TODAY'S MARKETS

Trade Conditions in Produce District Are Now Very Good—Sales to Country Are Heavier Than Ever—City Trade Excellent.

HOPS ARE SELLING AT LOWER VALUES

Many Sales Reported During the Past Few Days—Pool Men Among the List.

BEST BUTTER IS WEAKER AT TWENTY CENTS TODAY

Cheese Weak and Inactive—Eggs and Poultry Firm—Prunes Range Higher.

Front Street, July 5.—The principal features of the Portland wholesale markets today are:

Many sales of hops are made.
Another car of melons arrives.
Chickens are firm at price.
Best butter sells at 20 cents.
Cheese is very weak and inactive.
Oversupply of Texas tomatoes in.
Good price offered for prunes.
Silverskin onions come better.
Salmon run not so heavy.
Eggs are firm at former values.
Veal and hogs in good shape.

Outside Trade Is Very Heavy.

Trading along Front street is now very heavy. Orders from the country towns are pouring in heavier than at any time during the present season. City trade is very lively, but orders from the outside are fully as heavy and merchants have been compelled to hire extra men in order to keep up with the rush.

Many Sales of Hops Are Made.

During the past few days there have been many sales of hops which have been kept secret up to this time. The market is active, but the prices now being paid are generally about 1 cent lower than those which ruled during the previous week. Men who were among those most prominent in the late pool are selling whenever they are offered something like average quotations and it is now estimated that fully 2,500 bales have been disposed of during the past ten days. Among the recent sales the following are mentioned: Julius Pincus from Tom Holman of Salem, 185 bales choice at 18¼c; Charles Livesley, 50 bales at Salem, choice, at 18½c; Seavey & Metzler from Hoefer & Zorn of Champoeg, 170 bales of choice at 19c. McKinley Mitchell is reported to have purchased 40 bales at Gervais around 18½c. M. H. Gilbertson of Aurora is reported to have purchased the Jacobsen lot of 101 bales at Salem at 18½c. Other sales of smaller lots around the same values are likewise reported.

Higher Prices Offered for Prunes.

Because of the fact that the Pacific northwest will have less than a half of the normal crop of prunes, higher prices are now being asked and received. Last season the market opened around 1½c basis, while 2½c is being offered the present season. Demand is said to be far better than the previous season on account of the large overstocks carried over then.

Chickens Are Firm at Price.

Although the receipts of chickens are quite liberal the demand shows a good improvement and prices are being held up to the top notch with the market cleaning up every day.

The egg market is quoted firm with receipts of local stocks not heavy. Eastern are rather dull and weak. Prices unchanged.

The creamery butter market is duller than ever and dealers are offering the best product along the street at 20c and are very glad to get it. Only exceptional sales are made at an advance over that figure.

The cheese market has never been so dull as during the past few days. Stocks are very heavy and demand is slow even at the materially reduced quotation.

Salmon Run Is Not So Heavy.

Reports from the lower river say that the run of salmon is not quite so heavy, although the catches are still considered very good. The water is rather muddy in some places. From the upper river complaint is made of the catch on account of the closing of the progress of the fish by the extra large number of nets at the mouth. Fishermen say they have never seen so many nets at the mouth as during the present season.

Oversupply of Texas Tomatoes.

The produce market shows oversupplies of Texas tomatoes and the price is weaker, although unchanged. California stocks are coming in better shape and the market is weaker all the way through.

String beans are coming faster than ever and the market is weak and dragging.

Peas can hardly be moved at any price and many shipments are being made to the crematory.

Silverskin onions from the south are in slightly better receipt, but the price is firm. Reds are very plentiful with the market weak, though unchanged.

Loganberries are in very good supply, but demand is very good and prices are being maintained on the best stocks.

Strawberries were very scarce in the markets today.

Hothouse cucumbers are a drug on the market, prices being considerably weaker.

WALL STREET GOSSIP.

(Furnished by Overbeck, Starr & Cooke Co.)

New York, July 5.—The Wall Street Journal says: European markets steady over the holiday. Demand for steel rails unprecedented. Eastern manufacturers are now asking premiums on steel plates. Anthracite trade active, bituminous trade quiet with conditions unchanged. American tin and sheet plate manufacturers will adjust differences with employes. Washington talks of re-enacting of Spanish war stamp taxes. Fair general demand for stocks in the loan crowd. Sixty-two roads for May show an average net increase of 9.35 per cent and for 11 months 6.93 per cent. Thirty-eight roads for the third week in June show an average gross increase of 8.72 per cent. Any loss of currency by the banks on the July disbursements will be offset by the receipts of new gold. Banks gained from sub-treasury since Friday $59,000. Twelve industrials advanced 1.22 per cent. 20 active rails advanced 1.27 per cent. Consols 90½, advance 1-16.

