May as the result of a determined effort on the part of housewives to get clean markets. She has succeeded in getting many reforms in the shops and markets of the city.

CORVALLIS TO VOTE ON WATER QUESTION

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Corvallis, July 1.—July 8 is the date set for a meeting of the special water committee of the council. On that date the citizens of Corvallis will express by vote their desires for or against the building of a mountain water system for Corvallis.

Since the warfare begun there has sprung into existence a little four-page paper called "The Investigator." It opposes vigorously the proposed water system scheme.

HOFFMAN IS HELD TO CIRCUIT COURT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Woodburn, Or., July 1.—John Hoffman, charged with robbing the bank of Woodburn, had a preliminary hearing in Justice Overton's court this morning and was held to the circuit court.

He was identified by Mr. Otjen as one of two men who passed him at his farm on the afternoon of May 3 and who applied to him two or three days before that date for something to eat.

Miss Harberger recognized the prisoner as the taller of the two men who passed her on a run May 3, and stated it was either him or his twin brother, F. C. Prevost and Henry Helmsken testified to seeing him in Woodburn on the day of the robbery.

T. C. Poorman and Miss Eddy of the bank could not identify the man, but thought he resembled the man who went behind the counter and took the money. Hoffman was quiet, but carefully scrutinized every witness. He had no attorney.

NEW SECRETARY OF THE NAVY

(Journal Special Service.)

Washington, D. C., July 1.—In the presence of the president, the cabinet, the Maryland delegation in congress and a number of other friends in official life, Charles J. Bonaparte of Baltimore, took the oath of office as secretary of the navy today.

After the ceremony Mr. Bonaparte received the congratulations of all present and then retired for a private conversation with the president. The new secretary took charge of the navy department about noon. There were good wishes and leave takings for the retiring secretary, Paul Morton, and many hearty congratulations for his successor, the various officials of the department being presented to the new secretary in the order of their rank.

placed in irons and marched to the city prison where they are locked up, thus a direct violation of the promise made them. Martial law prevails at Libau and no citizens are allowed to leave their houses. Business is at a standstill and shops are closed.

WIDESPREAD DISCONTENT

The mutiny of the Potemkine and Ekaterina II reveals the true situation and the danger of disintegration that faces the throne. Widespread and profound discontent exists among officers, soldiers and sailors and it is universally thought that the army cannot be relied upon permanently to oppose a general national movement.

Martial law has been proclaimed at Sebastopol, Nikolaiet and Erivan. Imperial decrees have been issued conferring on the viceroy of the Caucasus supreme rights and on the admiral of the Black sea fleet the same privileges.

TWO THOUSAND KILLED

(Journal Special Service.)

Vienna, July 1.—Fugitives from Odessa arriving in Austria give harrowing accounts of the brutalities of soldiers and Cossacks in suppressing riots. Defenseless men and women were shot down on the streets without cause. The cavalry repeatedly charged on the crowds, riding down people without mercy.

Rioters broke into liquor shops and looted them. Cossacks shot down drunken men like dogs. Over 2,000 persons were burned to death in the immense dock fire.

Fugitives declare the casualties exceed 2,000.

FIVE CREWS MUTINY

(Journal Special Service.)

Sunderland, England, July 1.—James Westall, a ship owner here, received a message from Odessa this morning saying that five crews of warships had mutinied when they arrived off port and now threaten to bombard the town.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Pendleton, Or., July 1.—The regents of the Eastern Oregon Normal school, located at Weston, met last night and decided to open the school this fall even if assistance is not given by the state. More than $14,000 has been pledged by outside persons for the maintenance of the school.

CONSERVATIVES' LONG LEASE

(Journal Special Service.)

London, July 1.—It will be 10 years tomorrow since the Conservatives entered on their long lease of office, Lord Salisbury having become prime minister for the third and last time July 2, 1895.

In spite of incessant attacks on the government in parliament during the last year or so and the difficulty at times of maintaining anything like normal majorities, there is no reason to believe that Mr. Balfour has any present intention of tendering his resignation, nor have the Liberal leaders at this moment any desire to attempt to force him to take this step. It is known that Mr. Balfour desires to remain in power at least until important pending questions are settled, such as Morocco and the Russo-Japanese war.

