

JEALOUS WIFE FIRES TWO DEADLY BULLETS

Mrs. Thomas J. Dodgson, of Salt Lake, Upbraids Her Husband and Slays Him on Public Street.

URNS PISTOL ON HERSELF AND FALLS DYING BY HIS SIDE

Couple Had Separated Three Weeks Ago and Man Was Killed Because He Refused to Live With Wife.

Insane from jealousy and because of the refusal of her husband, Thomas J. Dodgson, to live with her after a separation lasting about three weeks, Gertrude Dodgson shot him dead on the front porch of the Northern Hotel, Twelfth and Northrup streets, at 11:20 o'clock this morning.

The double tragedy was witnessed by two persons, Mrs. P. Hart and her son, Dan Hart, living at 465 Northrup street, who were standing on the front porch.

It is better so. She was very unhappy and would not let her husband have a moment's rest. She was insanely jealous of him. Since they separated she has seen after him continually, trying to get him to live with her again. His refusal ended in his death.

Death was almost instantaneous. Dodgson moved only slightly for a few moments as he lay on the ground.

When the bullet struck him he had his hands in his trousers pockets, and had a toothpick between his lips. They were still there when he was picked up dead.

The neighborhood was convulsed with excitement after the shooting, and in a few minutes the bodies were surrounded by a crowd of men and women.

When the bodies were removed to the morgue by Coroner Finley after a brief investigation, and an inquest will be held tomorrow or Thursday.

Mr. Dodgson carried a small handbag, containing a purse which held $1.33 in silver and coppers, a pair of white gloves and some charcoal tablets. No papers were in this match.

Mr. Dodgson was a good looking young man, with dark complexion and hair, and face smoothly shaven. He wore a butternut-colored suit of clothes, tan shoes, fashionable cravat and was very neat in his personal appearance.

After shooting her husband she placed the muzzle of the weapon under her right ear and pulled the trigger. She was twitching spasmodically, though unconscious, when taken to the hospital. She lost much blood, and died a few minutes after, being placed on the operating table.

My son and I were standing on the front porch watching children setting off fireworks, said Mrs. Hart, whose home is directly across the street from the Northern Hotel.

When he reached the open spot in front of the hotel he paused for just a second, and without turning his head to look at the woman turned off toward the hotel steps. Then the woman stepped quickly behind him and fired.

When he reached the open spot in front of the hotel he paused for just a second, and without turning his head to look at the woman turned off toward the hotel steps.

When he reached the open spot in front of the hotel he paused for just a second, and without turning his head to look at the woman turned off toward the hotel steps.

YOUNG AMERICA'S OWN DAY

ODESSA STILL MILITARY CAMP

Mutineers Seize a Transport but After Killing Officers Repent and Yield—Decree to Be Issued Calling a National Representative Assembly to Meet in July.

(Journal Special Service.) St. Petersburg, July 4.—(Bulletin.)—Admiral Kruger wires the minister of marine as follows: "The crew of the transport Prout mutinied as the vessel was leaving Tendrov bay, seizing the captain and other officers. Lieutenant Neysverren and Boatswain Cosidine were killed. The Prout has arrived at Sevastopol and the crew are now repentant. The officers have been released. The crew asked them to resume their positions. Official inquiry is being made."

(Journal Special Service.) London, July 4.—(Bulletin.)—The correspondent of the Evening Standard at Odessa wires that the Khiaz Potemkin has been sighted 25 miles off that port.

(Journal Special Service.) London, July 4.—(Bulletin.)—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from St. Petersburg says that an imperial decree will be issued summoning a representative assembly for July 25.

(Journal Special Service.) Odessa, July 4.—The city continues quiet. The vigilance of the authorities is not relaxed. Forty thousand troops are still on guard.

(Journal Special Service.) Odessa, July 4.—The city continues quiet. The vigilance of the authorities is not relaxed.

(Journal Special Service.) Oyster Bay, July 4.—All arrangements have been completed for the president's journey to Cleveland to attend the Hay funeral.

(Journal Special Service.) Oyster Bay, July 4.—All arrangements have been completed for the president's journey to Cleveland to attend the Hay funeral.

(Journal Special Service.) Mexico City, July 4.—The former estimate of loss of life in the Guantamo flood is dropping and the great

(Journal Special Service.) St. Petersburg, July 4.—Three hundred Cosacks today dispersed 6,000 strikers from the Nevsky works.

(Journal Special Service.) St. Petersburg, July 4.—Three hundred Cosacks today dispersed 6,000 strikers from the Nevsky works.

(Journal Special Service.) St. Petersburg, July 4.—Three hundred Cosacks today dispersed 6,000 strikers from the Nevsky works.

