BIRTH OF AMERICAN LIBERTY CELEBRATED THROUGHOUT LAND

Vice-President Fairbanks Orator of Day at Urbana, Ohio.

JAPS OBSERVE DAY ON EASTERN BATTLEFIELDS

Old-Fashioned Observances in Many Oregon and Washington Towns- Orations, Sports and Races.

(Journal Special Service.)
Urbana, O. July 4.—Vice-President
Fairbanks was the principal orator at the opening day at Champaign county's centennial celebration, which lasts until Thursday night.

A large concourse of people listened to the address this aftermoon. Mr.
Fairbanks was at his best and delivered an old-fushioned Fourth of July oration eulogistic of America, her past, her present and her future, and of Ohio and her pioneers. He spoke of the sacrifices made by the revolutionists in the war of independence and of the hardships and privations endured by dauntless men and fearless women who marched into the wilderness of the Ohio100 years ago.

Mr. Fairbanks wrought particularly upon the part Ohio and her sons have played in the development of the nation and referred feelingly to her great while some others went to Mill City adopted son. John Hay, late secretary and a few to Eugene. As usual the world of one of its noblest citizens and whose body wrapped in his country's will suspend. Many of the people of the new lay at the metropolis of the utate of his adoption.

The vice-president was enthusiastically resident was allowed the supposition for the day.

The vice-president was enthusiastically received and after the speaking was tendered a reception followed by a banquet at which many of the most prominent citizens and politicians of Ohic were guests. The celebration commemorates the 100th anniversary of the settlement of Champaign county.

CELEBRATING IN FIELD.

Oku Keeps the Pourth for Amer

American attaches. American news-paper correspondents of the army are now spending their time in target prac-

EUGENE CELEBRATES.

Big Growd Witnesses Carrying Out o

Attractive Program.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Eugene, Or., July 4.—Eugene is celebrating the Fourth of July with one of the best and most attractive programs ever carried out here, and one of the largest holiday crowds in the history of the city is in attendance. In the foremon a monster parade was held through the business streets of the city, followed by literary exercises on the city plana. Hon. M. A. Miller of Lebanon delivered the address of the occasion. This afternoon a baseball game, between Chemawa and Eugene, is being This afternoon a baseoni gain, between Chemawa and Eugene, is being played, races and other sports are being held and a balloon ascension is scheduled for 4:36 b'clock. Two paper chases are also on the program. The day's festivities end with fireworks on Spinner's butte, and a public ball in the

DRILLING CONTEST.

Brants Pass Wolds Wo Regular Celebra-tion, But Cinb Puts Up Purse.

(Special Diapatch to The Journal.)
Grants Pass., Or., July 4.—No general elebration is being held in Grants Pass this year and many people will spend the day picnicking and attend the cele-brations at Merlin and Michigan City. The A. A. C. club of Grants Pass will The A. A. C. club of Grants Fass will have a rock-drilling contest in the fore-noon and a ball game in the afternoon at their grounds. The drilling contests will be the main events of the day and FAIR BULLETIN, NO. 25 July 5, 1905 Connecticut Day, American Boy Day, Focatello Day, Scientific Congress.

Oregon Souvenir Cup, 75c

Tells you of Portland and the state.

Tame, is made of powter, in thich sets a glass, making it used.

I for drinking purposes. These was are shown: Mount Hood, ortland. Hotel. Columbia River

A. C. Feldenheimer Cor. Third and Washington, RWELERS, SILVERSMITHS. EXPERT OPTICIANS.

considerable money will change hands. Three teams are entered so far—Save Bros. of Galice, Dunn and Siligo of Murphy, and Sandry Bros. of Gold Ray. Bert Savage is the champion of southern Oregon, and Dunn, from Sumpter, is champion of eastern Oregon. At the shooting tournament of the Grants Pass Gun club a purse of $500 and prises amounting to $250 will be contested for

ELABORATE PROGRAM.

Baker City and Other County Town Meld Separate Celebrations.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Baker City, Or., July 4.—The Fourth of July is being celebrated pretty well all over the county. Haker City, Sumpter, North Powder and Rock Creek all ter, North Powder and Rock Creek all have separate celebrations.

