Yellow Jack Claims Two More Victims in New Orleans—Fifty Cases Treated.

STRINGENT MEASURES TO STAMP OUT DISEASE

Affected Region Is Old French Quarter Near the Market—Campaign Waged Against the Mosquito—Quarantine Established.

(Journal Special Service.)
New Orleans, La., July 24.—Two more deaths of yellow fever occurred today, making a total of 38 for the present epidemic. In all there have been 102 cases, and there are 50 cases under treatment at the present time. The first death occurred July 15.
A conference of all state health authorities and those of the United States marine hospital service is being held today. Stringent hygienic measures are being taken and portions of the city affected are under quarantine. Sanitation has been established at all railway stations outside of the city and the utmost precaution is being used to prevent the spread of the disease and to stamp it out.

George H. Young of the United States marine hospital service today took charge of the inspection of trains. Co-operating with him are the city and state authorities of Louisiana and Mississippi. His headquarters are at Jacksonville.

The mosquito ordinance enforced yesterday by the council is being passed today and large numbers of men are busy screening over cities, pools of water and all places where it is possible for mosquitos to breed. The swamps near the city are being treated as they were in Cuba a few years ago and quantities of petroleum are being used for the purpose of being poured in the water.

HOW TRUST INCREASED COST OF WHITE PAPER

(Journal Special Service.)
St. Paul, Minn., July 24.—In the investigation of the General Paper Company before Special Examiner Tyler, appointed by the United States court, A. J. Wales of the Duluth office of the Conde Hamlin of the St. Paul Pioneer Press and W. J. Murphy of the Minneapolis Tribune testified that the cost of paper had advanced enormously by the trust and that it is impossible to do business on an equitable basis. They testified that none of the independent mills operating in the northwest were of sufficient capacity to afford security of supply to any publishing company.

Lucien Swift of the Minneapolis Journal and George Thompson of the St. Paul Dispatch testified that the cost of paper had increased from 15 to 50 per cent since the organization of the General Paper Company. The investigation closed and adjournment was taken until July 26.

REPAIRS AT SAN DIEGO

Sailor and Japanese Workroom Boy Dead From Injuries Received in Disaster.

TO RAISE BENNINGTON AND REPAIR DAMAGES

Officers Report That None of the Plates Are Sprung and No Holes Found—Ship Will Be Towed to Mare Island Navy Yard.

(Journal Special Service.)
San Diego, July 24.—Two more victims of the Bennington disaster were moved from the hospital to the morgue this morning. They were Ward B. Kennedy of Alliance and Tashiro, a Japanese workroom boy. The former died late yesterday afternoon; the latter at 4 o'clock this morning. This makes the total dead 31.
Kennedy's brother arrived yesterday afternoon, but too late to find him alive. The Japanese boy gave up life yesterday, saying: "I am all done; please send my body back to Nippon. Bansei, Nippon."
Navy-master's Clark Mehus and P. Niemman are in a very serious condition.
Ensign Jaffe, executive officer of the submarine service on this coast, who is superintending the inspection of the hull of the Bennington and in charge of the divers examining the damage under water, today reported that none of the plates were sprung and no holes found. He says that the ship could be towed out today, if necessary.

NO HOLES FOUND.

Divers Report That Hull Suffering Is Least and No Leaks Exist.
(Journal Special Service.)
Washington, July 24.—A report has been received from Constructor Evans of San Diego stating that the Bennington's hull was inspected and no leaks have been found in the hull plating and that the list to starboard is due to the shifting of the boilers. The Bennington will be towed to Mare Island and repaired.

ACCUSED OF PASSING WORTHLESS CHECK

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
Salem, Or., July 24.—A. A. Cunningham, handwriting expert, testified before the state grand jury yesterday that signatures to 75 applications for the purchase of state school lands aggregating 32,000 acres were forgeries written by H. H. Turner. The applications purported to have been made before Turner as a notary public, and Turner is alleged to have signed the names of fictitious persons to the applications and then certified to the persons named therein as having appeared before him and to the facts set forth. The contest arose when John De Laittre, a Minneapolis banker, applied for deeds to the land which the state had refused. De Laittre testified that he had purchased the certificates from A. T. Kellier at Minneapolis in 1900, and that he was an innocent holder and entitled to protection. Arguments upon the case will be made at the regular meeting of the board in August.

MAYOR M'CLELLAN IS INDORSED BY TAMMANY

(Journal Special Service.)
New York, July 24.—Pursuant to the call of Joseph P. McKim, one of the members of the general committee of Tammany Hall met at the wigwag and took the first steps in the mayoralty campaign of this fall. As was expected, the keynote of the proceedings was an enthusiastic endorsement of Mayor McClellan for a second term. In resolutions intended as a reply to the invitation of the Citizens' union to join in a movement to non-partisanize the municipal government, the Tammany organization pointed to the record in office of Mayor McClellan, holding his administration up as a model of non-partisanship and fidelity to the people. McClellan has been more non-partisan in his conduct of public affairs than either Mayor Low or Mayor Strong.

ITALIAN ACCUSED OF SHOOTING TWO MEN

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
Roseburg, Or., July 24.—The trial of Antonio Bruno, an Italian section-hand was postponed by Justice Long today. Bruno is accused of shooting two comrades, Joseph Pella and two convicts, at Bruno's station, Monday night, Monday Bruno was discharged from the employ of the railroad. Being unpopular among his associates, he evidently thought they had something to do with his trouble, and started back in the evening to the camp. On arriving at the camp and having a gun in his hand, he was attacked by the workmen. Firing his gun three times before he was overpowered, he shot Pella in the leg and another bullet scratched Scavella's leg on the inside. His countrymen brought him to the sheriff.