CHICAGO GRAIN CAR LOTS.

Chicago, July 5.—Grain car lots:

	Cars.	Grade.	Est.	1904.

Oats	400	146	177	354

Liverpool Cotton Higher.

Liverpool, July 5.—Cotton futures were very strong and the close was 37 to 62 points up.

An Evidence of Good Faith.

L. Gerlinger has bought from Miss L. Perlot a block containing eight residence lots bounded by Raleigh, Quincy, Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets, for $10,000. Mr. Gerlinger has no plans for immediate building on the property, but says he purchased the ground as evidence of his faith in the future of Portland real estate.

Wall Street, New York, July 5.—The stock market opened with a firm tone and prices generally had an upward tendency. The strong tone continued until about the middle of the session when a reaction occurred and the general list sold off. A notable exception to this was Reading, which, on pool bulling, sent the market considerably higher, and although there was some reaction at the close the end of the session shows an advance of 1¾ points over the previous closing. Tennessee Coal & Iron was another strong feature and the closing was 1¼ points higher. Illinois Central was good and strong and closed ⅛ point up. Among the weak features was New York Central, which lost 2¼ points of the previous close. Louisville & Nashville was 1⅝ off at the end of today's trading.

FRENCHMAN WINS AUTOMOBILE RACE

M. Thery Victor in Struggle for James Gordon Bennett Cup at Leschamps.

AMERICANS NOWHERE IN RECORD-MAKING CONTEST

Italians Finish Second and Third —Three Hundred and Forty Miles in Seven Hours.

(Journal Special Service.)

Leschamps, July 5.—M. Thery, the French autoist, won the James Gordon Bennett cup today. Two hundred thousand people watched the progress of the race on the Auvergne mountain and 7,500 soldiers guarded the course, which began at Leschamps and was 85 miles in length. Each competitor made the circuit four times making a total distance of 341½ miles. There are 400 turns on the course. The start was made at 6 o'clock sharp.

The French champion, M. Thery, on a Richard Brazier, was first to start. In a few seconds he was lost to view. Five minutes later the English champion, Clifford Earl, on a Napier, started, and Janatzy, the German winner of last year's race, followed. He drove a Mercedes machine. Others followed five minutes apart. There were 15 starters. The Americans were Lytle on a Pope-Toledo; Dingley, on a Pope-Toledo, and Tracy, on a Locomobile.

Nazzari of Italy finished second and Cago of Italy third. Lytle and Tracy, Americans, remained valiantly on the course, though hopelessly beaten; Dingley, the American, abandoned the race.

Thery finished the last lap in 7 hours and 10 minutes elapsed time, and received a tremendous ovation. He won the race last year. His machine is of 96 horsepower. Lancia of Italy led at the end of the first circuit, which was covered in 1 hour and 35 minutes. Thery was in second place, six minutes behind. In the third round the Italian had a breakdown and Thery resumed the lead.

The teams to represent the various countries are as follows:

France—Thery and Gallois, Richard-Brasier; Duray, De Dietzich.

Germany—Janatzy, Baron de Caters and Salzer, Mercedes.

Italy—Lancia, Cagno and Storero, F. I. A. T. cars.

Austria—Barton, Verner and Braum, Austrian Mercedes.

England—Clifford Earp, Napier; C. Bianchi, and the Hon. C. S. Rolls, Wolseley cars.

America, Lytle and Dingley, Pope-Toledo; Joe Tracy, Locomobile.

In addition to these countries, Belgium and Switzerland will be competitors.

With Thery as the favorite, the impression in foreign circles is that Janatzy will be his most formidable opponent.

Willard Hill Pardoned.

Upon the request of District Attorney Manning, Willard Hill, serving a sentence of six months for violating the law regarding fallen women, was pardoned by Governor Chamberlain this morning. The pardon was sent to County Jailer Grafton, but as Hill was working on the county rockpile at the time he was not released. Hill was convicted in the municipal court last March, and took an appeal. He was tried in the circuit court, and Judge George sentenced him. His sentence would have expired on September 12.

Chicago, July 5.—Wheat values in the Chicago market received a very bad bump during today's session. The market opened with the tone generally strong, the prices being somewhat higher than the closing of Monday. Later on extensive selling pressure the tone eased off and there was a downward trend of values. The July closed with a loss of 2 cents, while the day's trading in the September showed a loss of 2⅛ cents.

The corn market was dull with prices fractionally lower at the end of the session.