(Journal Special Service.) St. Petersburg, July 4.—Three hundred Cosacks today dispersed 6,000 strikers from the Nevsky works.

(Journal Special Service.) St. Petersburg, July 4.—Three hundred Cosacks today dispersed 6,000 strikers from the Nevsky works.

(Journal Special Service.) St. Petersburg, July 4.—Three hundred Cosacks today dispersed 6,000 strikers from the Nevsky works.

(Journal Special Service.) St. Petersburg, July 4.—Three hundred Cosacks today dispersed 6,000 strikers from the Nevsky works.

(Journal Special Service.) St. Petersburg, July 4.—Three hundred Cosacks today dispersed 6,000 strikers from the Nevsky works.

(Journal Special Service.) St. Petersburg, July 4.—Three hundred Cosacks today dispersed 6,000 strikers from the Nevsky works.

(Journal Special Service.) St. Petersburg, July 4.—Three hundred Cosacks today dispersed 6,000 strikers from the Nevsky works.

MOTHER BECOMES RAVING MANIAC

Returns Home to Find Husband and Daughter Both Dead.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

MITCHELL CONVICTED, WILL TAKE APPEAL

Jury Makes Recommendation for Mercy, Which It Is Understood Secretary Hitchcock Indorses.

SIX BALLOTS TAKEN, ALL BUT THE LAST STANDING 11 TO 1

Single Juror Who Held Out Capitulates on Condition That Jury Recommend Clemency—Appeal to Be Argued Monday.

F. J. Heney, United States district judge—My confidence in the integrity and common sense of the masses of the American people is so great and unwavering that I never doubted for one moment that an Oregon jury would fearlessly and impartially perform its duty under the law and the facts.

Ex-Senator Thurston, Senator Mitchell's counsel—I never care to discuss a verdict after it has been rendered. We shall argue next Monday the motion for a new trial. If that motion is overruled, we shall take a writ of error, though I am not yet certain whether it will be to the circuit court of appeals or to the United States supreme court.

G. Steiner, foreman of the jury—We did our duty, and we do not wish either censure or praise. We were very sorry for Senator Mitchell, but we could not conscientiously return any verdict but the one we gave. I have served on many juries, but this was the hardest job of the kind I ever had in my life.

Senator John H. Mitchell was found guilty yesterday, summoned from his hotel to the federal courtroom, at 11 o'clock last night the old man who for 40 years has played a conspicuous part in the affairs of Oregon, heard the verdict which convicts him of violating the laws of his country.

Gas Jets Open and Four Other Children Found Partly Overcome.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

SIX BALLOTS TAKEN, ALL BUT THE LAST STANDING 11 TO 1

Single Juror Who Held Out Capitulates on Condition That Jury Recommend Clemency—Appeal to Be Argued Monday.

F. J. Heney, United States district judge—My confidence in the integrity and common sense of the masses of the American people is so great and unwavering that I never doubted for one moment that an Oregon jury would fearlessly and impartially perform its duty under the law and the facts.

Ex-Senator Thurston, Senator Mitchell's counsel—I never care to discuss a verdict after it has been rendered. We shall argue next Monday the motion for a new trial. If that motion is overruled, we shall take a writ of error, though I am not yet certain whether it will be to the circuit court of appeals or to the United States supreme court.

G. Steiner, foreman of the jury—We did our duty, and we do not wish either censure or praise. We were very sorry for Senator Mitchell, but we could not conscientiously return any verdict but the one we gave. I have served on many juries, but this was the hardest job of the kind I ever had in my life.

Senator John H. Mitchell was found guilty yesterday, summoned from his hotel to the federal courtroom, at 11 o'clock last night the old man who for 40 years has played a conspicuous part in the affairs of Oregon, heard the verdict which convicts him of violating the laws of his country.

Gas Jets Open and Four Other Children Found Partly Overcome.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, July 4.—Upon her return home this morning from her duties as night nurse, Mrs. Josephine Heine found her husband, Henry, and her daughter, Charlotte, aged 14 years, dead in bed.

STAMP TAX TO MEET DEFICIT

Movement Among Republican Leaders to Reestablish War Revenue Measure.

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, July 4.—There is a strong inclination among Republican statesmen to restore special stamp taxes of the Spanish war in fine to meet the treasury deficit. More than $10,000,000 shortage is threatened during the fiscal year just beginning.

Senator Dick of Ohio believes that the easiest method is to put a small stamp tax on a variety of things in daily use. Senator Warren of Wyoming, and many other strong men of congress, prefer the method proposed by Senator Dick, although there are some who suggest an additional customs duty on tea and coffee.

PHOENIX HERMIT A BRITISH BARON

Lord Melville, Baron Latimer, Vows He Prefers Burrows to English Nobility.