The celebration here is an elaborate one. The parade was one of the best ever witnessed in the city. Besides a number of floats more than 100 cowboys took part in the parade. Senator Charles W. Fulton delivered the oration. The night will be filuminated with fireworks. At Rock Creek, Judge Sam Whita, Colonet William Smith and O. B. Mounts delivered addresses. Attorney Norton of this city delivered the address at North Powder.

The races on the local track meet

The races on the local track meet were a feature of the day in Baker City.

ALBANY IS QUIET.

lany Besidente Attend Portland Fall and Other Mearby Towns.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Albany, Or., July 4.—Albany did not debrate the Fourth of July this year, owing especially to the fact that open of this year the center of attraction and the business and professional men of Albany are not willing to the state of the detract from the exposition. Albany people generally who could do so have gone to Portland for the celebration, while some others went to Mili City

AT CENTRAL POINT.

According to Ouston.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Medford, Or., July 4.—Medford did not celebrate the Fourth, the neighboring town of Central Point having that honor this year, by custom of the valley towns. A local celebration was also had at Jacksonville, at Gold Hill and at Eagle Point. The larger crowd was at Central Point. The Goddess of Lib-erty was personated by Miss Julia Ole-son, and an address was made by Hon. Headquarters Oku's Army, July 4.—
The Japanese staff arranged a Fourth of July celebration this afternoom in honor of General MacArthur and other American attaches. American news-

AT PENITENTIARY.

Giving Minstrel Show.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Salem, On. July (.—The nation's birthday was not permitted to go by unobserved at the Oregon state penitentiary. A minstrel troupe with an orchestra has been organized among a number of the prisoners and these furnished a very good program for the amusement of their fellow prisoners this morning. This evening in the this morning. This evening in the prison chapel at 7:30 the same program will be given to the public that has been fortunate enough to secure invitations.

COLUMBIA COUNTY.

Numerous Towns Hold Celebration

Junerous Towns Mold Gelebration—
Judge Caples at Scappoose.
(Special Dipatch to The Journal.)
Houlton, Or., July 4.—There is the usual amout of patriotism in Columbia county. Judge Caples of Portland flew the eagle at Scappoose. Hon. Dell Stuart addressed the people at Rainier, Clatskanie and Natal each held old-fashioned basket picnics.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Olympia, Wash., July 4.—Olympia is holding a two days' observance of the glorious Fourth, which practically opened Sunday evening with a band concert at the park. An elaborate program of sports was rendered Monday and today a large gathering is taking part in the last day's festivities, which include Indian cance races, water sports, clude Indian canoe races, water sports, field sports, baseball, woodsmen's event, street vaudeville actors and acrobats and fireworks.

Old-Fashioned Style. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

La Grande, Or., July 4.—La Grande is celebrating the Fourth in old-fashioned style. There being no fixed program the day is being spent in footracing, catching greased pigs, sack, wheelbarrow and potato racing, climbing greased pole, tug of war, high dive, and ball game between Hot Lake and La Grande teams. The day's entertainment will close with a big dance at the Commercial club. Music for the day Commercial club. Music for the day is furnished by the home bands.

Excursion to Bingham Springs. (Special Disputch to The Journal.)

Pendleton, July 4.—Although the youth of this city is making the usual youth of this city is making the usual nolsy demonstration this year, there is no official recognition of Independence day by the older generation, other than the closing of the business houses. Plans were made several weeks ago to celebrate the day in the stereotyped manner, a parade, addresses and a dance in the evening. However, this plan was abundened later in favor of an experience. abandoned later in favor of an ex-cursion to Bingham Springs, to be run by the woodworkers and material men.

Old-Pashioned Style.

(Special Disputch 49 The Journal.) Centralia, Wash., July 4.—Centralia is elebrating in old-fashioned style today. This morning there was a procession, headed by the Centralia band and Reform School band, to City park, where Judge A. E. Rice delivered the oration of the day. In the afternoon there was a program of sports and races. Tonight there is a fireworks display on Seminary hill.