Logan & Bryan say: The weather map for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday shows general precipitation. This morning's map is wet pretty much all over, but moisture has been light. The general condition over the holidays seemed unchanged. Both northwest and southwest conditions have been unfavorable. Corn sentiment in this market is divided as to the possibility of holding up of the present large receipts. The speculative market acts slow and does not respond to recent sharp advances in the wheat. The oats price range in this market is firmly maintained.

Coroner's Jury Decides Death Due to Gunshot Wound Caused by Unknown Man.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Vancouver, Wash., July 5.—Ophelia Weigel, aged 6 years, was shot at 10 o'clock last evening at the corner of Fourth and Main streets by an unknown party. She was taken to St. Joseph's hospital, where she died shortly after 11 o'clock.

How it happened is not known. There was a crowd on the street at the time and there was a great noise caused by the exploding of firecrackers. The little girl was seen to fall forward on the pavement and when picked up did not seem to be badly hurt. When asked if she was hurt she replied: "No; I want to see mamma." The supposition was that some one had fired a blank cartridge from a pistol directly behind the child and the shock caused her to fall.

A coroner's jury convened at 9:30 o'clock this morning and after hearing the evidence of a number of witnesses returned a verdict that death resulted from a gunshot wound caused by some person unknown. Witnesses testified to seeing a man on the opposite side of the street fire a shot at the time, but owing to the big crowd and noise and confusion prevailing did not realize that any one was injured.

The only wound visible was an indention on the back of the head as if made by a glancing blow from some small, hard object.

The dead girl is the daughter of C. M. Weigel, a well known business man of this city.

BECKMAN ARRESTED BECAUSE HE RETURNED

Because he did not stay out of the state after being conditionally pardoned by Governor Geer four years ago, W. F. Beckman will probably again be imprisoned. He was convicted of murdering his wife and son and sentenced to life imprisonment in 1894, but was pardoned on condition that he leave the state and remain outside its boundaries.

The sheriff of Douglas county telephoned the police yesterday that he had heard Beckman was in Portland. Detectives Resing and Carpenter located him and placed him behind the bars. The Douglas county sheriff is expected with a bench warrant for him this evening.

Police Asked to Find Hicks.

The police have been asked to locate J. P. Hicks, who reached here yesterday on the steamer Roanoke from San Francisco. He has not occupied his room at Williams avenue and Cherry street since he arrived. When last seen he was riding on an express wagon and was in his shirt sleeves. He is 38 years old, of medium height and smooth-shaven.

Near Medford Livy Murphy had his arm broken by a board in the hands of Frank Whetstone, while one of the latter's legs was fractured with a neck yoke handled by Murphy.

MANY MINOR ARRESTS KEPT POLICE BUSY

The police were kept busy yesterday, a total of 47 arrests being made. The prisoners came from all parts of the city, a majority of the arrests being on the charge of drunkenness.

Many of those arrested were allowed their liberty this morning by Chief Hunt, and the others appeared in the police court. A few persons taken into custody for infractions of minor ordinances gave bail and did not make an appearance in court, the bail being forfeited.

The arrest sheet at police headquarters shows the following charges preferred: For drunkenness, 15; trespass, 2; abusive language, 2; discharging firearms, 2; discharging toy cannons, 2; selling loaded cane, 1; larceny, 3; keeping saloons open after hours, 3; being inmates of disorderly houses, 2; walking streets and addressing men, 1; violating hotel runners' ordinance, 1; disorderly conduct, 1; assault and battery, 1; enticing minor into saloon, 1; runaway boy, 1; minor visiting saloon, 1; lodgers, 3; held as witnesses, 5.

Seven arrests for drunkenness were made by the police this morning.

Flat Damaged by Fire.

Fire broke out in the flats occupied by Mrs. Edward Boyle and Mrs. Henry Borchers at Union avenue and Tillamook street at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon and before the flames were extinguished damage in the amount of $400 was done. The origin of the blaze is unknown, but it started near the roof of the structure. Most of the furniture was carried out by firemen and neighbors without being damaged.

THIS IS KILLINGSWORTH'S AUTO

Showing a party of investors who paid $300 each for seats in his auto named "Success," a few months ago. Twenty ladies and gentlemen purchased of Killingsworth 25 shares of stock at $300 per share in St. Johns property, paying $7,500. Killingsworth resold this purchase for $15,000 cash, and has paid $600 net for each share of stock in the Waterfront Land company, hence all are happy, prosperous, thrifty customers and full of confidence in the grand future of Portland and St. Johns, for they are one.

Now, reader, your attention is called to a most important fact that WALNUT PARK, Portland's choicest residence property, is on the market at a remarkable low value of $5 and $10 per front foot.
