MAKING A GOOD IMPRESSION.

SEVERAL VISITORS to Portland have recently commented upon its comparative freedom from crime and open parade of vice...

SMALL CHANGE

An Ohio man who is 105 years old says he lived so long because he always worked hard. But a good many people would rather die young.

CAREER OF RUSSIA'S GREATEST MAN

From the Chicago News. Sergie Julewitsch Witte named as a member of the Russo-Japanese peace committee, has risen by sheer force of merit to the highest position which a subject can attain in Russia.

SHIP BUILDING AND DOWNS IN PORTLAND

Portland, June 13.—Portland at the present time enjoys a boom of prosperity, which we all know is very desirable.

THE BOXES MUST GO.

AFTER a two years' struggle a box ordinance was secured which ran the gauntlet of the lower and upper courts. Then there came in an administration which accepted the law as it stood and was interpreted, and prepared to enforce it.

OUTINGS NEAR HOME.

EVERYBODY should take not only an outing, but a good many outings, as continuous an outing is consistent with the performance of their duties and their general circumstances.

OREGON SIDELIGHTS

Medford is to have a vinegar factory. Hopspraying is now "in full blast."

LEWIS AND CLARK

In the Rockies, trudging westward along the Missouri river. July 30.—By employing the towpoles whenever the banks permitted the use of it, the river being too deep for the pole, we were enabled to overcome the current, which is still strong.

NEW ASSESSMENT METHODS.

WITHOUT REFERENCE to specific cases the principle upon which the county assessor is proceeding is one which will, if not immediately at least ultimately, meet with approval.

TEST OF JAPAN'S STRENGTH.

MONEY TALKS. In a large sense money is the lever that moves the world. Money, as well as knowledge, is power.

A STATESMAN'S BOLD UTTERANCE.

THIS bold, original, almost startling expression of opinion on tariff revision and the treasury deficiency was made by that courageous Hoosier statesman, Representative Overstreet.

Depew and Hendricks.

From the Brooklyn Eagle. Asked whether the exhibit or guarantee fixed any responsibility upon him, Mr. Depew replied: "As a lawyer, I don't think so, and am informed by the counsel of the receiver that it does not."

Best-Loved Man.

Ashbury Park Special to New York World. Through his fine coat of tan, through his very evident fatigue, President Roosevelt blushed yesterday afternoon.

Readers in Cigar Factories.

From the Bookman. He is a singular reader, this paid reader, found in virtually every one of the large Havana cigar factories and many of the smaller galleries.

Pilot Rock Record.

Clark Sturtevant, youngest son of A. J. the man with a barb wire fence about Pilot Rock, left Pilot Rock last Monday in a freight wagon for Pendleton, on his way to the Lewis and Clark fair.

Tacoma in Portland.

From the Tacoma Ledger. After all the shouting that has been done by Tacoma throats at Portland during the past two or three days, what does it amount to?

Best-Loved Man.

It was impossible to check the din for many minutes, and the "best-loved man" enjoyed it to the full.

Best-Creek Ever Known in Summer Lake Valley.

Best crops ever known in Summer Lake valley, the garden spot of central Oregon, claims the Central Oregonian.

Good Run of Fish in Boise River.

Good run of fish in Boise river.

We Are Moderate.

From the New York Herald. Americans spent $1,000,000 for drinks last year, but had each man spent for liquor as much in proportion as did the English the sum would have been increased to $1,500,000.