ACCUSED OF FORGING SEVENTY-FIVE CLAIMS

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)
Dallas, Or., July 24.—J. W. Gilpin, formerly of Dallas, who some time ago passed a worthless check at McDonald's confectionery store in Dallas to the amount of $50, was caught in Salem last week by Sheriff Culver. The man was arrested by Sheriff Culver at Marion county and was handed over to M. A. Ford, deputy sheriff of Polk county, and is now in the Polk county jail. His preliminary hearing was before Justice Holman and he was bound over to appear before the December term of the circuit court under $500 bail. He was allowed to give bonds.

Gilpin signed his name to check for $50 drawn on John Snyder on the Independent National Bank. The check was returned to McDonald as worthless.

CONTRACTORS MUST FOLLOW SPECIFICATIONS

Chief Executive Does Not Believe Morris Street Work Is Up to Proper Standard and Incidentally Tells What His Policy Will Be.

"I have only one policy regarding street improvements, and people might as well know it now as later," said Mayor Lane today. "In all the departments over which I have control, the specifications for city work will have to be followed in every instance; and inspection will have to be made carefully and accurately with the intent to give all a square deal. Property owners will receive a dollar's worth of work for every dollar paid for improvements. The contractor will also be justly treated."
"What I have said will be the rigid rule during my administration, and there will be no exceptions, if it is within my power to prevent them. I say this without malice to anybody."
The above statement, which was given by the mayor in explanation of a criticism he made regarding the improvement of Morris street between Williams and Union avenues, before the meeting of the street committee of the city executive board yesterday, was criticized at the had visited the street and that the contractor was doing a very poor job. He had secured a copy of the specifications which were prepared during ex-City Engineer Elliott's term of office and after examining them he stated that he concluded that they were very loosely drawn. He also said Inspector George F. Bodman was doing a poor job of inspecting for large boulders being mixed with the finer gravel, and that the result would be a poor street.
City Engineer Wanser stated today that the plans and specifications for the work had been prepared before he took charge of the office and the contractor let accordingly; that all he could do would be to force the contractor to comply with the specifications, which he stated he was doing.

SET ASIDE DAY FOR WORKINGMEN AT FAIR

August 3 has been set aside for the fair management for the workingmen of Portland and Oregon, when the admission will be reduced to 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children, and those for tonight are to be even better. All day the expert operators have been busy preparing for the exhibition and the people who attend the exposition will be rewarded with something more brilliant than anything ever witnessed in Portland.

Eugene Man Likes St. Johns.
George A. Dyson, a Eugene business man, has purchased ground 60 by 100 feet at the corner of Ivanhoe street and Broadway, St. Johns, and will build three or four-story brick structure for stores and offices. Plans are being drawn by Architect W. W. Goodrich for a building to cost about $25,000.

Strikers Meeting.
(Journal Special Service.)
Belgrade, July 24.—Striking electrical workers are rioting today and no trams are moving. The secretary of the Belgian legion was injured during the rioting.

SPECIAL DISPLAY AT FAIR THIS EVENING

Tonight the display of fireworks will be worth seeing at the exposition. They begin at 9 o'clock and will exceed in beauty those shown any previous night. The display last Saturday night was the best that had been seen up to that time, and those for tonight are to be even better. All day the expert operators have been busy preparing for the exhibition and the people who attend the exposition will be rewarded with something more brilliant than anything ever witnessed in Portland.

ROBERT L. GERRY NEW PATRON OF THE TURF

(Journal Special Service.)
New York, July 24.—Robert L. Gerry, son of Commodore T. Gerry, is the latest patron of the turf. He is the proud owner of the steeplechase horse Joe. His advent on the turf was a secret, though there was no special event for a long time, but as his father opposed it he put it off from time to time. The commodore expressed his opinion so strongly that Robert thought it best to hide his ownership under the name of "Eugene Stables."
In connection with Gerry's advent on the turf a report spread today that Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt would become his partner.

FAIR ATTENDANCE IS SUSTAINING RECORD

The attendance at the exposition this forenoon was 7,431, although there was no special event for the entire day. The total admissions yesterday were 17,426.

PLOT TO KILL SULTAN A MILITARY CONSPIRACY

(Journal Special Service.)
Prague, July 24.—An eye-witness of the attempt to assassinate the sultan at Constantinople says that immediately after the explosion he saw a number of Turkish officers rush to the sultan's carriage with swords drawn. They were beaten back by Albanian bodyguards. This lends color to the report that the plot to kill the sultan originated in a military conspiracy.

She was found a few hours later by her husband on his return home. The coroner's jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts. Mrs. Lacy was 23 years of age and was known for her quiet, unassuming character. Her husband left her at noon, and she was cheerful as usual. She had been married seven years and her wedded life was a happy one. In company with her husband she had just returned from a trip to the Portland exposition and eastern Oregon.

Water Business Heavy Also.

There is a heavy increase in business on the water lines of the O. R. & N. A new system of handling tickets on the boats between Portland and Seaside has been adopted and will go into effect tomorrow. Tickets on the Seaside will be taken up when people go aboard the boat, to avoid annoyance to passengers in having to remain in one place until the purser goes through and collects the tickets. Returning tickets on Seaside and Ilwaco it is impracticable, within the limited time between arrival of the beach train and the departure of the boats, to handle tickets in the usual manner. Commencing next Sunday the company will have no more tickets on the Seaside, with stationer keys, and all passengers who have reserved berths on the boats will exchange their steamer tickets for stationer keys, so that on their return to Portland they can proceed direct to their steamship company system is the same that is in vogue on the Fall River line between New York and Boston and has proven successful.