Silverton Goes to Pair.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Silverton, Or., July 4.—The Fourth is not being observed in Silverton this year. The Southern Pacific company run a special train to Portland and hundreds of people improved the op-portunity to spend the day at the fair.

Troops Will Assist. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Walla Walls, Wash., July 4.—Walls
Walls people joined hands with the Fourth cavalry, United States army, this year in observing the Fourth. At Fort Walls Walls four troops of the Fourth held a field meet, followed by dress parade, in which all troops at the fort took part. In the evening the Fourth Cavalry band will give a concert and dance cert and dance. Drain Goes to Toncalla.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Drain, Or., July 4.—There is no celebration in Drain this year. Most of the people from this vicinity are spending the day at Yoncalla, whore Hon. Louis Brazee of Roseburg is the speaker of the day. Horse racing is a feature of the day's sport. A baseball game, between Drain and Oakland teams, and a grand ball in the ovening, will close the day.

Fourth cavalry, United States army

Millsboro Citisens Visit (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Hillsboro, Or., July 4.—There was no celebration in this city today. Many of the citizens of this place went to Cornelius and many more to Portland.

The oration at Cornelius was delivered by Judge Hollis of Forset Grove Dec. by Judge Hollis of Forest Grove. Declaration of Independence was read by Miss Everest of Cornelius, and the Forest Grove band furnished the music

Clatskanie Observes Day. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Clatskanie, Or., July 4.—Clatskanie ie

Clatskanie, Or., July 4.—Clatskanie is celebrating at home this year. The lodge that makes the best showing in the parade will receive a prise. After the parade Hen. T. J.-Cleeton of Portland made a good old-fashioned Fourth of July speech. The Clatskanie band furnished the music.

Goldendale Goes to Lyle.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Goldendale, Wash., July 4.—Goldendale is celebrating the Fourth of July with an excursion on the C. R. M. R. to Lyle, where all may enjoy themselve in a beautiful grove on the banks of the Columbia where there will, be specches and music. speeches and music.

Woodburn Celebrates

Woodburn Coleman.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Woodburn, Or., July 4.—A large gathering of people celebrated the Fourth in this city today. Addresses were made by Hon: Grant Early, Hon. Thomas Brown, Rev. Louis M. Anderson, Rev. D. H. Leedy, oration by Vernon Nasue Tomilinson; reading Declaration of Independence, Miss Belle Bonney.

Workingmen's Observance, (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, July 4.—Salem's celebration is workingmen's celebration. The differ a workingmen's celebration. The differ-ent labor organisations are cooperating with the Commercial club. A literary program is being given in the grove in Marion square. A baseball game will be played in the afternoon and there are numerous other sports.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Chehalis, July 4. — There is no Fourth of July celebration at Chehalis this year. Many citizens left today for the Portland fair. There has been a general shut-down of assemblis on the Chehalis and South Bend branch for observance of the day.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Ellensburg, Wash., July 4.—Fourth of July delebration this year consisted of a parade, a speech by Colonel Joab of Tacoma this morning, and athletic sports, horse and automobile races and baseball game in the afternoon and

> Mo Powder or Smoke. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Winlock, Wash., July 4—Independence day is being celebrated here. There is not the usual hurrah, powder and smoke, but the celebration takes the form of a short patriotic literary pro-gram and after that a picnic in Baird's eautiful grove.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Wenatchee, Wash., July 4.—One hundred guns awakened this city to a two days' celebration. There was a parade. followed by literary exercises in the Wenatchee theatre. In the afternoon there will be racing and baseball, fol-

Go to Other Towns.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Dayton, July 4.—As no celebration is seing held here this year, many of the citizens are observing the glorious day at Portland, some at Newberg, others at Lafayette, while a few are picnicking on the Willamette.

Business Men's Parade.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
North Yakima, Wash., July 4.—This city celebrated the Fourth with a business men's parade in the forenoon, and grounds.