BOARD OF HEALTH WON'T PAY THE BILL

Debts incurred by the Robinsons at the Garbage Crematory Remain Unsatisfied.

NO REQUISITIONS FOR THE GOODS PURCHASED

Meat Companies Protest Against Revocation of Inspection Ordinance Passed by Council

The city board of health refused to audit bills amounting to $229 for material for repairs and supplies for the city garbage crematory this morning on the ground that they had been incurred without requisitions. City Auditor Devin stated that Robert Robinson, senior and junior, had purchased a large amount of material without authority.

Neither Robinson junior nor senior was present and the city auditor was instructed to notify the superintendent of the crematory to attend the meetings of the board of health hereafter.

The Union Meat company and the Pacific States Packing company filed a remonstrance against the proposed ordinance recently passed by the city council and the validity of which is being tested in the courts.

Dr. J. C. Zan reported five cases of smallpox at the pesthouse, all of which had been traced to persons coming to the city. Dr. Yenny, secretary of the state board of health, was asked to make an investigation of the cases and notify the authorities in the country districts to enforce the proper quarantine regulations regarding smallpox.

TO INVESTIGATE USE OF KNOCKOUT DROPS

(Journal Special Service.)

Daley Mendenhall, summoned as a witness for Frank Henshaw and L. Pontius, charged with the larceny of $200 from L. W. Phillips, informant of George Henshaw, that she heard Henshaw planning to rob Shultz and saw him afterward give Marguerite Kiser all or part of the stolen money.

"A few days ago," she said, "I saved a man who had been given knockout drops from being robbed of $100 by this Kiser girl."

On receiving this information the police took immediate action, getting Police Judge Cameron to postpone the hearing of Henshaw and Pontius to Monday in order that a further investigation may be made.

size these conditions, and their plans are being made accordingly, with a view to placing the Northern Pacific in a commanding position. It is said Portland, is to be made the chief Pacific coast terminal with Seattle, Tacoma and the completion of the Columbia river jetty and the deepening of the channel there for passage of the largest sea-going vessels this city will immediately be made the port of entry for the bulk of oriental shipping trade. With a fresh water harbor, many miles nearer than either Seattle, Tacoma or San Francisco to the orient, Portland will become the queen city of the Pacific seaboard.

Through trains from St. Paul are to be run over the Northern Pacific and the O. R. & N. from Wallula Junction to Portland, and in exchange for the use of O. R. & N. track in this arrangement the Harriman road will run trains over the new Columbia river bridge and the Northern Pacific tracks to Seattle and Tacoma.

As a forerunner of this, the O. R. & N. is now advertising heavily in Seattle passenger business, and preparations are being made for a stronger advertising campaign in the sound cities by streetcar cards, newspapers and other methods. The first lot of streetcar cards advertising the O. R. & N. in Seattle and Tacoma cars have just been issued.

Streetcar travel between Portland and Vancouver will be carried over the new Columbia river bridge of the Northern Pacific. The Portland Consolidated has begun legal action to condemn a new right of way from a point at the north end of Union avenue straight to the site for the Northern Pacific bridge opposite Shaw's island. The suit is brought under the title of "Portland Vancouver & St. Johns Railway company vs. Struble." Mr. Struble is administrator of the estate of Lewis Love, through whose lands the new route will run a large part of the distance to the Columbia river. The new line will be about two and a half miles long. A portion of the old line to the present ferry will be abandoned when the new one is built.

Organ selections—"Vorspiel" to Lohengrin, Wagner (transcribed by Homer N. Bartlett); "War March" from Rienzi, Wagner (transcribed by Edgar S. Kelley); "Pillgrims' Chorus" from Tannhauser, Wagner (transcribed by Franz Liszt); postlude, "Larghetto," Gieseler, anthem, contralto solo and quartet, "Now the Day is Over," Shelby; contralto solo, "Resignation," Schubert.
