Oaks Grievance Committee

On account of the many complaints of the people about the treatment in regard to being compelled to purchase street car tickets in order to leave the grounds, we are securing complaints at this store and The Oaks must treat the public as they should, and we will see that they do it. We will throw open their gates to free leave, without compelling the people to purchase a ticket of freedom from the street railway company.

town today for the annual grand lodge session and reunion. Many of the national officers were among today's arrivals.

Most of the delegations will come in tomorrow evening and Monday morning, when it is expected that no less than 10,000 Elks, with accompaniments, will be in the city. The preparations to greet them have been completed and the business section of the city is already blossoming out in purple and white, the colors of the order. The program for the week embraces the four days' session of the grand lodge and unlimited entertainment for the members of the order, who will have an immense variety to select from, all being free to those wearing the badge of the order. Outside of the grand lodge the most interesting feature of the contest of various sorts for prizes.

The social program throws open all resorts of the city to any one wearing an Elk's official registration badge. The completed program for the week is as follows:

Sunday—Reception of grand lodge members as they arrive. Automobile rides about the city through the courtesy of the Buffalo Automobile club.

Monday—Boat excursion from 2 to 6 on the steamer City of Buffalo.

Tuesday—Opening of grand lodge session at Convention hall at 10 a. m. by Governor Higgins. Addresses by Mayor Knight and Willard H. Tieknor, exalted ruler of Buffalo lodge. Organ recital by the Hon. Simon Fleischmann on the Pan-American organ. Singing by the Buffalo Orpheus and a chorus of 200 trained voices. At 2 p. m. election of grand lodge officers. At 4 p. m. band concert.

Wednesday—Annual parade of the order with lodges from all over the world and 60 bands in line. Grand ball at the Seventy-fourth Regiment armory.

Thursday—Trip to the Lackawanna steel plant by trolley or boat. Picnic for the families of the visiting Elks at Park lake.

Friday—Special excursion to Niagara Falls. The Niagara Falls Elks will entertain the visitors while at the Falls.

Following the close of the reunion there will be special excursions to Chautauqua, Toronto, Olcott beach, Fort Erie and other points of interest.

Wing Family Reunion.
(Journal Special Service.)
Sandwich, Miss., July 2.—Several hundred members of the Wing family of America have gathered here for their third annual reunion, held at the homestead of the first member of the family who came to this country. The house was built in 1841 and is now occupied by a lineal descendant of the builder, having remained in possession of the family for two and half centuries.

MONTANA MAN CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Helena, Mont., July 7.—Governor Toole has issued a requisition upon Governor Gooding of Idaho for the return to Missoula of Samuel J. Tilman, who has been arrested at St. Anthony, Idaho. Tilman is alleged to have embezzled $2,000 of the funds of the American Freshford Land & Mortgage company, Limited, of London, whose agent he was at Missoula.

ROSEBURG TO HAVE FOUR NEW COUNCILMEN
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Roseburg, Or., July 7.—At the July meeting of the city council two new wards were admitted to North and West Roseburg. This will add four councilmen to the present body, and considerable interest is felt as to who will receive the plums, as the members will be appointed by the mayor.

Fendleton Merchant Retires.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Fendleton, July 7.—Fred Nolf, one of Fendleton's prominent merchants, today sold his notion store to Wingfield Perry and will retire. Mr. Nolf is in poor health and will not go into business again until he recuperates.

MYSTERIOUS WOMAN IS SENT TO ASYLUM
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Walla Walla, July 7.—A strange woman giving the name of Louise Folmbees was ordered committed to the Eastern Washington hospital for the insane by Judge Brents yesterday. The identity of the woman has been a puzzle to the officers for more than two weeks. She was arrested on the streets by Sheriff Painter for safe keeping. Despite a rigid search no one has been found who knows the woman or where she came from. She continually speaks of her husband and children, but cannot remember where her home is. The woman is about 42 years of age and fairly well dressed. She will be taken to the asylum in a few days.

Prepare for Good Roads Meet.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Walla Walla, July 7.—The executive committee of the Walla Walla County Good Roads association will meet this evening to arrange for entertaining delegates to the State Good Roads association, which meets in Walla Walla some time in September. The exact date has not yet been announced. The Walla Walla association expects that several hundred delegates from all parts of the state will be in attendance.

Baker City's Cash Book.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Baker City, July 7.—The report of the city treasurer of this city made before the council last night makes a good showing. The amount of cash on hand last November was $39,332. The receipts since that date have been