Parade at Aberdeep.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Aberdeen, Wash., July 4.—Fourth of July exercises were preceded by a parade that contained many fine floats.

Colfax Is Deserted (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Colfax, Wash., July 4.—Colfax is de-

Has a solid reputation of over 50 years back of it. This alone should prove its worth but in addition we might also refer to the thousands of people who have been cured by it when other remedies failed. It cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Heart-burn, Sour Stomach, Poor Appetite, Diarrhoea and Ma-laria.

REELECT OFFICERS

Meetings of National Associa-May Be Held Anywhere.

WASHINGTON NO LONGER THE NECESSARY PLACE

Election of Miss Kelley Pleases the Professional Women.

At the convention of the women suf-fragists today the following officers were elected for the ensuing year; president—Susan York.

President—Rev. Anna Howard D., Philadelphia. Vice-president-at-large-Florence

Corresponding secretary—Kate don, New Orleans. Recording secretary—Alice

Treasurer—Harriet Taylor Warren, Ohio, Auditors—First, Laura Clay, Lexing-ton, Kentucky; second, Dr. Annice Jef-freys-Myers, Portland, Oregon. Amends Constitution

vaged for 15 years, the National Woman Suffrage association today ame the constitution to annul the legal obligation of holding every alternate convention in Washington, D. C. change was made by substituting word 'may" for "must," leaving it opthe national capital every other year, or go to some state in which an election is to be held on the subject of woman

The debate this forenoon over this guestion revealed the breadth of the plans which the suffragists are laying for the spread of their doctrines, for it transpires that they expect soon to bring to an issue the suffrage question in a number of states. To those states it is desired to take the national convention, in order to infuse courage in the local organizations.

Broadens Scope of Work

Broadens Scope of Work.

Still further the association decided to broaden the scope of their organization, by lessening the severity of the requirements of members, and henceforth to include in the membership roll all sympathisers who will sign the lists. And another step that was regarded by many as a noted advance was the election of Florence Kelley as vice-president-at-large. Carrie Chapman Catt, incumbent for the past year, refused reelection. When the selection of her successor came up, according to the law of the association, an informal ballot was taken, with the result that Miss Kelley received 153 of the 225 votes cast, Mrs. Coggeshall of lowa 25, Clara Young of Nebraska 19, Laura Clay of Kentucky 14, Ida Porter-Boyer of Pennsylvania 6, Gail Laughlin of Maine 4, and Ella Stewart of Illinois 3. On the formal ballot only the three receiving the highest number of votes were balformal ballot only the three receiving the highest number of votes were bal-loted for, Miss Kelley having 161 of the total of 231, Mrs. Young having 76.

Miss Kelley for Workers. The election of Miss Kelley is ac The election of Miss Kelley is ac-knowledged to be a recognition of the working women, as Miss Kelley has been insistent upon emphasizing the working women as paramount to the success of the association. On the formal ballot, Mrs. Coggeshall with-drew her name and her strength went

The association permits no nominating speeches, requiring by law the casting of an informal ballot when each office is taken up for an election, the three highest then below voted for an

the formal ballot.
Some ringing addresses were heard in the debate over the question of holding the annual conventions alternately ing the annual conventions alternately in the national capital. Miss Parker of Massachusetts, president of the New England association of college women suffragists, supported the amendment, arguing in-a brilliant address for taking the convention to states where suffrage campaigns were to be held.

Mrs. Duniway favored the retention of the requirement for holding the convention alternately in Washington, and many others spoke.

many others spoke.

Portland Delegates Speak.

A pleasant incident this forenoon was the presentation to the convention of members of the Portland committees, who spoke briefly in acknowledgment of the conventions. the compliment, Dr. Annie Jeffreys-Myers, Mrs. M. A. Dalton, Mrs. F. N. Gilbert, Miss Frances Gotshall, Dr. Gilbert, Miss Frances Gotshall, Dr. Luema Johnson, Mrs. Abbie C. French, Mrs. H. W. Coe, Mrs. John P. Wager, Mrs. P. Lawton, Dr. Esther Pohl, Mrs. J. W Tifft, Mrs. L. C Kent and Mrs. Eugenia Scherer. Kind words were spoken of the work accomplished by each of the committee chairmen. Especially appreciative remarks were elic-serted today. Many citizens went to Moscow, Idaho, where they have a two-days' celebration. Others went to St. John, some to Lacrosse and others to the grange picnic on Union flat.