(Journal Special Service.) Phoenix, A. T., July 4.—A legacy of 1,800 pounds sterling, the first installment of an inheritance of many thousands of dollars, was received today by Philip E. Neville of Phoenix, who now appears as one of the nobility of England, though for three years past he has been a worker on the garbage dumps in Phoenix.

Neville bears the title of Baron of Latimer, a barony whose establishments eschewed to the crown centuries ago. For 17 years he has been an exile, keeping his whereabouts a secret from relatives till a few months ago, when he wrote to demand legacies he knew were due him.

CHRISTENS A WARSHIP BY LIBERATING DOVES

(Journal Special Service.) Barrow-in-Furness, England, July 4.—The Princess Aristogawa christened the Japanese battleship Kasori of 16,400 tons which was launched this afternoon at the yards of the Vickers-Maxim company. Instead of breaking the customary bottle of champagne over the vessel the princess liberated a cage of doves as the ship struck the water.

PRESIDENT LEAVES TO ATTEND HAY FUNERAL

(Journal Special Service.) Oyster Bay, July 4.—All arrangements have been completed for the president's journey to Cleveland to attend the Hay funeral. He will leave at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon in the private car of President Peters of the Long Island railroad on a special train for the Pennsylvania, which leaves Jersey City at 5:05 o'clock. The president will be joined en route by the cabinet members.

TWO HUNDRED PERISH IN MEXICAN FLOODS

(Journal Special Service.) Mexico City, July 4.—The former estimate of loss of life in the Guantamo flood is dropping and the great

MADMAN KILLS FOUR THEN COMMITS SUICIDE

(Journal Special Service.) Cincinnati, July 4.—William Gardner, while insane, last night shot his wife, William Applegate, Curry Smith and Patrolman Worth and committed suicide this morning. Gardner was pursued after the shooting and took refuge in the woods where he killed himself with a shotgun.

COURTS CANNOT ORDER PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Helena, Mont., July 4.—Holding that the district court has no power to order a physical examination by physicians and that the physician may not testify against the wishes of a patient, the supreme court has handed down a very important opinion relating to personal injury suits. Mary May had sued the Northern Pacific for damages because of injuries received in a wreck and recovered judgment. The opinion holds that the lower court had no power to order a physical examination, and that the physician who first attended the woman could not testify against her wishes. Therefore, the court affirmed the decision of the lower court.

BANK'S FAILURE DUE TO STROKE OF APOPLEXY

(Journal Special Service.) Topeka, Kan., July 4.—The failure of the First National bank and the run on the Central National which was precipitated through the financial troubles of C. J. Devlin will not cause any loss to depositors as Devlin has placed his entire assets at the disposal of the creditors, of whom a committee has been formed to handle the estate. The whole trouble was precipitated by an attack of apoplexy two weeks ago which rendered Mr. Devlin incapable of transacting business.

TOM JOHNSON AFTER PRESIDENTIAL HONOR

Ohio Man to Seek Nomination Upon Government Ownership Platform.

(Journal Special Service.) Chicago, July 4.—Tom L. Johnson is an aspirant for the Democratic nomination of president in 1908 and is going to seek the nomination on the platform declaring for government ownership of transportation lines. This is said to be the underlying motive of Johnson's taking an active interest in the effort to municipalize Chicago traction lines. Mayor Dunne is grooming the Cleveland man for the presidential nomination, and it is understood hopes to deliver to him the Illinois delegation. Johnson has been actively pushing the three-cent fare, and other new fangled traction and railroad theories, to the fore for several years—in fact since he retired from the street railroad business—but heretofore he has confined his advancement of these ideas to Ohio. Johnson has been in Chicago twice since Mayor Dunne took office, and Dunne conferred with him once in Cleveland.

It was Johnson who blocked the negotiations with the traction interests for a sale at $10,000,000.

ROMANCE AND FORTUNE MINGLED WITH COTTON

Theodore H. Price Clears Up a Million and Again Dominates White Staple.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, July 4.—Leaping 100 points, cotton yesterday carried the fortune of Theodore H. Price well toward the $1,000,000 mark and established his position once again as dominating the white staple market. One hundred points means $5 a bale. Rarely have finance and commerce been so intricately mingled with romance as in the case of Theodore H. Price. Five years ago he was dragged from his throne as "cotton king" within four days of his wedding, and instead of bringing his wife a fortune well up in the millions, he started away with her upon the honeymoon only by so much lavishness as $1,000,000. Since then Price paid off his debts, bought back the firm of McCormick & Co. failed in 1900, and every penny of $1,000,000 by him yesterday belongs to him. For five years he has been a millionaire, and he is now a millionaire again.

It was Johnson who blocked the negotiations with the traction interests for a sale at $10,000,000.