Antelope Patriotic.

(Special Rispatch to The Journal.)

Antelope, Or., July 4.—The Fourth is being celebrated in a becoming manner by the Antelope patriots and the people of the surrounding country are uniting in making the festal occasion one long to be remembered. A literary and musical program was rendered. Sports at Garfield

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Garfield, Wash.; July 4.—Garfield.
celebraced the Fourth on Deep creek.
Rev. Conklin delivered the oration. The program consisted of sports of various kinds, followed by a big picnic dinner, dancing at the pavillon and horse races.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Fairview, Or., July 4.—Fourth of July was not observed this year by a general celebration in this town. The baseball team played a game with Gresham on the latter's field. In the evening a public dance will be given in the Artisans' hall.

Cottage Grove Goes Visiting.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Cottage Grove, Or., July 4.—There are no exercises in this town but many people went to Eugene.
There is also a picule and celebration at Loraine, 12 miles west of here, and one at London and still another at Star.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Roseburg, Or., July 4.—The citizens of this town did not celebrate this year but many went to Myrtle Creek, where the Roseburg band plays. Others went ited of the work of the decoration committee of which Mrs. Kest is chairman, and the music committee, at the head of which is Mrs. Dalton.

This afterneon, the question of work for securing planks in the national platforms of the great parties was considered, and this evening the convention will hear the following program:

Laura Clay presiding, prayer by Rev. T. L. Eliot, D. D.; "Siar Spangled Banner," Mrs. S. A. Lockhart, Spokane: "Sarcasms on Gur Interpretations of the Declaration of Independence," Ellis Mersdith, Colorado; original poem, "Freedom," Charlotte Perkins Gilman; reading the declaration of 1848, Mary Anthony, New York; "A New Time," Carrie Chapman Catt; benediction by Rev. Anna Shaw.

In the election again of Susan B.

Rev. Anna Shaw.

In the election again of Susan B. Anthony as honorary president, the association followed the custom which will be in force so long as she lives. Only two have held the office before her Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Lucy Stone. The reelection of President Shaw is looked upon as recognition of her wonderful skill in handling a deliberative assembly. Her reelection was by unanimous vote.

L. E. Fleischner Equal Suffragist.

Another prominent citizen joined the ranks of the woman suffragists last night, when I. N. Fleischner, member of the school board, spoke before the convention and advocated giving women the right to vote. Henry B. Blackwell of Massachusetts gave an able address as dtd also Florence Kelley and Willis Duniway.

At the afternoon session $5,000 was subscribed by the delegates for carrying on the work of the coming year. California led with $850, and the other California led with $850, and the other states contributed liberally. Many interesting incidents marked the raising of this money. Mrs. A. S. Duniway brought her little granddaughter Dorothy to the platform and subscribed $50 for a life membership for her; Mrs. H. W. Coe made Mrs. Duniway a life member by giving the same sum; Mrs. Duniway returned the compliment to Mrs. Coe; Dr. Annine Jeffreys-Myers was complimented in like manner, and numerous others added $50 subscriptions to the fund in presenting life memberships to their friends.

When Miss Blackwell of Massachu-Culminating a contest that has been memberships to their friends.

When Miss Blackwell of Massachusetts, after making her whitchaired father a life member, and after he had done the same for her, arose and pronounced the name of Julia Ward Howe as a candidate for life membership, the deep respect in which, the author of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" is held was evinced by the hush that came over the vast assembly, followed a moment later by a burst of applause:

Oregon Campaign Pund.
For Emily Howland of New York $400 in subscriptions was announced, and Mrs. Keith of California gave about

To prosecute the Oregon campaign $3,000 was pledged, and more will be forthcoming when the women get their forces into trim for the battle next H. B. Blackwell's address was one

H. B. Blackwell's address was one of the ablest that has been heard in the convention. His closing was:

"The primary object of government is to keep the peace. War is the greatest curse that afflicts humanity. A purely masculine government never did and hever will keep the peace. A government of men and women is needed in order to establish international courts of arbitration, and so make war and speciacle of a virtuous, free intelligent, self-respecting, enfranchised woman-hood. Only thus can we save our society from pollution. Only thus can we maintain our liberty. For, as Emerson Burgisr did some lively sprinting in making his escape, without even getting anything except a fright. The only well says:

"Of what avail is plow or soil,
Or land or life if freedom fail?"

The Swell Chesterfield

Suits

Found only at this store in the state of Oregon, are the finest tailored, most stylish appearing, best fitting clothes produced in America. We say they are better. We give you a guarantee that is given on no other make of ready-to-wear clothes. That is, if the FRONT of COAT in any CHESTERFIELD SUIT BREAKS or LOSES SHAPE in ONE YEAR'S wear YOU GET A NEW SUIT FREE. The patterns are the same as found at the fine custom tailors. Style in vogue in New York today is shown here. Suits of this famous make from $20.00 to $40.00. It's worth your while to see them, and we'll be pleased to show them to you.

R. M. GRAY

269-271 MORRISON ST.

"TALL YOUNG MAN" man." J. F. Thornton of Jericho, Missouri, has been "shown." He met a confidence man yesterday afternoon, who took a walk with him. Near the Armory they met a second sharper and the old padlock trick was worked on Thornton, who paid $90 for his experience. He is now

Sixteenth street. After effecting an en-description which was given the police is that the thief was "a tall young purely masculine government never did and hever will keep the peace. A government of men snd women is needed in order to establish international courts of arbitration, and so make war and bloodshed forever more unnecessary.

Extended Suffrage Reeded.

"A battleship which lasts only 15 years costs more than all the land buildings and equipments of Harvard university, Hampton and Tuskeges colleges combined.

"We need an extended suffrage to check the growing corrupt use of money by trusts and corporate monopolies to control legislation. We must create a voting constituency too numerious to be bribed or coered or manipulated in order to rescue our people from the encroachments of the money power.

"We are about to open up intimate commercial relations with the swarming millions of the orient. Let us face those ancient Asiatic empires, where women are crelaved, with the inspiring spectacle of a virtuous, free, intelligent, the residence of F. D. Jack, 206 North Sixteenth street. After effecting an enternal control legical of a virtuous, free, intelligent, the residence of F. D. Jack, 206 North Sixteenth street. After effecting an enternal corporate monopolics and the resource that was some at the reported to the police. Mangold is employed by the street railway company.

Theodore Backman, who rooms at the reforting an enternal corporate monopolics and the resource the resource of the police. Mangold is employed by the street railway company.

There is one house in the city that a certain burglar will probably not attempt to break into for some time. It is the residence of F. D. Jack, 206 North Sixteenth street. After effecting an enternal corporate monopolics to the police where he had hid his treasure, he discovered his coin was gone. He reported to the police monopolics to the police of a virtuous, free, intelligent, the street through the resource of the police of a virtuous, free, intelligent, the residence of F. D. Jack, 206 North Sixteenth street. After effecting an enternal corporate monopolics and the r

Preferred Stock Cannel Goods.

PORTLAND TO THE PACIFIC OCEAN

DELIGHTFUL, inexpensive trip down the Columbia River—through the famous fishing grounds to North (Long) Beach, on the palatial river steamers of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company. Every visitor to Portland during the '05 Exposition should enjoy this excursion. Costs but a trifle.

PARTICULARS BY ASKING AT THIRD AND WASHINGTON STS.

C. W. STINGER City Ticket Agent O. R. & N. Company

ASK FOR O. R. Q. N. SUMMER BOOK.

What women like in men would be pather difficult for them to say. But when it comes to a question of what women like in tea, most of them will say at once.

"Galts beylow Jea"

Only one best tea. Balts beylow's it.